Sam Brown Ardent For $200 Project

STAYTON, March 21.—Sam Brown was the speaker at the Townsend meeting Wednesday night and his opinion is reported as being that "recovery of business and return of prosperity in America is dependent upon turning the buying power to the hands of the common people."

"The common people must be given the buying power before we can expect any great change. The wheels of industry are dependent upon this class of spending, and it must be brought about."

"It is only fair that as long as no better plan for this program has been proposed than the Townsend old-age plan should be given a fair trial. With the passage of that bill, it is vital that the Townsend interests be vigilant to insure the election of reliable men to congress. If this is not watched the Townsend plan will fail in time, even though the bill be enacted."
