Mickey Mouse Club Notes

Dear "Zollie": If you only knew how dumb you are at school we have learned 40 questions and answers about the flag. We learned that all men should salute it by placing their right hand over their heart, and in pledging the flag at the words "To the flag"—the hand is extended upwards toward the flag and this position is held until the end.

Zollie

You and Curt both salute the flag wrong.

Mary Elizabeth. M. M. C. Yep, she's right and Curt and I are embarrassed. However, from today on it will be done correctly. Thanks kindly, Mary Elizabeth. M. M. C.

This letter is merely an example of the numerous ones we receive giving us advice on our stage shows. Each letter is discussed, and all suggestions are given a trial. Practically all recommendations have been very effective. Please, won't you write us soon. All letters are answered.

M. M. C. Liar! Liar! How many times have you been called one? Now we're going to give away prizes to the best lies told on the stage, over the radio program. Register as soon as possible. The contest is March 13th.

M. M. C. Two boys and two girls divided the prizes offered in the stage contests last Saturday. Receiving them were: Carroll Courtney, Rt. 6, Box 46, Betty Burroughs, 266 N. Commercial, Richard Taw, 250 S. 23rd, and Billy Poorman, 709 N. Sumner.

M. M. C. Entertaining: watching the efforts of boys climbing up a hill after coasting down. Just like life—easy sliding—tough climbing. But it's the only way to get to the top.

M. M. C. I can't describe the many different valentines I was lucky to receive, but one does demand special mention. It was made by Myrtle and Gertrude Meier, with pictures of themselves, dressed in Swiss clothes. These two girls have appeared on many Mickey Mouse programs.

M. M. C. Last Saturday's valentine program included the Meier sisters, Camerone McDonald, Ewing twins, Opal Burch, Mary Beth Vincent, Ruth Hassenstab, Anna Dreiller, Dean Archart and Alva Rafferty. M. M. C. Happy birthday, George! And a large funfest is planned in your honor, today. A "George" stage show, serial, and—Laurel and Hardy in "Bonnie Scotland"—and—"Ah, Wilderness" with Wallace Beery and Lionel Barrymore. M. M. C. See you at one. So long, "Zollie."

Epidemic of Colds and Flu Following in Wake Of Freeze at Shelburn

SHELburn, Feb. 21.—A regular epidemic of severe cold and flu is following the recent cold and snow. Leland Miller was operated on for appendicitis at the Stayton hospital Sunday. He has been employed at the Scio Food Market since his graduation from high school in 1933. His sister, Helen, who is taking nurses training in St. Vincent hospital came up for a short time.

Youthful 4-H'ers Making Progress

Godden Moving Family to Crannell Where He Is Employed

MILL CITY, Feb. 21.—The 6th grade division one sewing club held its first meeting at the home of Charlotte Geertsen, Jennie Kasa, the club leader, had charge of the sewing. The Seven Seamstresses, 4-H bachelor club, met Monday at the club rooms. Eddie Moravec gave a demonstration on how to make a carpenter apron and the club leader, Miss Vannice, gave instructions for the tool kit. Harmonica solos were played by each member.

The division two 4-H sewing club met at the home of Dorothy Dean Mason Monday afternoon. Some finished aprons were brought and scored. A hair shampoo demonstration was given by Dorothy Dean Mason and Hazel Gouge. Lunch was served by Mrs. C. E. Mason.

Called to Longview Mrs. Jack Schaefer called to Longview, Wash., Wednesday on account of the serious illness of the young son of Mrs. Esther Grandbois Turner.

Sam Godden, who is employed by the Hammond Lumber company at Crannell, Calif., is here moving his wife and daughter to Crannell to reside. The son, Duane, will continue high school here.

The Birthday club met at the home of Mrs. C. E. Mason Thursday afternoon in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Jennie Davis and Mrs. Kittie Booth.

North End Man Is After County Job

WOODBURN, Feb. 21.—D. M. Dryden, who this week filed declaration of candidacy for the republican nomination as county commissioner, is a prominent farmer of this area. He bought a farm near McKee station, east of Woodburn, in 1930, and still owns the place. For 32 consecutive years he has exhibited fine draft horses at the Oregon state fair and the Portland exhibition, and probably has one of the largest collections of ribbons in the valley.

