

Annual Convention of District Rebekahs is in Session Today

Full Program Is Announced

Delegates From All Units of County to Attend Day's Meeting

WOODBURN, Feb. 28.—Plans have been completed for the 23rd annual Rebekah convention for District No. 4 which will be held in Woodburn Saturday.

Delegates from all Rebekah lodges of Marion county are expected to be present. The convention will be held at the Woodburn armory, the first meeting to start at 1:30 p. m., following lunch, which will be served from 11:30 to 12:30.

The meeting will be opened with an address of welcome by Mrs. Gladys McClure, representing Home Rebekah lodge No. 55 of Woodburn. Response will be by Erma Mahlum of Kirk lodge No. 124, Canby.

A paper, "Part the New Member May Take in Lodge Activities," will be read by a delegate from Frances lodge No. 242 of Monitor, followed by Exemplification, electing noble grand from floor, by Tryphena No. 33 of Silverton; tribute to charter members, by Ideal No. 223, Turner; paper, "Duties of a District Deputy President," by Harmony No. 175, Gervais; exemplification, getting and using a withdrawal card and dismissal certificate, by Salem No. 1; community singing, led by Nina J. Ringo and accompanied by Joyce Woodfin; tableaux, "Ruth and Naomi," by St. Alexis No. 233, Butteville; paper,

News of West Salem

WEST SALEM, Feb. 28.—Donald Kahn, the new president of the club, was in charge of the special meeting of the community club Monday night. Milo Jensen is the new vice-president and Robert Pattinson secretary-treasurer. Hereafter the club will meet the fourth Monday of each month. Mr. Jensen, Mr. Randle, and Mr. Pruitt are on the program committee for the next meeting. It is desired that all children be accompanied by their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Swanson and Mrs. Mischler have returned from Seattle, where they spent a week visiting.

John Irwin, from Calgary, Canada, is staying with his sister, Mrs. Mischler, for a few days on his return trip from Los Angeles. The Ladies' Aid will meet Wednesday afternoon for a business meeting at the home of Mrs. John Evans.

See Granddaughter Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kuhn motored to McMinnville to see their granddaughter, Norma Yvonne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lawrence.

The Fortnighters met at the home of Mrs. Fern Bradford Thursday afternoon. They spent the afternoon sewing, after which refreshments were served. Mrs. Irv Miller was a special guest.

Whetzel Kuhn has had to have his leg put back in a cast due to a fall.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Lewis were guests all day Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Davis.

"The Obligation of Members Toward Lodge Officers," by Thalia No. 131 of Hubbard.

To Elect Officers New business will include election of officers and selection of a meeting place for the Rebekah convention in 1938. The closing ceremonies of the afternoon session will be in charge of Home lodge of Woodburn.

Dinner will be served in the armory at 5:30 p. m. followed by the evening session, which will start at 7:30. It will include: Opening in Rebekah degree, by Home No. 58; introduction of officers of Rebekah assembly; seating convention officers; closing, conducted by Home lodge No. 58.

Officers of the convention are: Mrs. Hattie Peterson of Woodburn, chairman; Effie Sweeney of Monitor, vice-chairman; Nona O'Jen of Woodburn, secretary; Erma Mahlum of Canby, marshal; Blanche Norton of Monitor, conductor; Jessie Coomer of Gervais, L. S. chairman; Alice Ekan of Silverton, R. S. V. chairman; Lucille McKinney of Turner, L. E. V. chairman; Inez Adams of Scotts Mills, inside guardian; Evangeline Dentel of Butteville, outside guardian; Edith Painter of Hubbard, musician; Joyce Woodfin and Mona Doss, pages.

Hostess to Club Mrs. Elmer Rierson was hostess Tuesday to an all-day social affair of the Jolly Time Quilting club.

Audrey Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Davis, was home Thursday night for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Phillips and daughter have moved into the Joe Kaster house on Franklin street.

Jefferson Club to Ask Branch Bank

JEFFERSON, Feb. 28.—The Better Business club of Jefferson met in the club rooms Tuesday night. The club room has been made quite attractive. A partition has been removed and shelves taken out; the walls have been kalsomined and woodwork painted. The material was furnished by Roy Wickersham.

The matter of getting another blacksmith to continue the blacksmith shop which E. F. Oakley closed this week was discussed. Jack Tyson reported that he would interview the United States National bank officials in Portland in regard to establishing a branch bank here in Jefferson.

A local bank would be a great asset to the community. Bob Summerville was admitted to membership in the club.

Monday night, Trinity Sunday school teachers will meet at the home of Mrs. Samuel Torvend. Calvary Sunday school teachers will meet with Mrs. O. E. Lee.

Daughters of the Luther Reformation will meet Tuesday night with Miss Annabelle Jensen at 321 Mill street. Tuesday afternoon the Women's Home Mission Society of the Methodist church will meet. Tuesday night the Calvary Pentecostal church will hold services at 7:45.

Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. M. J. Madsen and Mrs. Ole Hatteberg will be hostesses to Trinity Ladies' Aid society. Lenten services will be held Wednesday night at St. Paul's Catholic church and at Calvary Lutheran church, with Rev. J. M. Jensen guest speaker at the latter. Calvary Ladies' Aid society will also meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ed Wear as hostess.

