Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

What Junior Miss wouldn't be pretty pleased and proud to find this dainty tub-cotton frock hanging in her closet—and be pretty excited, too, about the lovely, all-over print that makes her look the breath of spring? If you're a practical mother, you'll choose this simple Anne Adams pattern not only because it's so easy to sew, but because it makes up so prettily in such sturdy cottons as broadcloth, chambray or tique for every day wear and tear, and in a dainty dotted Swiss, embroidered batiste or dimity when she's partying go. She'll find that new, wide-shoulder effect as flattering as you will find the cutting of yoke-and-sleeve-in-one easy to do.

Pattern 2663 is available in sizes 8, 10, 12, 14 and 16. Size 10 takes 2 1/4 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for the Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

Send for your copy of our Ann Adams Pattern Book! You'll like the foresighted advice on the latest patterns, fabrics, accessories, fashion trends. You'll like the way it helps you plan a whole smart wardrobe. You'll like its slenderizing styles, its delightful patterns for misses and children. A book that's brimming with good ideas. Send for it today. Price of book fifteen cents. Back and a pattern together, twenty-five cents. Address orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 215 South Commercial street, Salem, Ore. Make necessary enclosures. Your order will be promptly attended to.

Orders customarily are filled within four days from time received by The Statesman.

Oregon Junior Weekend Honors Mothers

Mothers of University of Oregon students in and near Salem will soon receive warm, personal invitations from sons and daughters to be present on the Eugene campus, May 8, 9 and 10, for what is expected to be the most outstanding Mother's day celebration in the history of the university.

Plans for the various events of the weekend, which will also be the traditional Junior weekend on the campus, are already nearing completion. It is announced. The first affairs will be held on Friday, May 8, when the Associated Women students and the Y. W. C. A. will sponsor a tea in the afternoon in Gerlinger hall. A reception, sponsored by the Eugene Mothers' club and the faculty women's club, will be held from 8 to 11 p. m. in Gerlinger hall. Mothers may also attend the special sections of seats will be reserved.

The annual mass meeting for all mothers will be held Saturday afternoon, and following this, mothers may visit the famous Murray Warner collection of Oriental art in the Art Museum. The annual Mother's day banquet will be held at 5:30 in John Straub Memorial Hall. A number of new features have been worked out for this. Following the banquet, mothers will attend the colorful and unique canoe fete on the mill race.

Sunday students will honor their mothers with special dinners at all living organizations, and special services will be held in all Eugene churches.

Mrs. Frank H. Spears is on the executive committee of the Oregon Mothers.
