Benefit Given for Phi Delt Radio Successful

PROMINENT on the week's social calendar was the dessert luncheon and benefit bridge given by Phi Delta Theta mothers Tuesday afternoon at the Woman's clubhouse.

Twenty-three tables were in play with high score for contract going to Mrs. A. L. Adolphson and Mrs. Ray Yocom and for auction to Mrs. Roy Davidson.

Nosegays of sweet peas and nasturtiums centered the small tables and the serving table had a large bouquet of blue delphinium and pink snapdragons.

The hostess group included Mrs. Frank Prime, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. James H. Nicholson, Mrs. E. C. Mennis, Mrs. James Heitzel, Mrs. M. J. Kantock, Mrs. K. H. Pickens, Mrs. Walter Cline and Mrs. J. M. Devers.

The fund derived will be pooled with money raised by the Portland Mother's club to buy a new radio for the fraternity house at the University of Oregon.

Ice Cream Social to Be Friday Night

An ice cream social will be sponsored by the W.C.T.U. Friday night in the fireplace room of the Jason Lee Methodist church.

Those who come to the social are invited to attend the program of the Daily Vacation Bible school and those who come to the program are invited to stay for a dish of ice cream.

The tea planned by Mrs. George Weller, Mrs. John R. Coughlin, Mrs. Frank Chapman and Miss Marie Churchill for Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Walter Socolofsky has been postponed indefinitely.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

Mark our word, you'll cut down your clothes budget—the day you cut out this adorable “at home” frock from its simple pattern. Anne Adams knows how much you love gay, becoming styles, so here is one of her loveliest summer models with peppy, crisp touches so flattering to misa or matron. Delightfully gay in a printed cotton—you'll find the short sleeves chic and flattering—and the trim, straight lines ever so easy to stitch up. Clever little ruffles may outline the chic yoke and edge the handy, square pockets. You'll look cool through summer days, confident in the thought you're appropriately dressed to greet an unexpected caller.

Pattern 4032 is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 2 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric.

Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with each pattern.

Independence.—Allan Harwood delightfully entertained a group of his little friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harwood, Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on his fourth birthday. Mrs. Harwood served a colorful plate luncheon to the tiny guests in the garden of their home. Attached to each plate were two huge balloons, which made the small children clap their hands in glee.

Those helping Allan remember the day were: Carl Byers, Jr., Marjorie Becken, Joyce Becken, Sharon Plunkett, Jerry Kelley, Jr., Bobby Robinson, Donna Rooker, Harriet Guild and Doris Becken.

Mrs. Harwood was assisted by Mrs. Paul E. Robinson with the serving.

Scio.—The Rev. Henry Albers of Albany officiated at the ring ceremony at his home at 8 o'clock Thursday night when Mrs. Elsie Bartz and Dave Boshart, both of Scio, were united in marriage in friends and relatives.

The bride wore a pink crepe ensemble and a small white turban with face length veil and white gloves. Her corsage was of pastel sweet peas with blue ribbons. For going away, Mrs. Boshart wore a dress of blue crepe with white accessories. Following a wedding trip to Oregon beaches, the couple will be at home at Detroit, where Mr. Boshart is employed.

Salem friends have received word of the birth of a daughter, Sarah, to Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Rinehart of Seattle. Mrs. Rinehart was Kathleen Rodgers before her marriage.