Dryden was a member of the Marion county grand jury for several months, and he states it is from his observations and investigations of records while on the grand jury that he determined to become a candidate for county commissioner. He believes he can be of real service to the county in that post.

Dryden was born in Scotland and came to the United States in 1888, when he was two years old.

Marion 4-H Club Will Plant Trees

MARION, Feb. 21.—Frank Shirwood, Jr., president of the boys' 4-H club forestry class, reports the work most interesting. The club meets Tuesday afternoons at the schoolhouse and has ordered 185 trees from O. S. C. for planting. They are now studying fire prevention.

In the girls' 4-H club sewing class Mrs. Charles Sarver has been appointed to fill Mrs. Harold Smith's place due to Mrs. Smith moving away.

Miss Rose Hutton, a former teacher here, visited old friends over the weekend. She is teaching in Cottage Grove.

Slate Guest Speakers

WOODBURN, Feb. 21.—Due to the illness of Rev. P. M. Hammond, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. Mrs. Katherine Powell will fill the pulpit Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. In the evening there will be joint services with the Church of God when Mrs. Stacey of Salem will be the speaker. Special music has been arranged for this service.

Looks Like Milady Fails to Sprinkle Crumbs For Robins

RICKREALL, Feb. 21.—Robins that arrived during the few nice days, are now stripping the holly trees and firethorn bushes of berries. There are scores of robins as well as grosbeaks and snow birds.

Aumsville Woman Is Called Beyond

Mrs. Blanche Parafinazek Getchell, 53, wife of Elmer E. Getchell, died Thursday afternoon in Aumsville, where the family has resided since May, 1926. She had been in ill health for some time. Funeral services will be held Sunday at the Bethel church.

She was born in Warsaw, Poland, August 26, 1877, and was married in Moscow to Louis Lubowicka, and to this union a girl and a boy were born, the son dying in infancy. Lubowicka came to the United States in March, 1904, and two years later sent to Poland for his wife and daughter, Mary, but he was killed in a railroad accident before she arrived. In June, 1908, she was married in Ft. Francisco, Canada, to Elmer E. Getchell, to which union two children were born.

Surviving are the widow and one daughter, Mrs. Lucille Howe, who lives at Aumsville with her father. Mary Lubowicka died in Canada in 1918.

Pins Distributed To 4-H Members

BETHEL, Feb. 21.—Members of the 4-H club have received their pins and cards for work they have done in various departments. Mary Hamrick and Wanda Froehlich each received the four-year card; Werna Froehlich, 114 Mae Creech, Freda Bucurech, three-year pin; Jean Hain, John Bucurech, Alfred Bahusen, Coralee Nichols, Lillian Hamrick, two-year card; Charlotte Hain, Lorraine Kirscher, Dorothea Froehlich, first-year pin.

The health club of the school presented written articles on first aid at the weekly meeting. In 4-H cooking practice, division one has prepared four breakfast dishes and division two is baking sponge cakes.

Cold Weather Fails to Keep Crowd From Play Presented at St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 21.—Despite the cold weather, a medium-sized crowd gathered at the St. Louis hall Wednesday night to witness the rural comedy, "Aaron Slick from Pookin' Creek," presented here by Dave Moses. The cast included: Herman Gassner, who played the part of Aaron Slick; Mrs. Rose Berry, who played opposite; Margaret Kraus; also Frances Saalfeld, Irene Lemery, Miss Frances Trichter, Clifford Hartwig and Miss Amelia Trichter.

Friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney Tuesday night for a surprise party honoring James Mahoney on his birthday. Cards were played, prizes given to James Mahoney, Mrs. Tom Walsh, Mrs. Ward Lundy and Mr. Walsh.

Jasper Trullinger Dies And Funeral This Morn

WOODBURN, Feb. 21.—Jasper Trullinger, 55, father of R. A. Trullinger of Woodburn died at his home in McMinnville Wednesday. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a. m. Saturday morning at the Free Methodist church of Woodburn and interment will be in Belle Passé cemetery.

