Round Robin Wrestling Tournament Slated Tonight at Armory

Eight, Mostly Meanies, Meet

Sugai and Curtiss to Be Only Exceptions; Six Villains Lined Up

Whether its a sign of spring or not Promoter Herb Owen will offer his first round robin wrestling tournament to Salem mat fans at the armory tonight when eight brawny buckos vie for a main event chance on the following week's card

Owen could have hardly selected a huskier crew of villains and near-villains from the assembled bad men of the Australian bush than the octette which will perform tonight.

The list is headed by Alberto Campos, newly imported menace from Mexico. Campos, who claims he is the ugliest man in the wrestling business, is the mat champion of all territory south of the Rio Grande and is out to annex new honors. Hardly shaded in rascality by the Mexican are Hobo Chambers, Dick Costello and Jean LaBelle, as mean a trio as ever tossed a cleanie into the laps of the audience. Lon Darron, a newcomer, and Jack Hagen, a skillful performer, are also slightly tainted with villainy.

Early Bouts Short Don Sugai, victor three times in three starts here over LaBelle. Chambers and Costello, and Jack Curtiss, popular Mississippi matmen, will alone attempt to maintain the honor of the sweetness and light fraternity and one of them will probably be in at the

The eight wrestlers will draw for partners at the beginning of the melee and each pair will wrestle for 15 minutes to a fall or decision. The four winners will follow the same procedure and the two finalists will wrestle over a scheduled half hour for a fall or decision. The tournament will start at 8:30 e'clock.
