

Many Anglers Will Head Forth Sunday; Coast to Lure Most

Excursion to Valseltz Plan

Most of Trout Still Back in Mountain Streams; Bag Limit Lower

Fishermen, laden with tackle, favorite flies and bait, will head in varying directions early Sunday morning in an attempt to fill their creels with the bag limit of trout-20 fish in one day this year-and possibly to look for a few of the big ones that got away.

Most of the trout seekers will head for the coast streams for there, according to the anglers' authorities, will be the best fishing. Melting snows in the mountain streams make water cold and fish sluggish, a condition unfavorable for a successful catch.

While most of the coast streams are expected to be fairly well populated, with the finny tribe, most of the fish are still in the tiny streams where they went to spawn. According to game authorities these fish, weak after the spawning period, and hungrier after scarce winter feed, will be easy game for those who care to fish for them. They will not have much fight, however, due to their weakened condition.

Valseltz Pond Meets

Many local fishermen will try their first day's luck in Valseltz pond, open from Sunday until June 30. To accommodate fishermen a special speeder, with room for about 30 persons, will leave Hoskins at four o'clock Saturday afternoon and at 6 o'clock Sunday morning it will return Sunday night at 6 o'clock.

With a lower bag limit and less favorable conditions than in many years there will probably not be a record first day's catch in any locality. The bag limit has been lowered from 30 to 20 fish in one day this year or 15 pounds and one fish. The limit for consecutive days is 40 fish or 30 pounds and one fish.

Seattle Natators Take High Honors

CHICAGO, April 3.—(AP)—Jack Medina, star from the University of Washington and the Washington A. C. of Seattle, turned on a withering burst of speed in the last 20 yards tonight to nip Ralph Gilman of Ohio State University and retain his national senior A. A. U. indoor 220-yard free style title. Ralph Flanagan of the Greater Miami, Fla. A. C., was third. Time was 2 minutes, 11.6 seconds.

Mary Lou Petty of the Washington A. C. dethroned Eleanor Kight Winkard of Cincinnati as 220-yard champion and set new American and meet records in doing it. She pulled away in the last 100 yards to win over June Burr of the Greater Miami, Fla. A. C., by about two yards with Mrs. Winkard third. The western star's time was 2 minutes, 24.2 seconds, six tenths of a second faster than the American record established by Helene Madison, one time Washington A. C., star, in 1931. The former meet record, set by Mrs. Winkard last year, was 2:35.4.

Rush of Anglers For Licenses Is Reported

A last-minute rush for anglers' licenses was keeping deputies at the county clerks office extremely busy yesterday. When the fishing season opens tomorrow, scores of anglers sought their 1936 permit papers which sell for $3. A combined hunters' and anglers' license is $5; either one separately is $3. Out-of-state anglers pay the same rates. Oregon residents but out-of-state hunters must pay $15 for a license.

Northwest Volleyball Tournament Scheduled Here Two Weeks Hence; National Contest Trip Is Sought

FIVE champion volleyball teams from Oregon and Washington will come to Salem two weeks from today to vie with the local team in the annual northwest Y. M. C. A. title tournament. Proceeds from admission charges will go to the northwest champion to help pay its expenses to the national tournament at Davenport, Ia.

All members of the Salem team will serve as tournament finance committee with C. A. Page, sr., as chairman, and R. R. Boardman assisting. Dr. L. E. Barrick, coach, will serve as chairman of the hospitality committee, which will provide escorts for each visiting team. Keith Brown, chairman, and Nile Hilborn will arrange the tournament courts.

No Fight Card Due To Norris' Injury

Eye Infection to Prevent His Appearance in Main Event, Announced

Because Eddie Norris, scheduled for his first main event go, is laid up with a bad eye infection there will be no fight card Friday, April 10. Promoter Curly Feldman announced last night.

Norris, one of the scrappiest little fellows ever to appear in a local ring, has had luck camping on his trail. He came down with the flu on the eve of his first semi-windup bout and is now indisposed for his main event debut. Norris was scheduled to meet Nick Drake, Falls City fighter, at Scio last Wednesday but was unable to keep the engagement due to the bad eye he received in his scrap with Jack Curly.

Norris knocked Curly out in the first round of their six round event but was cut early over the eye before he could administer the telling punch. Curly was the fighter he was billed to meet when he became ill with the flu.

Will Meet Adams

Feldman said that he will match Norris with "Flash" Adams, Portland lightweight, in an eight round main event match April 17. There will be 34 rounds of boxing on the card.

