29 Are Accorded Citizenship Here

Two Denied; Several Take New Names When They Receive Papers

Twenty-nine Marion county residents were admitted to citizenship Friday following their final examination for naturalization in circuit court here, and two were denied their application for final papers.

The petition of William Franklin Elliott was dismissed on his own motion as he has moved out of the jurisdiction of this court. The petition of Samuel James Dack, Silverton, was denied and he cannot petition for citizenship again until September 6, 1940, the examiner from Portland ruled.

In the papers granted, names were changed in the following instances: Martin Alfred Haaland to Martin Alfred Holland; Eliza Willecke changed to Alyce Willecke; Elizabeth Goyles changed to Lilly Boyles; Karl Simon Johansson changed to Simon Johnson.

Others receiving their final papers were Elzie Wilson Tull, Anton Ston, Frank Anton Ston, Rose Muth, Berendina Verhagen, Edward Talbert Brock Hill, Caroline Keidel, Anton Adam Keidel, Anna May Anderson, Opal Esther Blaxall, Rudolph Ebner, Florence Ada Oster, Martha Oster, August Emma Martha Meyerbocker, Catherine Hutcheon, Minnie Jacobson, Irene Rose Collins, Fred Steiner, Hubert Esser, Charles Hinds, Emily Frances Hobart, Charley Henry Pounder, Jennie Clara Croteau, Elizabeth Mellbye and Victoria Isabel Bell.

Railroad Scheme Favored in Idaho

Construction of proposed railroads from Burns to the coast, via Marshfield, and from Humboldt, Calif., to Coos Bay, would prove beneficial to the state of Idaho, the utilities commission of that state declared in a resolution received at the Oregon utilities department Monday.

Such construction particularly would be beneficial to southwestern Idaho and provide a short line to San Francisco and other California cities, the resolution read.

Construction of the cross-state railroads was suggested by Earl R. Jones of Washington, D. C.

In a letter received here Monday Jones urged the Oregon delegation in congress to introduce a resolution authorizing a field survey of the proposed railroads.

Frank C. McCulloch, Oregon utility commissioner, reported that most of the chambers of commerce in this state favored the railroad construction.

Governor Martin later will be asked to go on record approving or disapproving the project, McCulloch said.

Gifts to Leslie High By Groups Announced; To Adorn Auditorium

Five gifts to Leslie junior high school were presented late last week by classes and individuals. The graduating class contributed $29 to be used for furnishings in the new auditorium. From the Honors club the school received an electric clock to be placed in the main floor hall. Two large Caprani casts of "Morning" and "Evening" to adorn the new auditorium came from anonymous donors.

The first Oregon state flag the school has owned was given by the Latin club.

Turners Go North
HOLLYWOOD, June 16.—Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Turner returned Saturday afternoon to Fort Steilacoom, Wash., after a five months' stay in this district. They both expect to resume their former duties at the state hospital there. Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Gregg of Fort Steilacoom have taken up temporary residence on the Turner place.

Services Tonight
LIBERTY, June 16.—The mid-week church services Wednesday at 8 p. m. will be held at the Grant Teter home with Mrs. C. C. Sargent leading the lesson.

Kansas Delegates Parade in Support of Landon

One of the numerous demonstrations which marked the Republican national convention at Cleveland was a parade staged by Kansas delegates who carried huge posters urging support of Landon.

Republican Platform Asserts Nation And Its Liberties in Peril; Need of Restoring Morale Held Fundamental

For the interest of voters the Statesman is printing in installments the republican platform adopted at Cleveland last week. An installment will appear each day until the printing is completed.

The platform: America is in peril. The welfare of American men and women and the future of our youth are at stake. We dedicate ourselves to the preservation of their political liberty, their individual opportunity and their character as free citizens, which today for the first time are threatened by government itself.

For three long years the new deal administration has dishonored American traditions and flagrantly betrayed the pledges upon which the democratic party sought and received public support.

The powers of congress have been usurped by the president. The integrity and authority of the supreme court have been flaunted.

The rights and liberties of American citizens have been violated. Regulated monopoly has displayed free enterprise.

The new deal administration constantly seeks to usurp the rights reserved to the state and to the people.

It has insisted on the passage of laws contrary to the constitution. It has intimidated witnesses and interfered with the right of petition.

It has dishonored our country by repudiating its most sacred obligations.

It has been guilty of frightful waste and extravagance, using public funds for partisan political purposes.

New Offices Cited
It has promoted investigations to harass and intimidate American citizens, at the same time denying investigations into its own improper expenditures.

It has created a vast multitude of new offices, filled them with its favorites, set up a centralized bureaucracy, and sent out swarms of inspectors to harass our people.

It has bred fear and hesitation in commerce and industry, thus discouraging new enterprises, preventing employment and prolonging the depression.

It secretly has made tariff agreements with our foreign competitors, flooding our markets with foreign commodities.

It has coerced and intimidated voters by withholding relief to those opposing its tyrannical policies.

It has destroyed the morale of many of our people and made them dependent upon government.

