President Dedicates Building

President Roosevelt, laying the cornerstone of the new $12,000,000 department of interior building in Washington with the historic trowel used by George Washington on the cornerstone of the capitol building in 1793, pledged himself to a "vigorous, continuing national policy of conservation."

First of Music Week Activities at Mt. Angel Will Be Given Sunday by Students of Academy and Normal

MT. ANGEL, April 30 — Mt. Angel will usher in music week Sunday afternoon with a program of music, singing and comedy, to be given by the students of the academy and normal in the academy auditorium.

Most of the musical numbers comprise compositions of the late Father Dominic, noted musician and composer and former pastor of St. Mary's church at Mt. Angel. The complete musical program is as follows: "Oregon Grape" and "Music So Gently Awakes Us", by Rev. F. Dominic, Academy vocal club; "When the Birds Go North Again," and "Summer" (Dominic) normal and collegiate students; "A Little Pink Rose" (Carrie Jacobs Bonds) and "Mars" (Dominic) Miss Helen Keiser; "Evening Song" (Dominic) and "Joy of a Rose" (Tarbox) Miss Pauline Salfeld; "Illicit" (Arditi) and "A Japanese Lullaby" (Dominic) Miss Agnes Walker; "Album Leaf" (Dominic) and "Tango" (Mowrey) Miss Louise Oswald; "Harmoniana" (Galuska) and "High School Cadets" (Sousa) orchestra.

Comedy on Program
A three-act comedy, "Pearls," will also be featured. The play concerns the fortunes of three orphans. Cast of characters is as follows: The orphans, Laura Bartnik, Irene Berning, Sophie Weldinger; matron of the orphanage, Mary Jo Weisbar; the mother, Viola May; the daughter, Josephine Bialy; grandmother, Virginia Kehoe; a colored cook, Rita Koessler.

Woodburn Legion Post to Receive Colors at Last

WOODBURN, April 30 — Milton Coy., commander of Woodburn Post of the American Legion, has announced that after working for the past two years in an effort to get colors for this post, they have been ordered and are expected to arrive about the middle of May. Permanent color guards and bearers will be appointed and the colors will be seen in public for the first time on Memorial day.

Memorial day services will be in charge of the Legion Post, assisted by the auxiliary, the Sons of the American Legion, Spanish American War veterans, and other civic and patriotic organizations. Major Oliver S. Olson is chairman of the Memorial day program.

Woodburn post keeps a complete record of all veterans' graves in the 13 cemeteries of this district and has charge of decoration of these graves.

Antrims Return

UNIONVALE, April 30 — George Antrim accompanied by his brother Ray of Aloha, returned from Moscow, Idaho, Tuesday, where they were called to attend the funeral Saturday of a cousin, Mrs. Sarah Creekmur. Tom Creekmur, 84, the widower, accompanied them home and will be their guest indefinitely.

Lebanon Rebekahs Initiate 6 Folks

LEBANON, April 30 — Pearl Rebekah lodge, No. 47, Tuesday night at the regular meeting under Mrs. Dave MacMillan, noble grand, initiated six candidates; Mrs. Jess Moss and Mrs. Lucille Neely, Lebanon; Mrs. Ida Ray, Mrs. Freda Akse, Mrs. Doris Calvert and Everett Daugherty of Grace Rebekah lodge No. 236 Sweet Home.

A short program included a solo by Mrs. N. C. Lowe, with Mrs. Mervin Gilson as accompanist; talk by County School Superintendent Bennett of Albany on the 117th anniversary of Odd Fellowship. Mrs. Bennett, vice-grand of Albany lodge, was also a visitor. Other visitors were from Sweet Home and Crawfordsville. In all, about 100 were present.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served at six long tables, by the committee, Mrs. Martha Golder chairman; Mrs. Louis Bennett, Mrs. Deborah Seck, Mrs. Alice Elliott and Mrs. Emma Bellinger.
