One was postponed. It is the A. A. U. W. Fellowship tea to be given in the gardens of Miss Sally Bush. Tuesday afternoon is the new date, depending of course on the weather.

The Fellowship teas given each year by the Salem branch are delightful. You wander through the beautifully kept grounds which are at their best this time of year, laugh a little at some of the old-time costumes modeled by prominent socialites, admire a little the splendor of the old fabries and their exquisite workmanship, have tea from a rustic bench under a friendly tree and depart at your leisure. Everyone is invited to call.

Shades of the early 20th century are flapping their wings this spring. Divided skirts, fairly short, are favorites for sports of all sorts. Slacks have a little the edge over shorts in popularity.