Appeals to passion and class prejudice have replaced reason and tolerance.

To a free people, these actions are insufferable. This campaign cannot be waged on the traditional differences between the republican and democratic parties. The responsibility of this election transcends all previous political divisions. We invite all Americans, irrespective of party, to join us in defense of American institutions.

Constitutional government and free enterprise we pledge ourselves.

1. To maintain the American system of constitutional and local self government, and to resist all attempts to impair the authority of the supreme court of the United States, the final protector of the rights of our citizens, against the arbitrary encroachments of the legislative and executive branches of government. There can be no individual liberty without an independent judiciary.

Cost-raising Policies Hit
2. To preserve the American system of free enterprise, private competition, and equality of opportunity, and to seek its constant betterment in the interests of all.

Re-employment
The only permanent solution of the unemployment problem is the absorption of the unemployed by industry and agriculture. To that end, we advocate:

Removal of restrictions on production. Abandonment of all new deal policies that raise production costs, increase the cost of living, and thereby restrict buying, reduce volume and prevent re-employment.

Encouragement instead of hindrance to legitimate business. Withdrawal of government from competition with private payrolls. Elimination of unnecessary and hampering regulations.

Adoption of such other policies as will furnish a chance for individual enterprise, industrial expansion, and the restoration of jobs.

Relief
The necessities of life must be provided for the needy, and hope must be restored pending recovery. The administration of relief is a major failure of the new deal. It has been faithless to those who most deserve our sympathy. To end confusion, partisanship, waste and incompetence, we pledge:

1. The return of responsibility for relief administration to non-political local agencies familiar with community problems.

Meets to Decide Relief
3. Federal grants-in-aid to the states and territories while the need exists, upon compliance with these conditions: (a) A fair proportion of the total relief burden to be provided from the revenues of states and local governments; (b) all engaged in relief administration to be selected on the basis of merit and fitness; (c) adequate provision to be made for the encouragement of those persons who are trying to become self-supporting.

4. Undertaking of federal public works only on their merits and separate from the administration of relief.

5. A prompt determination of the facts concerning relief and unemployment.

Tiniest Park Is Named "Waldo" as Council Acts

Salem's aldermen Monday night gave a name—Waldo park—to the tiny plot of ground on North Summer street at Union, from which the redwood tree planted by William Waldo, pioneer, rises. This is said to be the smallest city park in the United States. The name was suggested by the American War Mothers.

Indian Is Making Progress, Stated

Inspiration for Indian youth of today to seek success in the white man's world is provided by the careers of Dr. Carlos Montezuma, Will Rogers and many others of Indian descent. It was disclosed by Robert Scade of the Puyallup tribe, a student at Chemawa Indian school in a well-presented talk at the Salem chamber of commerce luncheon Monday noon devoted to consideration of the Indian school's past and its future prospects. Scade said the Indians are making good and that the well-known phrase has been changed to "Another Redskin is raising the dust."

Continuation of the Salem Indian school has been assured by governmental action brought about through the interest of Senator McNary and Congressman Hawley and aided by action of the Salem chamber of commerce, and Supt. Paul T. Jackson is on his way to Washington now to further the school's interests. C. E. Larsen, senior clerk, told the assemblage.

Mr. Larsen traced the history of the school from its founding in Forest in the early '80s and its transfer here in 1885. Ruthyn Turney, music director at the school, spoke briefly.

Entertainment included vocal solos by Miss Vivienne Larson and an Indian dance by five young Indian boys.

Scio Anticipates Release From Red

SCIO, June 16.—School district No. 95, Scio, will be "out of the red" by the end of the year 1936, according to estimates presented by Clerk J. F. Wesely at the annual school meeting in Scio high school auditorium Monday.

Receipts due to the district for the year will be $4847.95, exclusive of delinquent tax returns within the district, Wesely reported. Unpaid warrants of $3191.32 will be wiped off the books during the year. The present outstanding warrants are the only remaining ones from a debt of $12,827.31 in 1933.

F. G. Carey was elected by acclamation to serve on the school board for three years. Mylo Barton, the only other nominee, declined. J. F. Wesely was also re-elected as clerk of the board. A meeting of the school board is expected to be called later this week to consider applications still pending for two vacancies in the high school staff. Three instructors, Principal J. H. Tumbleson, Cecil Elder and Frances Patterson, have been rehired.

Clear Lake Joint Meeting Tonight

CLEAR LAKE, June 16.—The joint community Townsend club will meet at the Kelsor school house Wednesday night, June 17. Theodore G. Nelson will be the principal speaker.

There will be no refreshments served. All members are urged to attend this meeting as matters of importance are to be considered.

Measles Patients

ZENA, June 16.—Jesse and Paul Worthington, children of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse S. Worthington, are confined to their home with measles, evidently contracted while attending Parish Junior high. Rex Layton, a near neighbor, also has measles.

It's a wise idea to eat Kellogg's Rice Krispies. They help you keep cool because they nourish without overheating the system.

Everybody loves these toasted rice bubbles. So crisp they actually crackle in milk or cream.
