The guest speaker, Dr. James Brew of New York, milk specialist of the American Jersey Cattle club, was introduced by W. T. Warren of Urges High Standard The theme of Brew's interesting talk was "Let us raise the standard as pertaining to Jerseyites." Dr. Brew said: "The consuming public is demanding better and richer milk; Jersey should signify good quality; we must breed to maintain type and production. Keep your registrations up, as the present demand for Jersey cattle is good."

Dr. Brew discussed briefly the problems of, milk distribution, and the aims in organizing cream line licenses and raw and pas- Market Will Occupy Old teurized milk. M. G. > SILVERTON, Feb. 24-Per- is going to see to it that somehaps every chamber of commerce thing is done, should every now and then be headed by a woman. That, at least, is fast becoming the opinion of Silverton citizens. Men are apt, says Silverton, to turn their eyes outward only: to find a new place where another dollar may be secured. Women, even business women are more prone to look closer to home.

Plans for spring house cleaning are already underway at Silverton. Mrs. J. C.
