

Red Cross Sends $1000 For Relief

Hope to Reach $1500 Quota for County by End of This Week

The Marion county Red Cross chapter yesterday forwarded a $1000 check to A. L. Schafer, Pacific branch manager, for use of the national Red Cross in the flood relief crisis in the eastern states.

Although returns will not be known definitely until the end of the week on the "zero hour" started yesterday noon over the business district, there is high hopes that Marion county will realize its full quota of $1500, Milton L. Meyers, directing the relief drive, said late yesterday.

First to report in the "zero hour" drive conducted by the business houses was the Woolworth store, the employees of which made a generous contribution. The next two reporting, in order, were Elliott Printing company and Winnie Pettyjohn, realtor.

$146 From Wrestling Proceeds totaling $146 from the benefit wrestling match staged at the armory Tuesday night for the flood fund were turned over to Mr. Meyers late yesterday afternoon, and Friday Silverton is expected to come up with its quota of $50 or more, as result of a benefit dance being given there tonight for the cause.

Mr. Meyers estimated final report on the flood relief fund will not be ready until the middle of next week, and urges that all who have not made their voluntary contributions do so before the end of this week. More than $300 remain to be raised.

Jason Lee Slates Easter Play 5th

The Easter play "The Boy Who Discovered Easter" by Elizabeth McFadden, will be produced at the Jason Lee church, North Winter and Jefferson streets, Sunday night, April 5, at 7:30 o'clock under the direction of Miss Beulah Graham. Elizabeth McFadden is the author of the famous Christmas play "Why The Chimes Rang."

The play has been adapted from the story, "The Boy Who Discovered the Spring." It is a play of three scenes with a modern setting. It depicts the story of Skelly Diggs, an unwanted, orphan and street wail, and Dr. John Dexter, a country physician, who has lost his faith through sorrow, finding God. Skelly Diggs, who has never seen grass, flowers, and butterflies before becomes Dr. Dexter's ward, has in his role all the elements of humor and tragedy.

The cast includes: Skelly Diggs, a crippled orphan, Jack Thompson; Dr. John Dexter, a physician, Donald Watson; Mary Dexter, his sister and a nurse, Frances Graham; and Maggie, a housekeeper, Clara Belle Burnside. The public is invited to attend the play. Although it is a royalty play no admission is charged.

Grand-Silver Adds Shoe Repair Room

Announcement of the opening of a complete, modern shoe repairing department in the F. & W. Grand-Silver store, 132 N. Liberty, was made yesterday by H. G. Lincoln, manager.

A waiting room has been installed at the rear of the store's main floor and, according to Mr. Lincoln, all shoe repairing will be done by expert workmen with all work guaranteed.

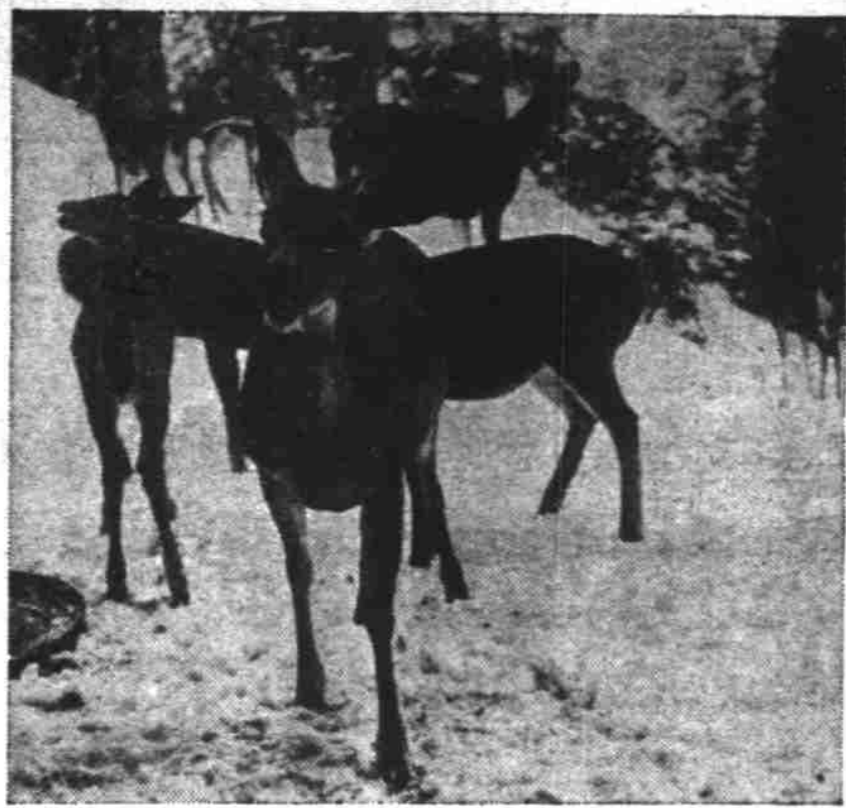

"A shoe repair department is a new departure for this type of store," Lincoln pointed out, "but in other branches of our organization where this service has been added the public has given good support."

"The great buying power of our organization makes possible purchase of finest materials at reductions which are passed directly to the customer," he added.

Where the Timid Grow Bold

These deer were snapped through a kitchen window at the Oregon Caves chateau, the attractive stopping place for folk who visit the famed underground caverns which are under the jurisdiction of the National Parks Service. They come to the kitchen door regularly looking for "handouts". The deer have a particular appetite for hot-cakes. The Oregon State Highway commission keeps the highway open to the Oregon Caves throughout the winter which gives Oregon folk and visitors from afar opportunity to visit them at any time.