Oberst Arrival Is Boy

WOODBURN, Feb. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Oberst (Pauline Nelson) formerly of Woodburn but now near Burns, are parents of an eight-pound boy, Jack Edward, born February 16.

Fire Is Defeated At Lowes' House

AUMSVILLE, Feb. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Lowe narrowly escaped losing their residence by fire Wednesday morning. They were awakened by the smoke at 1 a. m. The fire was gaining headway, having caught from the fireplace back wall becoming overheated. The flames spread into the wall and floor of the kitchen. Considerable damage was done to the kitchen because of the great difficulty in getting at the overheated back wall. Workmen required two days to repair the damage. The loss was covered by insurance.

Fred de Vries of Pratum, county Sunday school president, visited the Christian Sunday school Sunday and gave an interesting talk. Leonard Miller, who disappeared from his home here last Saturday was located at Scio. He had stopped at a farmhouse there for shelter, and by coincidence fell in with a family who knew his father. Leonard was living with his step-father. The boy notified his mother here, Mrs. Charles Parsons, of his whereabouts. He will remain for a time with his friends at Scio.

Grand Prizes at Cards Presented

SUBMITTY, Feb. 21.—The fourth section of the Altar society sponsored the last card party before Lent Wednesday night at the C. O. F. hall. High score prizes for "500" were won by Mrs. Lorrette Bradley and Joseph Lulay; bunco prizes, Ethel Riestler and Alvin Schmitt, Jr.; pinchole, Mrs. Chris Ruestters and Alois Wolf. The grand prize of the four series of card parties for "500" was won by Joseph Lulay and the grand prize in bunco went to Ernest Riestler. Mrs. Angeline Hartman was awarded the quilt and Mrs. S. J. Starr the blanket.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hottinger are the parents of a daughter, born February 18 at their home. This is their second child and first daughter.

Transient Helps Self to Warmth At Mehama Home

MEHAMA, Feb. 21.—Monday night when Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Stevens returned home with a party from a Townsend meeting at Lyons they walked into their home to find a strange man curled up on theavenport. When asked what he was doing there, he replied that he was cold. It was soon learned that he was a transient from the Santiam camp on the North Fork, so the men of the party took him there. This is the first time Mehama residents have been bothered by transients.

The Willing Workers club has changed its regular quilting day from Wednesday to Thursday.

Card Play Slated

SHAW, Feb. 21.—The women of the Immaculate Conception parish are sponsoring the last card party of the season before Lent Sunday, with "500" and other games will be the diversion. Everyone welcome.

Krink Is Speaker

LIBERTY, Feb. 21.—Orland Krink of Salem is scheduled to speak here Saturday at 7:30 p. m. at the school house on "Bird's-Eye View of Economic conditions in the United States," under the auspices of the current events class. Everyone interested is invited.

Oberst Arrival Is Boy

WOODBURN, Feb. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Oberst (Pauline Nelson) formerly of Woodburn but now near Burns, are parents of an eight-pound boy, Jack Edward, born February 16.

Community Clubs

MARION, Feb. 21.—In spite of the disagreeable cold night standing room was at a premium Tuesday night at the Marion regular monthly meeting of the Community club, Mrs. Jim Wilson presiding. Mrs. Miles Barber, chairman of the improvement committee, requested these having rooted shrubs to donate to the school ground planting to leave them at her home.

Homer Smith, leader of the glee club reported progress with weekly practice every Thursday night at the school house. A basket social is to be held on Tuesday night, March 17. Homer Smith and William Pearson are to arrange a program for that night.

Again the men were victorious in the contest programs. Their program of more than an hour's length was unique and well handled. It consisted of music, songs, eating contest and two comedys.

Odd Job Workers Demand Picks Up

A noticeable increase in the number of business men calling for odd job workers was reported at the national reemployment agency, 355 North High street, yesterday. The jobs have been such as window washing, snow sweeping, fuel storing and general cleaning.

Farmers are beginning to request the names of farm hands and wages of $20 and board and room per month are now being offered, about $8 more than a year ago. These jobs are quickly taken, employment officials said. Calls for houseworkers and housekeepers continue and from 10 to 12 regularly stand outside the agency, however, are generally low, with $10 a month near the top.

