Miss Bock Gives Wedding Plans For July 4

THE only Salem maid who has announced her intention to wed on Independence Day is Miss Betty Bock who will exchange vows with Darwin Biver in the Baptist parsonage at North Bend.

Rev. J. D. Chappelle will read the service at high noon. Miss Martha Chase of Salem and Ted Shanks of North Bend will attend the couple.

A dinner will follow. After a short honeymoon at the coast, the young people will reside in North Bend where Mr. Biver is in business.

Mrs. Edward Barrett is Feted at Albany

Mrs. Edward L. Barrett (Madeline Ward) was the inspiration for a smartly arranged tea yesterday afternoon in Albany for which Mrs. Will Barrett was hostess.

Calling hours were from 3 to 5 o'clock. Mrs. F. H. Thompson and Mrs. Percy Kelly poured.

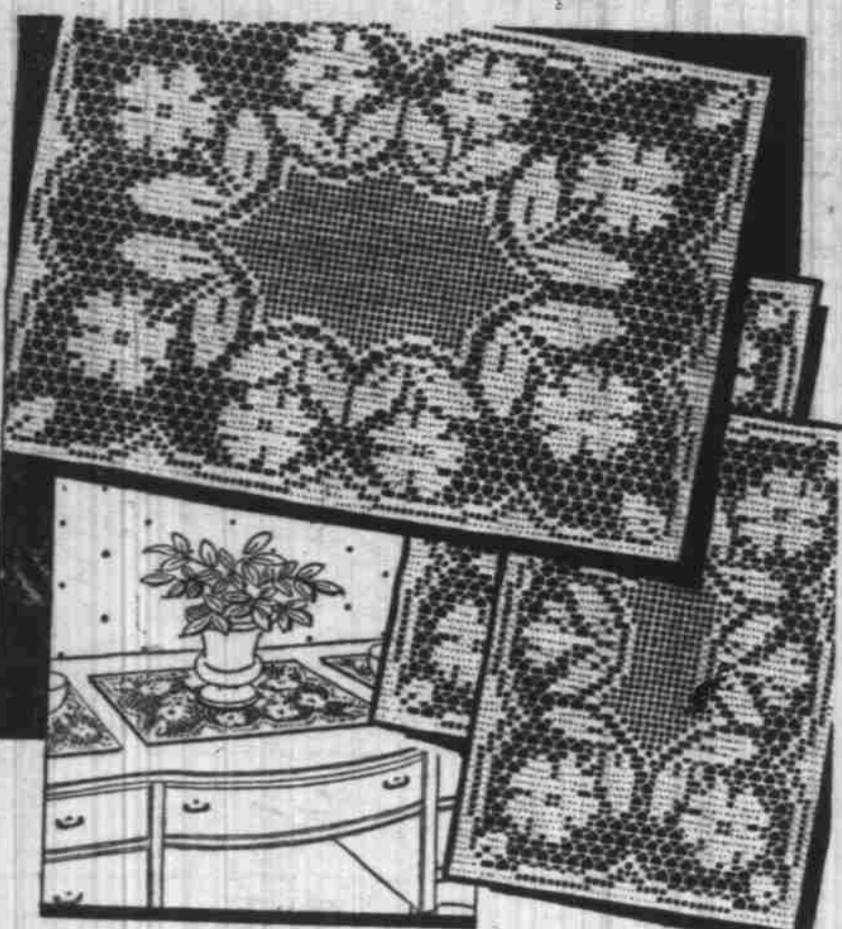

Those motoring down from Salem included Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Rex Davis, Mrs. J. N. Chambers and Mrs. Harris Lietz.

"So you're going to be married! Lucky girl!"
"I give all the credit to 'BILLIE'S DRESS SHOP. Jim just couldn't resist the smart frocks I got there!"

Highlights of W.C.T.U. Convention Given

Some of the highlights of the 62nd national convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which just closed a 10-day session in Tulsa, Oklahoma, have been given by Salem's and Marion county's representative at the meeting, Mrs. Ruth E. Toose.

The keynote of the annual address of the national president, Mrs. Ida B. Wise Smith, was the vital need of the "Long View" in appraising the progress of the temperance movement.

Miss Bertha Rachel Palmer, formerly superintendent of schools in North Dakota, outlined the task which lies before the W.C.T.U. in its program of alcohol education as follows: there are 30,000,000 pupils to be reached with the facts about what alcohol is and what it does; there are 1,000,000 teachers in service and there are 225 teacher training schools. Miss Palmer, who is national director of the department of alcohol education for the W.C.T.U., is making plans whereby she and her ten full time associates can cover the field and cooperate with the teachers of America by putting in their hands material suitable for teaching the facts about alcohol to each grade in school.

Miss Maude M. Aldrich, national director of the department of motion pictures, said that the W.C.T.U. is the only national organization which has carried on a continuous program, for the past 11 years, for federal supervision of the trade practices of the motion picture industry, and federal regulation providing higher moral standards for films entering interstate and international commerce.

The present congress has had more bills before it proposing regulation of motion pictures than any previous congress and real progress has been made in that sub-committee on interstate and foreign commerce in both houses of congress have had hearings and reported favorably to the committee of the whole on bills dealing with block-booking.

Brush Creek—Mrs. G. E. Moberg and her daughter Patience, Miss Ailhea Meyer and their house guest, Miss Marna Moberg, also a daughter of Mrs. Moberg, accompanied a group of 14 from Scotts Mills Sunday in a trip around the Mt. Hood loop. They report that the scenery was exceptionally pretty at this time of the year and that they still found snow along the highway in places. Miss Marna Moberg will remain here until the middle of July when she will return to her work as a student nurse in Minneapolis.

Mrs. Ley Barber and three children, John Muir, Bligh and Cecilia of San Francisco, Calif., were recent house guests of the C. P. Bishops. From Salem, they motored with their hosts to Brownsville and the home of Mrs. I. W. Starr for a short visit. They plan to spend a few weeks at the coast before returning south.

Miss Tartar Receives National Office

Miss Lena Belle Tartar was elected secretary of the music department of the N.E.A. at the national convention in Portland this week.

Other Salem teachers attending the music sessions included Mrs. Mildred Wyatt and Mrs. Ermine Fawk.

Mrs. Frances Clark, who is associated with the Victor company, was the principal speaker at the luncheon in the Multnomah hotel Tuesday. Monday afternoon, Arthur Garbett of the National Broadcasting company gave a paper on the new type of music which must arise to meet the demands of radio and motion pictures.

Mrs. Donald Young will preside at an informal luncheon for eight this afternoon on the terrace at her home. Clover will provide the table centerpiece.

Mrs. Stanley Satchell will be hostess to the Y's Menettes Friday in the gardens of the R. M. Gatke home on Richmond avenue, at 2 o'clock.
