

Recess Till Fall Taken by Schools

LEBANON, May 21.—School closed Friday at the Happy Home school, nine miles east of Lebanon, with the usual picnic dinner at noon for the patrons of the district. Races were held in the morning and a ball game in the afternoon. Ice cream was served at the close of the day.

by the teacher, Mrs. Frank Belinger. Those completing their grade school work were Fern and John Kauffman, Marguerite Loree and Ivan Billings.

There were two pupils neither absent nor tardy during the school year, Mary Jane and Eugene Storm. School closed at Reed school, four miles east of Lebanon, Tuesday. A picnic dinner was held at the school house for the patrons of the district. Races and a ball game were the main events of the afternoon. The pupil in the eighth grade receiving a diploma was Marion Bennett. Mrs. Gladys Stewart has been re-elected as teacher for the coming school year.

Attend State Confab
PLEASANTDALE, May 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Freshover, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gibbon of this locality, members of the Unity local Farmers' Union attended the state convention at Mt. Angel Wednesday.

School Closes With Program

Awards Are Made For 4-H Club Exhibition at Tuesday Event

CENTRAL HOWELL, May 21.—The last day school picnic Saturday and open house Tuesday afternoon brought school to a close for the year. A large crowd was present for the picnic dinner at noon Saturday. Several games of softball were played during the afternoon and the usual generous treat of ice cream enjoyed.

At a meeting held in the afternoon a homecoming organization was formed with Mrs. Robert Jans elected as president. Mrs. Clyde DeSart and Mrs. Clarence Simmons were selected to compile a history of the school and early days of the community. A cursory history of the school was given by Mrs. Robert Jans and reminiscences by Henry Sappingfield and W. A. DeSart.

Music Is Featured
Miss Hortense Taylor of Willamette university, who has been in charge of vocal instruction here this year, was in charge of the musical program Tuesday afternoon. Women's Gym Class at Rickreall Completes Meetings With Party

RICKREALL, May 21.—The women's gym class ended a successful series of classes Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Mark Capps and Mrs. Harold Perkins. Singing and games were the evening's entertainment and marshmallows and wafers were roasted at the fireplace.

Active members of the class are Mesdames John Coville, Robert Brown, Darrell Hewitt, Herschel Wait, Joe Maker, Walter Ridenhour, Chester Gillam, Harold Perkins, and Mark Capps. Misses Mildred Baker, Edith Hestline, Florence and Jeanne Coville, Maxine Ott, Wilma Middleton and Betty Pence.

They Tend to Their Knitting!

Something unusual in the way of a masculine hobby has been taken up by several Chicago husbands who belong to the "Tuesday Afternoon Sewing Circle", which meets at the Merchandise Mart for knitting and embroidery lessons while their wives are attending to business and going to political meetings.

Good Luck Club Holds Gathering

First Ripe Strawberries From Home Gardens Are Reported

CLOVERDALE, May 21.—The Four Leaf Clover club met at the home of Mrs. Margaret Shilling Wednesday. At noon a delicious club dinner was served to members of the club. The business meeting was held in the afternoon with Mrs. Bertha Booth acting as president. Mrs. Shilling and Mrs. Florence Jarman were joint hostesses for the day. The June meeting will be held at Mrs. Betty Drager's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morris are in Idaho this week visiting their son, Nathan Morris. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morris.

Mrs. Agnes Booth, principal of Salem Heights school, entertained as dinner guests Tuesday night these teachers: Miss Loretta Baker, Miss Margaret Barquist, Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shilling and son, Gene, and Mrs. Florence Jarman drove to Molalla Monday to attend the funeral services of his uncle, Henry Shope, past 90 years old.

First Girl Arrives
Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Booth received word of the birth of a daughter to their son, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Booth. The baby was named Anita Gall. She is the first girl in the Booth families for three generations. She has a brother also.

A few families here are enjoying strawberries. Otto Stenning received a serious injury to one of his eyes recently while cutting brush from a fence row. A limb hit him, injuring the eyeball. He was taken to a Salem hospital but returned home Wednesday. Both eyes are still bandaged. The doctor believes he will retain his eyesight.

Huffman Child Burned Seriously; Fox Valley Teacher Is Selected

LYONS, May 21.—The small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Huffman burned her hands badly Sunday when she fell against the hot stove. She is just beginning to stand alone. Mrs. Huffman's sister, Fern Hubbard, is with her this week.

The Fox Valley school board of directors Monday night elected as teacher for the primary room Mrs. Scott of Gates. Mrs. Wilson Stevens of Lyons will teach the upper grades.

Mrs. George Clippell is still in Salem with her mother, who has had influenza since Easter. The Lyons Townsend club advisory board held a business meeting Wednesday night. Several matters of importance to the club were discussed and plans decided on for the meeting Saturday of this week.

Exercises For Eighth Grade Class Scheduled For June 2 at Dayton

DAYTON, May 21.—Seventeen students are graduating in the Dayton grade school eighth grade class and exercises will be held at 2:30 Tuesday, June 2, at the auditorium of the high school with Rev. S. J. Osborne, pastor of the McMinnville Christian church, delivering the address. Genevieve Muhs and David Lockband won the high merits and received the awards at the Newberg American Legion hall program May 21.
