on Gardening at Ames Home

Picture Planting

SILVERTON, March 10. - The beautiful Ames home on East Main street was the setting for a garden talk by Rholin Cooley Monday afternoon at the March meeting of the Silverton Woman's club.

Mr. Cooley had for his subject, 'Picture Planting," and stressed Slated by P. T. A. the point that it was just as necessary to carry out a harmonious plan without the house as within. And in so doing, Mr. Cooley said, the entire four seasons of the year should be remembered. It was unbalanced, he indicated, MOSLER Mestric, 246 State St. Wir when planting to think of summer alone.

Prefacing Mr. Cooley's talk, Mrs. G. B. Bentson read a poem, "My Garden," written by Miss Rosella Richardson of McMinnville, Mrs. A. B. Wiesner briefly reviewed Aydelotte's novel, "Long Furrows."

Vote Fund to Farm The club voted to send its annual money donation to the Farm home at Corvallis and to the Foundation fund of the general federation clubs. Plans were discussed for a lib-
