Garden Tour Is Held by Howell

Mrs. J. E. Waltman Ill at Home; Mrs. Oddie at Lodge Meet

NORTH HOWELL, May 20.—Mrs. J. E. Waltman is seriously ill at her hime in this locality with the measles. Mrs. Waltman is under strict medical attention.

Mrs. Etta Norris and her sister, Mrs. Norene Johnson of Roseburg, are here visiting with Mrs. Jean Sanders.

Mrs. Florence Oddie is at Roseburg this week attending the Rebekah assembly, as a delegate from Gervais lodge.

The annual local garden tour last Sunday was, as usual, one of the pleasant affairs of early spring and is credited with the improvement of nearly every garden or small yard in this locality. The group had dinner at the grange hall and visited yards before and after dinner, concluding the day with a visit to the Cooley iris gardens at Silverton.

Among the marked improvements in the North Howell area was that at the Marx home where a pool has been made and many beautiful roses are being grown. The hillside yard at the home of Mrs. Mary Stemens is also being improved to an unusual degree.

Among the North Howell pupils who will graduate from Gervais high school this year are Myrtle Kurre, Connie Manning, and Celia and Raymond Jefferson.
