Rain in Canada Lowers Wheat Despite Dust Storm in Dakota

Early Upturns Are Wiped Out

Liverpool Up, Causes Firm Trend at First; Close Proves Unsteady

CHICAGO, June 12 .- (AP)-Lower prices for wheat resulted late today from good rains in parts of Alberta province, Canada, together with prospective showers in Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

Early upturns were more than wiped out, despite news of a dust storm in North Dakota. Operating as a bearish influence was word that the domestic winter wheat harvest southwest is making rapid progress, showing good yields and grading high. Wheat closed unsteady, 14-% under yesterday's finish, July 84 1/4-%, September 85 %-1/4. December 87 %; corn 14-% down, July 61 1/4 - 1/4, September 58 1/4, December 52 1/3; oats unchanged, July 25, rye %-% off, July 55 %. and provisions varying from 5 cents decline to an advance of Giving transient stimulus to Chicago wheat prices was the fact that Liverpool quotations closed 14 - 14 cents up, with sterling at an overnight rise of

A fall of a cent from the day's high point for wheat in Chicago, 86% September delivery, ensued following sharp setbacks at Winnipeg and Minneapolis.

Corn, oats and rye took their cue mainly from wheat action.

Stock Traders Wear Blinkers

Leading Issues Fall Back Despite Report Retail Trade Holding Own

NEW YORK, June 12 .- (AP)-The stock market wore blinkers today so far as constructive industrial news was concerned and leading issues fell back fractions to a point or more.

Weekend trode reviews found retail sales throughout the country holding their own, although it was stated that the percentage of gains over the same period last year was less than in the preceding week. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off .6 of a point at 6.25. This compared with Stayton Postmistress yesterday's upturn of .9. Transfers totaled 997,580 shares as against 1,085,920 the day before. Down fractions to a point or more were U. S. Steel at 61%. Bethlehem at 52%, American Telephone at 167%, N. Y. Cen-tral at 36, General Motors at 64. J. I. Case, up to a new 1936 high at one time, closed with a net loss of 2% at 172.

Ruddell Is Converting Logged Off Land Near Drain to Sheep Ranch

MONMOUTH, June 12 .- Mr. and Mrs. William Riddell have gone to Leona, near Drain, where Mr. Riddell is converting some logged off land into a sheep ranch. They expect to remain for the summer, leaving their son, Eldon Riddell, in charge of the home farm. Mr. Riddell says he has lost, by theft, about 60 head of valuable registered Romney sheep during the past winter, and has, to date, been unable to accumulate sufficient evidence to convict any particular miscreant.

Dorcas society of the Christian church surprised Mrs. Riddell, president of the organization, with a party in her honor, and presented her with a handsome Attending Convention inaugural gathering, which will be in the nature of a banquet, include: Frank DeSousa, Medford postmaster, toastmaster; T. W. Miller of Grants Pass, who is to represent Governor Charles H. Martin, and Dr. E. T. Hedlund, Portland postmaster.
