Salem High Coach Won't Remain Next Year; on Job Twelve Years

Dwight Adams, Erickson, Hauk, Drynan Among Men Suggested

After 12 years' service coaching athletic teams at Salem high school, Coach Hollis W. Huntington yesterday announced that he would submit his resignation to take effect at the close of the school year in June.

The announcement was a surprise to members of the school board and no consideration of a ongressman Bertrand H. Snell, successor for Huntington has been chosen as chairman of the rehad nor, according to Superintendent Silas Gaiser, will any selection be made for some time. However, the announcement of Huntington's withdrawal from
