Slate Silver Tea At Turner Today

TURNER, March 26.—Sunday morning Lenten 11 o'clock services at the Methodist church will include special music directed by Mrs. Mary McKinley, and the discourse by the pastor, Rev. O. W. Jefferson, on "Jesus the Son of Man."

The Methodist women will hold a silver tea Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. F. C. Gunning. The April fool motif will be carried out in the arrangements. All women are invited.

Late word from Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Endicott, who are spending the winter in southern California, is that they will likely return home by the last of April.

The Independent Missionary society held its March meeting at the home of Mrs. J. B. Kendall, Thursday afternoon.

Basketball Team Honored, Banquet

MT. ANGEL, March 26.—The Mt. Angel college basketball team and its promoters celebrated the close of a successful season with a banquet at the Mt. Angel hotel Tuesday night.

Marcel Van Droosma, assistant manager, was toastmaster. Rev. Vincent Koppert, rector of M. A. C., gave an interesting speech on the outlook of basketball in Mt. Angel. Short talks were also given by Rev. James Koessler, athletic director; John Kent Paulson, manager; Coach Fred Galer, and Captain Ted Marx, who spoke in behalf of the team.

Father Vincent awarded the athletic honors. Letters were presented to Ted Marx, Hub Saalfeld, Joe Herberger, Charles Christensen, Chas. Toman, Walter Meyers, Art Guthrie and John K. Paulson; numerals to Alfred Hansen, Ray Karp and George Schaefer.

Needle Removed From Leg After Quarter Century

An embroidery needle an inch and a half long and which Mrs. G. G. Looney of the Hazel Green district has carried unknowingly for possibly 25 years, was removed from her leg in an operation performed Tuesday.

The needle was much eaten by chemicals. Mrs. Looney, who has suffered considerable from the leg in recent weeks, says she has no idea where or when the needle was picked up. It was in 1910 when she was making Batenburg lace in Kentucky, or in 1910, when she did some embroidery in Riverside, Calif., while on their wedding trip.

In the operation, two pieces of bone were also removed.
