

Local News Briefs

Care Crash, Allevy—An automobile crash at the mouth of a Center street alley between Winter and Summer streets yesterday forenoon was reported to police by Jack Pollock, 602 North Winter. The Pollock car collided with a heavy sedan driven by Mrs. Mabel Noble, 570 North Winter, turning it around and badly damaged one side. Neither driver was seriously hurt. Other accident reports involved Frank Takayama, route two, and Ellridge Durall, residing on the streets between High and Liberty; Arthur Schroeder, Dallas route one, and Ian Barbyte, 715 North Capitol, at Center and Commercial; Edmund May, 520 South 14th, and a pedestrian named Crossman, 877 Oak, at Capitol and University. The pedestrian, May reported, suffered foot bruises.

Officers for D.A.V.—Herman Laiky, Salem attorney, and member of Salem chapter No. 6, Disabled Veterans of the World War, has received notice of his appointment as judge advocate for the department of Oregon, Disabled American Veterans, for the ensuing year.

To Build Garage—T. C. Crabtree yesterday obtained permission from the city building department to have a garage erected at 575 D street at cost of $100. The only other permit issued yesterday went to Frank Chabhill for a $122 reroofing job at 660 D street.

Meet Set Sooner—The next meeting of the state highway commission will be held in Portland July 23 instead of July 24, as previously announced. Contracts for road and bridge projects aggregating an expenditure of more than $500,000 will be considered at the meeting.

Lant Fined—A Salem motorist, Lester W. Lant, laborer, 243 North Front street, was fined $100 and sentenced to serve 30 days in jail, charged with reckless driving in a Seattle court. Judge Joseph Sweeney said the sentence would be suspended on payment of the fine.

Townsend Meeting—A special meeting of Townsend club No. 2 will be held at 7:45 o'clock tonight in the Leslie M. E. church. Matters of importance will be discussed and special business transacted. All members and friends are urged to attend.

More Weeds Listed—The state department of agriculture has ordered inclusion of four weeds in the list of noxious plants. The four are white top, Russian knapweed, wild morning glory and blue flowered lettuce.

Townsend Meet—The Englewood Townsend club will meet at the Temple Baptist church, 19th and Broadway streets, at 8 p. m. Wednesday, July 2, and at 8 p. m. Thursday, July 3. Herman Laiky will be speaker. A short program is arranged and everyone is invited.

Garrett Appointed—T. M. Garrett of Grass Valley has been appointed by Governor Martin chairman of the Sherman county relief committee to succeed George W. Wilcox, who has resigned.

License Approved—The county court yesterday approved a package store license for Mabel and Charles Smith of the Triangle store, to which a beer license has already been granted.

Harwood to Speak—Dr. J. E. Harwood of Huntington, Ind., secretary of religious education, will speak at the First United Brethren church, 12th and Mission streets, tonight at 8 o'clock.

Utilities Board Made Intervenor

The Oregon utilities commission and state agricultural department yesterday intervened on the side of the Northwest Millers' association which is protesting reduced rail freight rates on grain and grain products shipped from the north central states into the southeastern states.

Officials here declared that the proposed reductions would play havoc with the business of the Northwest Millers who shipped more than a million pounds of flour into the southeastern states during the past year.

Telegrams have been sent to the interstate commerce commission in Washington requesting that a hearing be held in Portland or Seattle before the new rate proposal is finally considered.

The Washington utility commission also has joined with the Northwest Millers in protesting the proposed rate reductions.

2 Indictments Are Returned

Kept Secret; $1000 Asked as Alimony in Divorce Suit, Edna Horton

One thousand dollars in permanent alimony is asked by Edna M. Horton in divorce complaint filed in circuit court here yesterday against O. H. Horton, to whom she was married in Vancouver, Wash., August 13, 1924. She charges cruel and inhuman treatment and alleges that defendant sought the company of other women, used vile epithets toward her, struck her and otherwise abused her.

Besides the $1000 alimony, she asks restoration of the name Edna M. Allen. Plaintiff also filed a motion yesterday for an order requiring Horton to pay $200 to the clerk of the court for temporary support money, $150 attorney's fees and $53.80 court costs.

The Marion county grand jury, in session off and on since a week ago today, yesterday returned two secret indictments. He jury is said to have before it only routine matters this time.

Coming Events

July 2—Norman Thomas speaks, high school auditorium, 4 p. m.

July 4—Annual American Legion celebration, state fairgrounds.

July 7—Marion county W.C.T.U. annual picnic, E. T. Prescott's lawn, 1064 Oak.

July 12—Mission Bottom homecoming, all day picnic, school grounds.