Frank Riggl, Feldman's candidate for Northwest heavyweight honors, will take a little rest after being defeated by Tiny Cooper at Portland Tuesday. Feldman said that Riggl's loss was largely due to stage fright as it was his first appearance in the Portland arena. Riggl and Cooper will probably be matched here soon in a ten round bout for the state championship, now held by Riggl, on a winner take all basis.

Salem High Golf Team Victorious

Salem high's long-driving golf team counted its second victory of its spring schedule over one of the best high school teams in this region when it downed the Vancouver divoters 7 to 5 at Vancouver yesterday.

The Salem golfers, who will meet Parkrose and McMinnville teams in a three way match here today, had earlier won over the Corvallis team. Salem will meet Vancouver again here next Wednesday.

Carson and McDowell of the Vikings team tied for medalist honors yesterday, each with a 79. Scores:

Anglers' Contest To Bring Stories

SILVERTON, April 3.—Real fish stories are expected to be told with evidence at Silvertown during the next three months, for with the opening of the trout season Sunday, the Silvertown chapter of the Isaac Walton League is sponsoring a fishing contest. Winners of the prizes are to be offered in four different groups.

But there is to be no chiseling in the contest. All rolled or stretched fish are out. Only the longest firm fish will be considered and the official measuring place has been set for the Legard & Adams store at Silvertown.

All trout entered in the contest must be caught within the waters of Marion county, including the Molalla and Santiam rivers, provided the fishermen remain on the contest banks.

The contest will continue until June 15. Other rules are that the first prize is open to any Wal-tonian; the second prize will be eligible only to members of the Silvertown chapter. A third prize is offered to women who are relatives of Silvertown Waltonians and a fourth prize to any boy or girl under 14 who is a relative of local chapter members.

Lawrence Kirsch is rated the most outstanding candidate for catcher. Younce and La-Mear are letterman pitchers, and B. Kelsay, Malcoate, Huber, and Kidd will strengthen the pitching staff. Dunn, O'Connell, Otis, Cody, Woodyard, Spangler and Hardpan will compete for other infield positions. Eyestone, Bantier and Hastings are hard-hitting candidates for the fly-chasing positions.

Huskies Down De Paul Quint

Giant West Coast Hoopers Win 54 to 33 in U. S. Olympic Tourney

NEW YORK, April 3.—(AP)—Paced by a trio of sharpshooters, the University of Washington claimed the semi-final round of the Olympic basketball tournament tonight by whipping De Paul of Chicago 54 to 33 in the opening round of the quadruple header in Madison Square Garden.

Towering above their smaller opponents, the Huskies of Washington gained a 25 to 12 lead at half time and then continued their scoring rampage in the final period as Ed Lovrich, Charles Wagner and Ralph Bishop dropped the ball in from all angles.

Lovrich was the big gun in Washington's offensive. He took only 22 shots at the basket, but dropped in 10 field goals to lead the attack with a total of 20 points. Wagner added 14 more with five field goals and four free throws while Bishop, utilizing his six feet four inches to good advantage, registered six times from the floor and once from the free throw line for a total of 13 points.

Slow at Start

The game started slow with each team making only one basket in the first five minutes. The Huskies were not long in stepping up the pace, however, and with Wagner finding the range frequently took a 12 to 6 lead with eight minutes to play. The Chicagoans fought back and pulled within one point, 12-11, but that was as close as they got for the Washington quintet quickly bounded away again.

MONMOUTH, April 3.—The Oregon Normal school's hoop squad was banqueted Tuesday night at the Monmouth hotel by President J. A. Churchill as a climax to the recent successful season. Fifteen members of the squad were honor guests, and also present were President Churchill, Coach Al Cox, D. R. Dewey and O. L. Groves.

Letters were awarded to these men by Coach Cox: Elmore Borden, Douglass Bothwell, Jack Buterworth, Claude O'Connell, Earl Kidd, Dave Osborne, Oliver Ralkeko and John Sellwood. The team voted Borden the most valuable player; Ralkeko the best sportsman; O'Connell the man showing the most improvement, and Borden the best defensive man.

In the season just past the Wolves won 28 games and lost 8. The squad this year won the A. A. U. Oregon college tournament and participated in the national A. A. U. tournament at Denver.

The team selected this all-opponent team: Forwards, Holten, Linfield and Gastean; Willamette University; center, Hardy, Southern Oregon Normal and Helser, Linfield and Versteeg, Willamette University, guards.

