Largest Attendance Ever Forecast; Three-Day Program Slated

The largest attendance at a state convention of Young Democrats ever held in Oregon is expected here this weekend for the fifth annual meeting of the clubs of the state, according to Marvin Headrick, president of the Salem club.

Convention activities will begin Friday, April 24, with the registration of delegates at 1 p. m. at the Marion hotel. Throughout the afternoon the state council and executive committee will meet with a dance Friday night at the armory, the featured public portion of the opening day's program.

At the dance a play, "The New Deal vs. The Old Deal" by Marvin Greiner Kelley, will be presented.

Langtry Keynote

The keynote address of the convention will be given Saturday morning by Virgil Langtry of Bend. A series of speeches has been scheduled for the Saturday night banquet including one by Nanny Wood Honeyman, vice-chairman of the state central committee of the party and one by Willard Walter, assistant executive secretary of the young democratic clubs of America. William L. Gosselin, secretary to Governor Marlin will talk on the subject: "Roosevelt."

Featured addresses at the banquet Saturday will be by Governor Martin and by Governor Ben Ross of Idaho.

The convention will be concluded Sunday with an inspection of state buildings and institutions and by a regional conference of state officers.

Candidates Heard As Grange Meets

STAYTON, April 20.—Stayton Grange met in regular session Saturday. Following the work of the order a bountiful dinner was enjoyed at noon. At 1 p. m. the meeting was open to the public during the lecture hour. Mrs. Nipple presided as at one meeting of the grange during the year this is the chaplain's duty.

A short memorial program was given, talks being made by Mrs. Nipple and Mrs. Ellen G. Lambert, each paying a tribute to departed officers and members.

Judge McMahan was the speaker for the afternoon, telling of his early days in the newspaper business in Woodburn and Salem and of old time politics in the county and state.

He was followed by Fred J. Toole who spoke upon the work of the grange and what the organization might accomplish by cooperation. C. S. Emmons, candidate for district attorney, was the next speaker. Jasper McGilchrist, candidate for sheriff, was also present and spoke briefly. He was induced to sing a Scotch song which was much enjoyed.

Closing remarks for the afternoon were made by W. M. Smith, candidate for county school superintendent. Musical numbers on the program were old familiar songs in which all took part.

Thomas Captures Forensics Banner

A large, blue banner won by Salem high school's one-man forensics team, Bill Thomas, at the Whitman college northwest extempore contest last weekend was exhibited yesterday by Shannon Hogue, forensics coach. Thomas, Hogue said, won first place in the extempore preliminaries for schools of large enrollment, and took second in the finals. Five judges in the finals awarded him first but a sixth judge rated Thomas sixth.

The banner consists of a blue felt shield three feet long and two feet wide with white lettering indicating that Thomas took first in the "A" competition.

A junior this year, Thomas will compete for Salem high school in next year's public speaking contests.

WPA Payroll to Be Reduced Soon

The eight counties in the Salem WPA district must reduce their total payroll to 2600 men, a reduction of 300, by May 1, district officers here have been instructed. It was announced yesterday by D. G. Metcalf, labor inventory director. Metcalf predicted the reduced quota could be met without working hardship on any WPA employee.

The district payroll was cut by 100 names yesterday when as many men were assigned to work for the resettlement administration in the Silver Falls park area. Further assignments to this project are anticipated in the near future.

In addition to men obtaining work on other than WPA projects, many are going off the WPA rolls into private employment, Metcalf said.

Early Member of GAR Buried Here

Funeral services were held at Rigdon's chapel here yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock for Dr. T. C. Smith, whose death in Los Angeles Friday left only one surviving charter member of Sedgwick post of the G. A. R., Gideon Stols of Salem. The widow accompanied the body, which arrived here early yesterday, from Los Angeles.

At the request of Dr. Smith, full G. A. R. services were held under the direction of the Women's Relief Corps, to whom all activities and papers pertaining to the local G. A. R. post have been given. Rev. W. C. Kantner officiated. Interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Dr. Smith had practiced as a physician and later as a dentist in Salem and had also operated a drug store here. Later his son, Dr. T. C. Smith, Jr., was connected with his father's practice. Because of his health, Dr. Smith left for the south about 25 years ago.

