

St. Patrick's Day is Celebrated With Program at Mt. Angel

Portland Man Main Speaker

Dr. Reiling Chairman For Festive Event by Casey Unit

MT. ANGEL, March 18.—A genuinely interesting entertainment was afforded the people of Mt. Angel and outside visitors at the Mt. Angel auditorium Tuesday night, to celebrate St. Patrick's day. Music, good old Irish songs and wit and humor of the best variety coupled with short and to the point talks on Catholic action were received by the audience with every evidence of pleasure.

The program was presented by the Knights of Columbus and arranged by Valentine Eberle, chairman. Dr. F. A. Reiling, Joseph Brookhaus and William Kloft in collaboration with Father Aleuin. Dr. F. A. Reiling acted as honorary chairman, introducing the speakers and singers.

The main talk was by Father Delaney of the Portland university, sparked with wit and humor. He covered a variety of subjects but all pointing to a genuine kindness towards all the world. The last number was an impromptu speech by Father Aleuin. Musical features included solos by Miss Clara Keber, accompanied by Miss Ursula Keber; songs by Dr. A. F. E. Schierbaum's male chorus; solos by Miss Agnes Walker, Gene McEntee, state deputy of the K. C. of Oregon, gave a rousing talk, and Rev. Father Sullivan of Silverton applied a version of the life of St. Patrick to Catholic action.
