Miss Dunivan Is Betrothed to Mr. Powell

A PLEASANT surprise to their many Salem friends is the announcement of the betrothal of Miss Janice Dunivan, daughter of Ellsworth Dunivan of Mill City, and Marshall Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Powell of Silverton.

The wedding will be an event of early June and the couple will make their home in the capital city.

The news was given out last night at a party for the Hobby club in Silverton at the home of C. A. Reynolds, 60 West Hill. There were 36 in attendance. Miss Dorothy Van Gosen and Miss Ruth Vance were the hostesses.

A treasure hunt led the guest to scrolls attached to rosebuds, which contained the names of the engaged couple.

Miss Dunivan is a graduate of Monmouth Normal school and for the past three years has taught in the Silverton school.

Mr. Powell attended Oregon State college where he was affiliated with Delta Sigma Phi. He is now connected with the J. C. Penney company.

Mrs. Rex Davis and Mrs. Percy Kelly will entertain jointly this afternoon with a luncheon at Godfrey's. Eight tables of bridge will be in play afterwards.

Pattern

Laura Wheeler Pattern

Household Linens Pattern 1047 Not one—but two—favorite embroidery stitches set this simple design apart as the loveliest one imaginable, for linens. Cutwork and lazy daisy, used together to make these chrysanthemums and asters seem more life-like, are an easy and quick medium for decorating a scarf, cloth or centerpiece. The cutwork (without bars) is easy to do in one or a variety of colors, the asters in shaded thread, for contrast.

Pattern 1047 comes to you with a transfer pattern of two motifs 8 1/2 x 11 1/2 inches, two and two reverse motifs 4 3/4 x 7 inches and four motifs 2 3/4 x 2 1/2 inches; color suggestions; material requirements; illustrations of all stitches needed. Send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) for this pattern to The Oregon Statesman, Needlecraft Department. Write plainly pattern number, your name and address.

Uncle Sam Out to Check on Tickets

Persons Buying Rights on "Gold Stakes" May Be Losers

Salem people who recently purchased $1 tickets for the "Golden Stakes" prize contest learned yesterday that the large prizes they hoped to win may be impounded by the legal staff of the federal postoffice department.

"Golden Stakes" has been cited to show cause why it should not be barred from the mails both as a "lottery" and as a "fraud".

The tickets were received here about the time of the Irish Sweepstakes drawings. They were in books selling for $10 with the coupons engraved and simulating the style of ticket sold for the foreign drawings. While the tickets were ostensibly for admission to a show to be held in the east, it was clearly shown that they entitled the holder to a chance on prize money aggregating $150,000. Al Smith, Jr., was listed as one of the sponsors of the enterprise.

The management of the ticket sale said yesterday in the east that the "Golden Stakes" contest had been submitted to postal authorities before the contest was actually commenced. Written permission of the postoffice department was allegedly obtained before tickets were transmitted to prospective buyers.

Smith, in New York, said his organization was prepared to meet any charge. He said evidence would be furnished the postoffice department that his organization was conducting an "honest contest".

Hundreds of dollars in ticket purchases are thought to have been sent from Salem within the last fortnight.