Reached Captivity

He was born in Pennsylvania, June 5, 1844. During the Civil war he first enlisted April 21, 1861, in Company F, 27th New York Infantry and was discharged as a first lieutenant, June 10, 1862. He re-enlisted in October, 1863, with Company C, 179th New York Infantry and was discharged as a captain at the expiration of the war. He joined Sedgwick post No. 10, G. A. R., as a charter member on September 26, 1882, and has held continual membership. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. May Smith; a daughter, Mrs. Thomas McCarthy of San Francisco; a son, Dr. Thomas C. Smith, Jr., Portland; and a grandson, Malcolm Smith of Salem.

Borders to Face Grand Jury Soon

Lyndon Charles Borders was bound over to the grand jury on a drunken driving charge following a preliminary hearing in justice court yesterday afternoon.

Testifying against him were Dr. V. A. Douglas, physician who examined him following arrest, and Loran L. Spaulding, arresting officer. Borders' bail was reduced, on motion of his counsel, to $150, but he had not raised this sum last night and so was in the county jail.

National President of Evangelical Synod Is Speaker Here Tonight

Rev. F. C. Klick of St. Louis, Mo., president of the Evangelical Synod of North America, will address the Bethany Evangelical and Reformed congregation at 8 o'clock tonight. Rev. Klick is touring the Pacific coast states in the interest of his denomination, attending conferences and addressing many of the congregations.

Rev. Klick was pastor of a large Evangelical church in St. Joseph, Mo., prior to the election to the presidency of his denomination. The Evangelical and Reformed church is the result of the merging of the Evangelical Synod in North America and The Reformed church in the United States in June, 1934.

Largest Attendance Ever Forecast; Three-Day Program Slated

The largest attendance at a state convention of Young Democrats ever held in Oregon is expected here this weekend for the fifth annual meeting of the clubs of the state, according to Marvin Headrick, president of the Salem club.

Convention activities will begin Friday, April 24, with the registration of delegates at 1 p. m. at the Marion hotel. Throughout the afternoon the state council and executive committee will meet with a dance Friday night at the armory, the featured public portion of the opening day's program.

At the dance a play, "The New Deal vs. The Old Deal" by Marvin Greiner Kelley, will be presented.

Langtry Keynote

The keynote address of the convention will be given Saturday morning by Virgil Langtry of Bend. A series of speeches has been scheduled for the Saturday night banquet including one by Nanny Wood Honeyman, vice-chairman of the state central committee of the party and one by Willard Walter, assistant executive secretary of the young democratic clubs of America. William L. Gosselin, secretary to Governor Marlin will talk on the subject: "Roosevelt."

Featured addresses at the banquet Saturday will be by Governor Martin and by Governor Ben Ross of Idaho.

The convention will be concluded Sunday with an inspection of state buildings and institutions and by a regional conference of state officers.

Candidates Heard As Grange Meets

STAYTON, April 20.—Stayton Grange met in regular session Saturday. Following the work of the order a bountiful dinner was enjoyed at noon. At 1 p. m. the meeting was open to the public during the lecture hour. Mrs. Nipple presided as at one meeting of the grange during the year this is the chaplain's duty.

A short memorial program was given, talks being made by Mrs. Nipple and Mrs. Ellen G. Lambert, each paying a tribute to departed officers and members.

Judge McMahan was the speaker for the afternoon, telling of his early days in the newspaper business in Woodburn and Salem and of old time politics in the county and state.

He was followed by Fred J. Toole who spoke upon the work of the grange and what the organization might accomplish by cooperation. C. S. Emmons, candidate for district attorney, was the next speaker. Jasper McGilchrist, candidate for sheriff, was also present and spoke briefly. He was induced to sing a Scotch song which was much enjoyed.

Closing remarks for the afternoon were made by W. M. Smith, candidate for county school superintendent. Musical numbers on the program were old familiar songs in which all took part.

"I HAVE TO EAT IN 30 minutes," says Harry Fisher, steel worker. "Smoking Camels helps my digestion, gives me a swell 'lift.' And they've got real flavor!"

FEEDS THOUSANDS daily, Miss Lenora Flinn, dietitian, says: "With me, it's always Camels! Smoking Camels stimulates digestion, causing increased flow of digestive fluids."

You need good digestion to face the nervous strain of modern living!

Smoking Camels Assists Digestion and Promotes Well-Being

When people are tired, worried, or nervous, the flow of digestive fluids slows up. Science now recognizes that smoking Camels has a favorable influence in increasing the flow of these digestive fluids. Thus, there are sound, definite reasons why Camels add to the enjoyment of your meals.

Camels are supremely mild—never get on the nerves or tire your taste. Enjoy Camels as much as you like... for their good cheer and "lift"... for their rare flavor! Camels set you right!

COSTLIER TOBACCOS

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.
