Summer School Offered For Silverton Students

SILVERTON, June 13.—A summer school for senior and junior high school pupils who desire to make up work will be opened here Monday by Franklin Evenson, graduate of the University of Oregon. The course, for which eight pupils have already enrolled, will last six weeks and will permit students to take two studies from 8 a. m. to noon. Students interested may enroll with Evenson at 403 E. Main or at the office of Supt. Goetz at Eugene Field school.