July 24—Christian Endeavor picnic at Turner camp ground.

Guardsmen Back; Jirak Is Honored

Salem's units in the 249th coast artillery and 162nd infantry and members of the medical detachment returned home yesterday following their annual two weeks training period at Camp Clatsop and Fort Stevens. Captain Arthur B. Bates of the artillery headquarters battery here, Captain H. G. Malson of the infantry B company and Captain E. Lee Wood of the medical detachment all declared the encampment was successful.

Weather favored the guardsmen during their outing and training and organization results hit a new high.

Honors ordinarily received only by high-ranking officers were paid First Sergeant Frank Jirak by the 249th coast artillery at Fort Stevens before the summer encampment broke up yesterday. The regiment staged a formal review for Jirak in recognition of his impending retirement as sergeant-instructor after 30 years of service. Jirak will retire next December 31.

Lieutenant Colonel Clifton M. Irwin and other officers led the regiment past Sergeant Jirak, saluted him; ordered guidons dipped and "eyes right."

Super-Savings ON VACATION NEEDS

Advertisement for Firestone products including seat covers, luggage racks, auto radio, picnic jugs, thermometers, insect screens, and ash trays. Includes prices and descriptions for various items.

Cooke Stationery, Firm's New Name

A 67-year old business concern, Pattons Book store, 340 State street, will hereafter be known as Cooke Stationery company, J. L. Cooke, who has owned and managed the store since April, 1935, announced yesterday.

The store was founded in 1869 in the present location by T. McP. Patton with ownership subsequently passing into the hands of his sons, Hal and Cooke Patton. After the death of Hal Patton, J. L. Cooke, a Salem resident since 1927, acquired proprietorship. Previously Cooke had been connected with Remington-Rand and Underwood-Elliott-Fisher.

Cooke Stationery company will carry a complete line of office supplies and equipment, stationery and books. The concern is agent in Salem for Art Metal steel files.

Gets Six Months For Heifer Theft

Rex Olie Stevenson of near Mill City, arrested last week for larceny of a yearling heifer belonging to John Stanton, was sentenced to six months in the county jail yesterday morning by Judge L. H. McMahan. Stevenson pleaded guilty before McMahan last week, but declared this was his first offense.

A delegation of cattlemen from the McMahan and Mill City area was in court this morning when Stevenson's case came up.

Judge McMahan also sentenced Paul Dickman, previously a two-time loser on forgery counts, to not more than eight months in prison for forgery. Dickman pleaded guilty some time ago but sentence was delayed to give him time to straighten out personal affairs. He lives on Salem route five.

Swim Class For Children Slated

A special swimming class for boys and girls too young for regular classes will be held at the Y.M.C.A. each Monday, Wednesday and Friday for the rest of the summer, Gus Moore, physical director, announced yesterday.

The first class will open July 6. Robert Smith and Irving Hale will instruct the youngsters.

The class is a special feature of the Y each year, Moore said. Parents bring the youngsters, some of whom are too small to touch bottom in the shallow end of the pool, and let them learn to swim.

The class is a special feature of the Y each year, Moore said. Parents bring the youngsters, some of whom are too small to touch bottom in the shallow end of the pool, and let them learn to swim.

Thomas Chief of Active Club Here

E. E. Thomas was elected president of the Salem Active International at the regular club meeting last night at the Peter Pan cafe. He will succeed B. H. Graybill as head of the organization.

Walter Lamkin was chosen vice-president, Robert Needham as secretary-treasurer, and Edward Bissell, Reynolds Allen and Creighton Jones, trustees.

Let Us Prepare Your Car For Summer Driving

Advertisement for car services including specialized lubrication, clean windows, test battery, inspect and inflate tires, adjust spark plugs, remove anti-freeze, and inspect brakes.

Advertisement for G.W. Johnson & Co. Mid-Season Clearance Sale. Features suits, slacks, dress shirts, straw hats, and swim trunks at reduced prices.

Advertisement for Firestone Auto Supply & Service Stores. Promotes specialized service for car maintenance and repair.

Advertisement for Montgomery Ward featuring a refrigerator. Includes the headline 'My lovely new Ward refrigerator has every feature I ever wanted' and details about the product and store locations.

Advertisement for 'USE CHINESE HERBS' featuring 'CHARLIE CHAN CHINESE HERB REMEDIES'. Lists various ailments treated by the herbs and provides contact information.

Advertisement for 'TOWNSEND CLUB' No. 1. Promotes a concession at fair grounds on July 4th, offering refreshments like warm cream, coffee, and lemonade.