Credit Dinner Is Slated March 12

The annual spring banquet of the Salem Credit association will be held Thursday, March 12, at the Marion hotel. It was announced at the weekly luncheon meeting yesterday. Dr. Bruce Baxter, president of Willamette university, will be the speaker.

At the session yesterday, reports on the visitation at the joint meeting at Dallas this week was made by Phil Holmes. Announcement was also made that Art Kirkham, radio announcer of KOIN, will be the Friday noon speaker next week.

Five Here Among Heirs of Vantine

Five Marion county residents are included in the group of 20 heirs-at-law to the late Ashley J. Vantine of Portland, who this week went to the probate court in Portland to attempt to upset the will of the late Vantine who left the bulk of his $275,000 to Calvin Helig, owner of a long-time lease on Vantine's theatre property in Portland.

Helig's assertion exerted an undue influence on Vantine before his death and caused Vantine to draw up a will which did not represent the wishes of the deceased. Included in the property is a farm in this county appraised at $15,000.

Heirs in this county who are included in the suit are Mary Ellen Coleman, Jerome Jackson, Basil Wagner, Nan M. Wagner, Ethel Clerk.

Helig's residuary estate under the will has an estimated value of $250,000. Vantine died in Portland February 23, 1935.

Dynamite Truck's Operator Is Held

State police had a truckload of dynamite, literally speaking, on their hands yesterday.

The explosive was cargo of a truck from Los Angeles driven by Kenneth E. Browne, arrested while he was asleep in the truck near Woodburn Thursday night. Browne was charged with operating the truck without p. u. c. tags, and in justice court yesterday he admitted the charge. Later he paid a $25 fine to the sheriff.

Whereupon state police likely breathed a sigh of relief, for the truck and its load was brought to Salem along with Browne.

One-Minute Method For Waffles Made Available

A "one minute method" of stirring up waffle and pancake batter is available to housewives who use Fisher's pancake flour, according to local dealers who handle the product. Waffles are tender and thoroughly delicious when made with this standard product, one which is carefully milled and thoroughly tested by expert chemists who follow it through each phase of production at the plant. To use the one-minute method, all one needs to do is to add liquid to the flour when making pancakes or liquid and an egg for making waffles.

Firemen's Dance For Toy Fund Is March 4

The Salem fire department will hold its annual dance to raise a Christmas toy fund at Crystal Gardens March 4, it was announced at central station yesterday. The profits will go for paint, wheels and other materials needed in repairing toys for needy children. Charles Falkner of the east Salem fire station is in charge of arrangements.

Attendance Good At Bible School

General attendance at the laymen's 10-day bible school which opened at the Evangelistic tabernacle, Ferry and 13th streets, last Tuesday, has ranged from 75 to 100, with 65 persons registered for the full course, Rev. Charles G. Weston, pastor and instructor, stated yesterday.

Classes are open to the public without obligation to register. Rev. Weston says. The school has developed a warm interest and among subjects being treated are prayer, personal work, the spiritual life and Old Testament types. The classes are held at 8, 9, 10 to 11:15 o'clock in the morning and at 2 and 2:45 o'clock in the afternoon each day except Sunday. Special services are held each night at 7:45 o'clock. The laymen's school closes Thursday night, February 27.

Among leaders taking part in the school are Rev. Atwood Foster of Cottage Grove, Rev. Ferris A. Dodd, T. A. Sandall, district superintendent, and J. A. Bogue, secretary of the Assemblies of God district, under the auspices of which the course is being offered.

No Mail Deliveries Due To Washington Birthday

Postal employees here will have a holiday today, with no mail deliveries to be made during the day. The general delivery window at the office will be open from 9 to 10 o'clock this morning to accommodate transients. Outgoing mail will be dispatched as usual. The holiday is in recognition of Washington's birthday.

Surprise Landahls

PIONEER, Feb. 21.—Several of the younger neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Landahl, who recently moved near her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Ray Slater, paid them a surprise social visit recently. Mrs. Landahl is recuperating from a broken rib.
