Annual Affair Much Enjoyed

Spring Flowers Grace Luncheon Tables; Committee Reports Heard

SALEM HEIGHTS, May 2.—The club luncheon which is held annually by the Salem Heights Woman's club, in conjunction with the last business meeting of the season, was a success of Friday afternoon at the community hall. Forty-six guests attended the luncheon which was served at long tables, which were lovely with large bowls of lilacs, iris, sweet peas and other spring flowers. During the luncheon a beautiful basket of flowers was presented to the past president, Mrs. P. F. Stolze, by Mrs. Emma Wheelon in behalf of members of the club.

Considering Plan Of Fall Festival
STAYTON, May 2.—Stayton residents are asked to attend the regular meeting of the city council Monday night to discuss plans for holding a harvest festival here. Directors of the West Stayton fair officially decided that the fair could not be held here this year and asked that Stayton promote such an affair.

Mayor George A. Smith has said that "to promote a fair here will mean a lot of hard work and need the full cooperation of all the residents of the district. The harvest festival which has been conducted at West Stayton for the past four years has meant much to that section and would mean just as much to Stayton."

With this idea in mind the mayor is anxious for a representative group to attend the meeting Monday night at 8 o'clock at the women's clubhouse where all may express their views on the matter.
