"Modern Methods in County Business" will be Bliven's slogan as he undertakes his campaign. A committee to handle his race has been organized with P. H. Preston as president and George H. Todd as secretary.

His backers yesterday said Bliven had never before asked support for a public office.

Bliven has been an ardent worker in the American legion and for years has also belonged to the grange.

Fred DeVries, president of the Marion county council of Christian education, has already applied for his passport in preparation for leaving early in June for the world's Sunday school convention at Oslo, Norway, he said yesterday while in town from his home in the Pratum district.

Mr. DeVries has just purchased a motion picture camera outfit, which he proposes to use at the world's convention to bring back to people of Marion county the pictorial story of the big affair.

Prior to leaving, he will use the movie outfit to take pictures of the various district Sunday school conventions to be in session within the next few weeks, starting with the Hayesville district gathering at North Howell Sunday.

The Pratum man hopes to finance the entire cost of the trip to Norway through sale of bulbs of five new kinds of gladioli which he has developed. So far, he said, bulb orders have not developed rapidly, though he anticipates the demand will be greater when weather conditions improve.

John F. Manning of Woodburn, who for the past four months has been serving on the grand jury here, announced yesterday that he would toss his hat into the ring and become a candidate for the republican nomination for county commissioner.

For nearly 30 years he has been a school board member and for seven years he served as a patrolman on county roads, being familiar with the roads of this district and needed improvements upon them.

He is 45 years old; a widower and the father of eight children.

Introduction of efficiency in county government will mean economy and saving to the taxpayers, Mr. Manning declares. He said in his filing statement that he favored adequate pensions for the aged and pledged himself to see careful attention is given each case of need which comes before the court. Such help as is necessary is to be given every needy individual.

Garver Will Seek Mayor Post Again

SILVERTON, March 26. — The political tension lessened considerably at Silvertown tonight when five old stand-patters of the party came out for various local positions. Mayor E. W. Garver, who has repeatedly declared that he would not seek re-election, succumbed to the urging of friends and filed for re-election. George Hubbs, erstwhile recorder, who was defeated two years ago by George Custer, democrat, will seek his old position. M. G. Gunderson filed for re-election as city recorder; C. B. Anderson will seek re-election as council member, and Errol Ross will also seek nomination for councilman.

That only two candidates came out for councilmen, when there are three vacancies, would indicate that John Porter, who recently filed for republican nomination for that office, would have no opposition from either side.