Thursday afternoon Immanuel Ladies Aid society will meet.

Clinic Slated Tuesday SILVERTON, Feb. 28.—A regular infants' and pre-school clinic will be held Tuesday afternoon at the Eugene Field school. Appointments are being made through Mrs. J. P. Ballantyne and Mrs. Irma LeRiche.

LABISH CENTER, Feb. 28.—Because of the prevalence of colds, measles and mumps which has made it impossible for the women of the community to hold rehearsals for their program there will be no March meeting of the community club, Nathan Kurth, president, announced late this week. It will be given in April.

Mission Program Slated at Church

Religious Groups Schedule Busy Day and Week at Silverton

SILVERTON, Feb. 28.—Silverton churches are starting the new month with a full program both for Sunday and for the nights of the coming week.

A special mission program will be given at Trinity Sunday school Sunday morning at 10 o'clock followed by the 11 o'clock services at which Rev. M. J. K. Fuhr, recently of San Diego, will speak on "Tempted and Tried in All Things." Sunday night the newly organized Trinity Luther League will meet with Miss Ruth Thompson as president.

Dr. Louis Patmont will speak at the Christian church Sunday night at 7:30.

Sunday school opens at 9:45 at the Methodist church Sunday morning. At 11 o'clock Rev. D. Lester Fields will speak on "Divine Power Our Inheritance." Special music is being arranged by the choir directed by Fred Baker.

The evening sermon theme will be "Empty Pitchers." At Immanuel church Rev. J. M. Jensen will speak at 11 o'clock. The Young People's league will serve luncheon following the services and this will be followed again by an afternoon program.

A communion service will be held at Calvary church Sunday at 11 o'clock with Rev. E. G. Larson in charge.

Monday night, Trinity Sunday school teachers will meet at the home of Mrs. Samuel Torvend. Calvary Sunday school teachers will meet with Mrs. O. E. Lee.

Mickey Mouse Club Notes

BARBARA Hathaway, 1140 Market street, was the first to register for the "Liars" contest, March 14th. Because of her punctuality, Barbara will be our guest at the matinee, today.

ANY Mickey Mouse member may enter the contest. However, you are requested to sign up as soon as possible.

M.M.C. MERLE Thatcher, Mickey Mouse secretary, tells me she needs the addresses of the following: Dorothy Koepfen, Arlene Johnson, Ray Smith, Juanita Brown, Clayton Fisher, Dorothea Lehman, and Pauline Nelson. M.M.C.

I am trying to get in touch with Charles and Thelma Kohlepp. M.M.C.

HOW would you like to be in my place? Attempting to select 30 entertainers for the "Follies" out of 250. M.M.C.

THE Indian program, presented by Chemawa students last Saturday, came as quite a pleasant surprise to the members in attendance. Because of its unsuitability for radio broadcasting, it was offered just before one o'clock.

OTHER entertainers on the "George" program were: Lulu McMorris, Joan Blaxall, Bunny Given, Joan Thomas, Patty White, Dorothy Edwards, Colleen Krosner, Dorothy Smith, Leone Goff, and Curt Williams. The play, "George and Paul Revere", was written by Eldon Foster. M.M.C.

WRITE a lyric to the tune of "When Your Smiling," Mickey Mouse theme song, and you'll receive a free pass to the matinee. Betty Berchett was the first to have her song used over the radio program. M.M.C.

THE "gang" today will offer "Life in the Ozarks" or "Hand Me Down My Fowlin' Piece"—a real drammer depicting hill billy life. It's a lot of fun, so don't miss it. All done in costume. This was prepared by Bill DeSouza and Hal Jepson. On the screen: Chapter five of "The Adventures of Frank Merriwell," and James

W. U. Quartet to Appear at Church

Claire Stewart is Coaching Senior Class Play at Turner

TURNER, Feb. 28.—The Wesleyans male quartet of Willamette university will sing at the 11 o'clock morning service of the Methodist church March 1. Members of the quartet are Laurence Edwards, Jim Pike, Bob Buxton, Eugene Hibbard with Cloyd Riffe, pianist.

Miss Claire Stewart is coaching the senior play, "A Crazy Mixup," which will be staged some time in March in the school auditorium. The sophomore girls are giving a leap year party Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tharp with a late adjournment to a midnight show.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schaefer are receiving the congratulations of their friends upon the arrival of their first child, a son, at a Salem hospital February 20. The parents have passed their 20th wedding anniversary.

Farmers' Union News

CLOVERDALE, Feb. 28.—The Cloverdale Farmers' Union local met for its regular monthly meeting Wednesday night. A much smaller group than usual attended the meeting. Carl Booth is president. George A. Thies presided at the local with 25 Farmers' Union song books as an anniversary present. This local was organized a year ago this month with only 10 paid-up members; now there are about 25. The local has an average attendance of about 60 persons.

The local made plans to invite and entertain the county convention in July at this union. Ivan Hadley sent in his resignation as chaplain due to his inability to attend meeting since he has moved to Albany. Hadley offered a set of platform scales to be set up and used in this neighborhood.

After the business meeting the best program of the year was given by a group of Salem Heights boys: Don Pearty, Russ Beardley, Orville Beardley, Bobby Bohannon and Charles Beardley. Mrs. Agnes Booth, principle at
