Back in 1917 The Statesman posted news bulletins on their windows of late news before and after the paper was published. Sunday morning, April 1, 1917, someone sneaked into the office and posted a bulletin stating that Germany had declared war on the United States. War was declared some two weeks later.

It snowed in Salem yesterday, April 1st, no foolin'. Paul Johnson and Grover Bellinger recall April 1, 1917, when they went fishing up toward Silver Creek Falls and got stuck in the snow.