Want More Space In T. B. Hospitals

PORTLAND, Ore., April 3.—(AP)—Members of the Oregon Tuberculosis association passed a resolution today authorizing the appointment of a committee to survey possibilities of procuring additional patient space in the state's tuberculosis hospitals.

The motion was presented following reports from state officials showing there are 600 known cases of tuberculosis which should be taken care of in Oregon and that only 420 of them are receiving treatment at state institutions.

Officers elected were: President, Louis C. Clarke; vice president, James A. McKinnon; treasurer, A. L. Mills, jr., and secretary, Mrs. E. W. St. Pierre, all of Portland. Among those named to the executive committee was Dr. G. C. Bellingher of Salem.

Winners Eat Chicken, Beans Diet of Losers In Statesman Contest

Twenty-five Statesman carriers gathered last night for a chicken-bean feed at The Spa. One group of the boys ate chicken—the rest ate beans, as an outcome of a contest for new subscriptions in which the losers treated the winners to chicken and the winners humbled themselves with beans.

Harold Pruitt, circulation manager, presented Chester Horn with first prize in the contest, Lawrence Macklin with second and Leo Smith with third. After the dinner the boys were guests of the executive committee was Dr. Carl Porter at the Capitol theatre.

Boon or Curse to King Cotton?

Hailed as the greatest boon to the cotton industry since Eli Whitney invented the cotton gin, this machine, the invention of John and Mack Rust, Memphis, Tenn., brothers, is a mechanical cotton picker which, it is estimated, will replace 75 percent of the labor in the sharecropper country in the photo Mack Rust is shown standing beside the picker. The Rusts are said to be taking steps to guard against the destruction of living standards in the South.

SPORT SPARKS BY PAUL HAUSER

The old lambasting, colorful Pade's softball crew is no more. After several years as one heavy hitting bunch of rascals that were always worth watching, the Pade's softballers have gone their various ways, despite predictions that they would go as a unit under the colors of a new sponsor. Two teams, Wait's and the Man's Shop, take the mantle of the Pade's across the field one or two stragglers may be found on other outfields.

The Paper Mill is another outfit that is going to make a bid for softball supremacy. The Papermakers have a flock of pitchers and have a mighty ace infield combination that will include Phil Selstrom, Bob Dunn and his kid brother from Eugene, and Ray Elliott. Don Hendrie's Master Brand team will also be a potential winner. Best bet will probably be the Atwater-Kent nine which is Parker's, by any other name just as sweet.

The state league will meet here Sunday to arrange its schedule and try to promote the league from a six team circuit to an eight team loop. Woodburn, as hot for baseball as any man's town in Oregon, has been considered as a new entry. The other team may be an outfit from Portland. With an eight team league the teams would probably play only twice around.

"Squee" Kitchen, hard-working manager of the Pade club, will pilot the Man's Shop aggregation. He will have Rex Adolph at first base and Harold Olinger at third with Vern Gilmore handling the hot ones across the plate. "Squee" will play second and Otto Skoppil, Salem high's youthful hooper, will be in the short patch. Ted Girod will do the catching.

Few Outsiders on Easter Egg Show Offered April 11

Only Exceptions Are Due to Lack of Qualified Men, Says Dotson

"A very small percentage of the men working on PWA projects in Salem are from Portland or other outside cities," D. D. Dotson, manager of the state employment agency here, declared yesterday afternoon. All employment on these projects is handled through his office.

Dotson's statement was in reply to criticism Chairman E. A. Bradfield of the school board had heard regarding hiring of carpenters for the school building projects.

"Without exception where we have brought in workmen from outside it has been because the local supply of qualified, union tradesmen has been exhausted," Dotson asserted. "All of these are union jobs and by federal law did not have a Portland workman on the senior high school project."

Capitol Theatre Again to Join With Statesman in Charity Event

Following their annual custom, the Capitol theatre and The Oregon Statesman will again sponsor a children's Easter egg matinee Saturday, April 11. Doors to the Capitol theatre will open Saturday morning, April 11, at 9 o'clock.

Carl Porter, theatre manager, will provide the show for an admission price of only three eggs. One must be colored and the other two uncolored, the latter being turned over to needy families for their Easter breakfast.

All prizes are offered.

The feature will be "Harold Teepee" adapted from the popular comic strip, with Hal LeRoy, tap dancer starred.

A cartoon comedy and Borah Minneville and his "Harmonica Rascals" will round out the screen presentation.

Hundreds of youngsters are expected to attend the matinee.

