Democratic candidates for representative are T. W. Munyan, present incumbent, mayor of Lebanon; Fred E. Harrison and Fred Dawson.

Raymond C. Burkhart, of near Lebanon, and J. J. Barrett are democratic candidates for county judge; while Dempster M. Rohrbough and William S. Risley are also on the republican ticket. The latter three have endorsed the Townsend plan in their ballot slogans.

Clarence Ingram, Townsend advocate, formerly of Lebanon, is running for county clerk on the republican ballot, along with R. M. Russell, present county clerk. Pierce Jenks is democratic candidate.

Harry Dobesh and Claude Cox of Lebanon and E. E. Munsey, Albany, who formerly resided in the Tennessee district near Lebanon, are democratic candidates for recorder. Stella E. Hoover is a candidate to succeed herself on the republican ticket.

Ronald L. Gilson, member of a pioneer Lebanon family, who has lived all of his life in this community, is a candidate on the republican ticket for county treasurer. Another republican candidate is Ada K. Pratt. Grover C. Nance, present treasurer, seeks the democratic nomination as a Townsend advocate.

Walter W. Larsen is republican candidate for county surveyor. Democratic candidates are G. E. Whitcomb and Glenn A. Peck. Seeking the office of county assessor are W. C. Templeton, republican, Townsend backer, and Fay M. Miller, a native of Linn county, democrat.

Brooder House Burns in Early Morning Fire at Fred Schifferer Farm

Schifferers were aroused by the noise of the fire, which completely destroyed their brooder house, but were unable to check the flames. Two hundred baby chickens they bought Friday were also burned.

The building was near other ones but due to practically no breeze the fire only damaged another chicken coop nearby which caught fire but was quickly put out with a garden hose. Just how the fire started was undetermined.
