Winter Wheat Damage Noted

Chicago Lift Almost Five Cents; All Forecasts Help Bull Trend

CHICAGO, June 19.—(AP)—Sky-rocketed by official as well as unofficial spring wheat damage reports, the worst yet this season, all grains today excitedly outbid 1936 previous top quotations.

Chicago wheat prices soared 4 1/2 cents a bushel, and Minneapolis and Kansas City markets both jumped to the extreme limit allowed in any one day—5 cents.

Adding impetus to a general buying stampede was anxiety over assertions that not only domestic spring wheat northwest but hard winter wheat in Kansas, the bumper state for that variety, was also being injured by dry hot winds.

Wheat in Chicago closed flurried at almost the day's peak, 3 1/2-4 1/2 cents above yesterday's finish, July 91 1/4-1/2, Sept. 92 3/4-1/2, Dec. 94 1/4-1/2; Corn 2 3/4-3 cents up, July 65-65 1/2, Sept. 63 1/4-1/2, Dec. 59 1/4-1/2; Oats 1 1/4-1 1/2 advanced, Sept. 28 1/4-1/2, and rye showing 3 1/4-3 1/2 bulge, Sept. 61 1/2. Provisions gained 12 to 20 cents.

Although the government supplemental report on annual acreage at this time had at first pronounced additional market effect, it was followed later by fresh outbursts of big purchasing and extraordinary buoyancy of values, approximating the permissible limit of 5 cents advance for wheat shortly before trading was ended.

Corn, oats, barley and rye emulated the bullish behavior of wheat.

Provisions rose with hog values and with grains.

Eagles Convention Seeks More Room

SILVERTON, June 19.—E. J. Adams, chairman of the housing committee of the Eagles convention which will be held here June 25, 26 and 27, is asking that all of those who have a spare room to offer should get in touch with him at once. Medford has wired to reserve rooms for 40 delegates. Marshfield wants rooms for 150 and Klamath Falls for 60. Portland will arrive Thursday morning with a caravan.

Courtesy cars for the trip to Silver Creek falls and the Silverton Hills breakfast are being asked for the morning of June 26. These cars are registering with H. R. Burk at 311 North Water street. General headquarters for registration will be in the Custer Hotel building on West Main street, through the courtesy of the Otto J. Wilson used car market.
