Hospital Open House Sunday

Board Elects Teachers But New Coaches Are Not Chosen

WOODBURN, June 5 .-- Open house will be held at the new Woodburn hospital Sunday afternoon, visitors being welcome to call any time between the hours of 2 p. m. and 8 p. m. Dr. Paul Pemberton, owner of the new establishment, has added an extension of 10 rooms to the office building at the corner of Hayes and First street.

All the latest equipment has been installed and air conditioning throughout the building will add to the comfort of the patients. A surgery or operating room and nursery, kitchen, bathroom, combination drug room and labratory and small utility room are all conveniently located on the main floor. A new x-ray machine has been installed. The hospital will employ two day nurses, a night nurse and two cooks and housekeepers.

The lawn and shrubbery, with an underground system of irrigation is being put in condition. Elect School Teacher

At a meeting of the Woodburn school board held Wednesday night, Miss Jane Louise Goodale of Salem was elected to fill the position of instructor in the commercial department, taking the place of Miss Isabelle Van Wanning. Miss Goodale is June graduate of Oregon State college. The selection of a coach and athletic instructor to take the place of Gilbert Oddie and "Skeet" O'Connell will be considered at the next board meeting to be held in about two weeks. Several vacancles in the grade school staff will also be filled at
