Interesting Facts

Governor Harold C. Hoffman of New Jersey, who has received wide publicity through his interest in the Hauptmann case, is one of those rare individuals who has never met defeat in the 10 times he has run for public office. Even in 1924 when democracy was generally victorious he only suffered a reduction in his unusually large majorities.

According to farm credit administration figures the numbers of farms bought from the 12 federal land banks by farmers and investors in 1935 was almost double the number for 1934.

The federal deficit on January 31, at the end of seven months of the current fiscal year, was $2,124,419,129 and the national debt increased to $3,516,452,985.

Official census bureau estimates place 1935 population of the United States at 127,521,000.

Packed House Is Pleased by Drama

MACLEAY, Feb. 24.—A packed house was in attendance Saturday night when the Central Howell community club presented the three act comedy "The Blue Bag." All parts were exceptionally well taken.

The scene was the Macklin hotel with few patrons, in a small town. Mrs. Macklin played by Mrs. Clarence Johnson and Mrs. M. C. Clancy. The comedy was a humorous one, with a happy ending. Mrs. Johnson's performance was particularly noteworthy. Her husband, who was a member of the club, was a member of the first emigrant party of 1843 that laid the way to Oregon.

John Lauderback took the part of the skidish husband; Ruth Simmons, the simple, homespun ambitious; to make her hotel well known at any cost, have a public wedding in the hotel and hold her husband though she considered him a fickle old fool.

Reed Services Held Lebanon

Pioneer of '52 Honored by Many Friends at Funeral Monday

LEBANON, Feb. 24.—The community in which he had lived since coming to Oregon as a youth of 14, in 1852, paid tribute to John Reed, a native of Kentucky, Saturday, in simple funeral services at the Howe chapel here at 2 p. m. today.

He left his boyhood home and birthplace, Burlington, Iowa, where he was born August 31, 1838, to make the covered wagon journey across the plains in a party of 24 wagons led by his grandfather, father of his mother, Hettie Morgan Reed, a native of Kentucky. His father, James N. Reed, a native of Illinois, was another leader of the party.

After his arrival in Oregon, where his family settled in Linn county, he made nine trips to California with wagon-loads of flour and apples, while still a youth in his teens.

Married 76 Years

Death closed the final chapter of the 76 years of married life he had shared with his wife, Anna Bond Reed, 93, pioneer of 1853, who survives. The couple was married on September 21, 1859, the same year that Oregon became a state, at the home of the bride's father, Nathan W. Bond, on the Santiam river near Albany, southeast of Knox Butte. Her parents, Nathan and Elizabeth Traylor Bond, had moved to Linn county from near Jefferson, in Marion county, where they had spent their first winter in Oregon at the home of her uncle, Jesse Loney, who came to Jefferson as a member of the first emigrant party of 1843 that laid the way to Oregon.

Moved to Lebanon
Mr. and Mrs. Reed lived many years on their large farm near Lebanon, but before the turn of the century had acquired a large house in Lebanon, where they lived the latter years of their life. Mr. Reed was mentally alert and physically active until shortly before his death.

Besides his wife, Mr. Reed is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Denny, Portland; a son, Austin Reed, near Albany; three grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. One son, Clifton Reed, died in his youth, and a daughter, Mrs. Effa Bodwell, died in 1927.

Officiating minister at the funeral service was Rev. George Simons. Pallbearers were all members of pioneer families. Interment was in Riverview cemetery, Albany.

F. Johnston and son, Wayne. Officers of Ankeny grange were seated and Master Ralph Dent was in charge of the meeting. The program was also given by Ankeny grange which consisted of "Lincoln," Lenore Schacher; "Washington," Mrs. Eugene Finlay; description of a perfect granger, Eugene Finlay; recitation, Phyllis Cole; play, "Cornfield," given by Esther Hartley, Alphonse Schacher, Ralph Dent, Irene Blinston and Wilma Wintermantel, piano solo. After the meeting, supper was served in the dining room.
