Week of Services

STAYTON, April 3 .- The Church of Christ is planning a series of special services beginning Sunday, April 5, and closing with an Easter program and pageant Sunday evening April 12. There will be services each night except Saturday.

The services Sunday evening, April 5 will be conducted by the Christian Endeavor. Among the special features of this service will be a solo by Linore Inglis who will sing, "Who at My Door Is Standing," and a pantomime, "More Love to Thee." The song will be sung by Margaret Kimbrough and pantomimed by Doris Crabtree, Frances Rider and Dorothy Tate.

On Monday evening the theme for the services will be "Christ Cleanses the Temple." Special music is being planned for this service as well as all the services of the week.

The services throughout the week will follow the events of the Life of Christ through the last week of his earthly ministry. Each service will be illustrated with lantern slides, appropriate music, and the sermon will be on the theme of the evening.

Work Applicants Total Unchanged

Active applications for work being carried at the re-employment office here totalled 5966 at theend of March—the same number as at the opening of the month. The report showed 54 placements in private work, 226 in public employment and 115 on works relief projects, but an equal number of new applications and registrations and 191 renewals brought the list back to the mark of March 1. The re-employment office pointed out that all the registrants were not unemployed. Some men have found work but have kept their names on the rolls hoping to get other positions.

Each six months all registrants are asked to report if they still seek jobs. If they make no answer to the request of the office, their names are dropped from the rolls.

Special Classes Handed Approval

Special classes for seven boys who have apprenticed themselves in the carpentering trade here were authorized to start at once by the Salem school board Thursday night. They will be given chnical schooling in these classes to accompany their practical study of the trade. The school district and the state board for vocational education will share equally in the $96 cost of the 140-hour course. Donation $154.42

The board also voted to share on the same basis in a course for maids, to cost $40, to be conducted in the part time school. Neither course will require payment of tuition fees.