Hoffman Strikes Bold Questioner

TRENTON, N. J., April 3.—(AP)—Governor Harold Hoffman leaving the statehouse tonight, after the execution of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, showed irritation at efforts to question him and struck one man.

The crowd waited more than two hours in the brisk spring night outside the side exit from the governor's office. When he emerged he strode quickly across the flower beds of the state house lawn to the concrete walk to the street.

He refused to answer questions and when one man persisted at his side, he turned quickly and struck him with the flat of his hand.

The man struck was reported to have been a state employee, who sought to walk at his side. His identity was not learned. He was talking rapidly to the governor when he was struck.

Lack of License Charged, Walker

Herbert Walker, 538 S. 24th street, was arrested last night by city police and charged with driving a car without an operators license.

Walker had been involved in an accident at 7:30 o'clock last night when his car collided with one driven by C. F. Martin, jr., on State street between Winter and Cottage streets. Walker's car crashed. The Martin car was only slightly damaged. No one was injured.

Walker was suddenly slowed down causing Walker to crash into the rear of the Martin automobile.

Newport Man Killed By Log Falling Off Truck

TOLEDO, Ore., April 3.—(AP)—A log rolling off a truck struck and killed Roy Welch, 22, of Newport, late today. Welch was attempting to move logs which had slipped from the truck when the machine struck a soft shoulder. As he moved one of them, another rolled on top of him.

Golfers Lined No Confession By Hauptmann

Several More Sought For Silvertown Trip; Play There on Sunday

Seventeen of the 20 men whom the Salem Golf club hopes to enter in the team match against the Silvertown Country club Sunday at Silvertown, the first such contest of the season, had been signed up Friday and the remainder are expected to be lined up today. Secretary John Varley reported. However the team is not strictly limited to 20 men and more may go if they wish.

Play on the Silvertown course is expected to start at 9 o'clock Sunday morning and players should all be on hand then in order that pairings may be arranged to provide the close matches.

Those already planning to make the trip, but not listed in the order of their ranking, include: Ritner, Jackson, Nash, Flanery, Starr, Day, Hendrie, Skelley, Stacey, Thomson, Lynch, Arheart, Curtis, Fisher, Holmes, R. Busick and Petre.

Busy Line Almost Blocked Reprive

TRENTON, N. J., April 3.—(AP)—A busy telephone wire almost blocked the grand jury request which stayed Bruno Richard Hauptmann's execution three nights ago.

The hour of the execution was near when the grand jury decided to ask for an execution stay so that it might complete its investigation, an authoritative source revealed tonight.

The grand jury foreman, Major Allyn M. Freeman and Prosecutor Erwin E. Marshall conferred and went to call state prison. New telephone equipment had been installed and neither man was familiar with it. It took several minutes before they were able to put in a call for the prison number.

A busy signal buzzed in the receiver. The time set for the execution showed on the clock.

The line was busy several minutes before the telephone operator was prevailed upon to break the connection and put through the call that spared Hauptmann's life for seventy-two hours.

Van Vlack Thinks He'll Escape Rap

BOISE, Idaho, April 3.—(AP)—Douglas Van Vlack, who once expected to die today for the murder of his pretty former wife, predicted in the death cell at state's prison tonight that he will never hang.

"I am confident my attorneys will secure a commutation to life imprisonment," said the prisoner, whose execution—fixed for April 3 after his conviction nearly two months ago—was stayed indefinitely when defense counsel filed notice of intention to appeal.

The 31-year-old former University of Washington student, in solitary confinement and on prison fare, has gained weight.

His ex-wife, 22-year-old Mildred Hook, was shot after Van Vlack kidnaped her from near her home in Tacoma in November. He allegedly killed two Idaho state traffic officers in his mad flight, but was tried on only the one charge.

Van Vlack Thinks He'll Escape Rap

Col. Kimberling gazed at a big yellow clock a guard had held aloft all through the affair. "It is 8:47 1/2," he said.

Even as he spoke, Hauptmann's body was being carried away.

While the execution was on, two who had believed Hauptmann innocent and who spent the last hours with him, read in German the Lutheran ritual.

The clergymen, the Rev. John Mathiesen of Trenton and the Rev. D. G. Werner of New York, preceded Hauptmann into the chamber. They read together at the altar. Finally Mr. Werner stopped and withdrew to one side. Mr. Mathiesen kept on, stopping only a short time before Dr. Weisler formally pronounced Hauptmann dead.

The execution was only—Hauptmann had paid with his life for a crime in which Governor Hoffman said was still unsolved.
