

Great Dancing Team Featured in "Follow the Fleet" Today

'Follow Fleet' Is at Elsinore

Ginger Rogers, Teamed Up With Astaire, Dances and Sings Often

Ginger Rogers fans are handed a treat in RKO Radio's musical, "Follow the Fleet," in which the vivacious titian-haired star dances four times and sings two of Irving Berlin's haunting melodies. It is showing today at the Elsinore.

Three of Ginger's dance numbers are done with her bewildering partner, Fred Astaire. They perform a sizzling hot collegiate ballroom routine to the tune "Let Yourself Go."

Later, they do a screamingly humorous eccentric pantomime dance to "All My Eggs in One Basket," and they also join in a vocal rendition of this number.

For the finale, Miss Rogers and Astaire perform a different interpretative dance to "Let's Face the Music and Dance."

Ginger's opening song number, "Let Yourself Go," is sung in a San Francisco dance hall, and in the second chorus she is backed by a girl trio.

Miss Rogers and Astaire are supported by a "top-hole" cast including Harriet Hilliard and Randolph Scott, and Astrid Allwyn. Mark Sandrich directed.

Fred Astaire and His Band in "Follow the Fleet"

Fred Astaire leads his own band and dances his way to new high honors with Ginger Rogers in their latest hit "Follow the Fleet", starting today at the Elsinore.

Monmouth People In Auto Accident

MONMOUTH, March 28—Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Halladay of Monmouth were patients at a Centralia hospital for a few hours due to an automobile accident Sunday near that city. Returning from Seattle where they had been to visit their son, Glenn, the Halladays were accompanied by Miss Pauline Morlan and Mrs. Elsie Davis, Monmouth.

The Halladay car was jammed against a telephone pole when Mr. Halladay attempted to pass another car, traveling slowly, but which blocked his way suddenly as he pulled out to go around. Mrs. Halladay's tongue was injured and some teeth knocked loose; Mr. Halladay suffered a long head cut and body bruises; Miss Morlan, a University of Oregon student, home for spring vacation, had her eye glasses broken, but neither she nor Mrs. Davis were injured.

It is said that the boy driving the other car did not have a driver's license. His father paid the Halladay's doctor and hospital bills. The damage to their car, about $200, is covered by insurance. The Halladays are proprietors of a local garage.
