Miss E. Schryver To Give Talk April 6

MISS EDITH SCHRYVER and Miss Elizabeth Lord will journey to Portland next week where the former will give an illustrated lecture Thursday morning before the Portland Garden club.

They will be entertained at luncheon by the board of directors headed by Mrs. Thomas Kerr, at the Town Club after the meeting.

Miss Schryver will give the same talk under the auspices of the Salem Garden club April 6 at the Unitarian church. Her subject is "Impressions of the Southern Hemisphere".

The pictures were taken by Miss Lord and Miss Schryver on their recent trip around the world and have been hand-colored by Miss Schryver.

After having spent the winter of 1935 with Miss Lord's brother in Manila, the travelers continued on their journey by the southern hemisphere. They first went to Ankor ruins in Indo China, Siam and Java across the Indian ocean to the Isle of Mauritius and on to South Africa. Two weeks were spent in Africa where many interesting pictures were taken in the Kruger National park and the Cape country. From Cape Town to Buenos Aires by the cruiser Franconia was a 12-day trip.

After several days in Buenos Aires the party started on their airplane flight over South America and Central America to the Mayan ruins and to Mexico. Two weeks in Mexico was the last foreign country. The flight from Mexico City to Los Angeles comprised one day.

Although the travelers were greatly interested in gardens and architecture the pictures are not wholly devoted to this subject, but scenes along the way depicting life and scenery of the countries visited will give a varied lecture over a vast amount of country.

Tourney Dance at Armory Starts At 10 P. M.

TONIGHT will usher in the first of the tournament dances sponsored by the Salem high "B" club at the armory. Because of the late games, Harry Wesley's orchestra will not start playing until 10 o'clock when the early arrivals from the tourney are expected.

The armory will be camouflaged with immense brightly painted banners representing each of the 16 teams fighting for the state championship. A particularly large one for Salem as the host will be prominently displayed and the figure of a basketball player will be used as a backdrop for the orchestra.

Committees from the "B" club in charge of arrangements are: entertainment, Bob Brady, Howard Damon and Bertie Galsyler; decorations, Wilbur Curry, Fritz Lindsey and Forbes Mack; advertising, Bruce Williams, Rex Witt, Otto Bahbrug and Charles Espin; patrons, Egan Hoffman and Joe Jennett.

Amity—Mrs. Helen Friday of Madras, associate grand conductor and deputy for the worthy grand mason of Oregon, paid her official visit to Amity chapter, No. 87, O. E. S., Monday night. A school of instruction was held for the officers in the afternoon followed by a 7 o'clock dinner.

Guests were present for the dinner and Mrs. Friday, independent. Later the work was exemplified by the initiation of two new members into the order. Amity chapter has accepted an invitation from Adah chapter to join with them in the district convention to be held some time in April. Girl Reserve uniforms for the fifth and sixth grade groups are now ready for distribution at the Y.W.C.A. They may be called for Friday afternoon after 1 o'clock.

Mrs. C. C. Geer will return today from Tacoma where she has been visiting relatives and friends since Sunday.

Panic Spreads Through East

Deluge in West Virginia as Waters Recede in Other Districts

mountains of snow had engulfed communities with heavy damage and loss of life. Authorities ordered all residents of the upper Connecticut river valley to move out forthwith.

Wellsville Hard Hit by High Water
The rampaging Ohio river, fed by the floods from Pennsylvania, swept through Wellsville, O., entering hundreds of homes and mauling the residents. West Virginia cities were sorely stricken, with Wheeling under water.

Looting and profiteering were reported in Pittsburgh and Johnstown, scene of the 1889 flood which caused more than 2,000 deaths. Suffering from cold and exposure was widespread.

Johnstown residents, chased from the business district Tuesday when 14 feet of water swept across the city, dashed to high ground in panic late Wednesday when rumors circulated that the Quemahoning dam had broken or was weakening.

Sirens, fire whistles, and burglar alarms were set off in Johnstown to warn the returning citizens and they fled to the hills nearby.

The rumors later proved groundless but national guardsmen kept 10,000 residents from the endangered area as a safety measure.

Fires, storms and cold weather hampered relief measures. Heating and light plants were out of order and terrified residents of the affected areas huddled in groups in churches, factories and hotels.

Communication lines were broken and food and fuel supplies were reported running low in Pittsburgh, Johnstown, and Cumberland, Md.

Reports said the floods were headed south toward Wheeling, W. Va., and sections of Harpers Ferry's main street were under eight feet of water as the surging Potomac and Shenandoah rivers continued to rise.

Merchants in towns along the Allegheny, Monongahela and Potomac rivers carried stocks and furnishings to second and third floor storage spaces in an effort to save them from the thundering waters.

Pittsburgh, swept by the most devastating flood in its history, was terrorized by explosions and fires. It faced prospects of being without light or heat for at least 60 hours. All gas lines, power lines and telephone lines were down.

Hazel Green—Miss Martha Dalke of Oberden, Idaho, is a guest at the home of her brother-in-law, J. V. Lehrman, Mrs. Lehrman entertained for her sister, Miss Dalke, with a dinner. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ediger, Misses Ruth Randall, Leona Lely, Martha Geris, Susie Rutschman, Lillian Rutschman, Ernest Gerig, Ewald Franz, Roy Rutschman, Homer Welty, Elds Herr, Mr. and Mrs. Lehrman and children.

The Man Who Knows

Whether the Remedy You are taking for Headaches, Neuralgia or Rheumatism Pains is SAFE is Your Doctor. Ask Him

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches; or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia; ask your doctor what he thinks about it—in comparison with Genuine Bayer Aspirin.

We say this because, before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin, most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of Bayer Aspirin largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken Bayer Aspirin year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: Genuine Bayer Aspirin is rated among the fastest moving and most effective of the relief of headaches and all common pains... and safe for the average person to take regularly.

You can get real Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by never asking for it by the name "aspirin" alone, but always saying BAYER ASPIRIN when you buy.
