Jacobson and Roy, Jr., of Tacoma, Miss Amy Jacobson of Little Falls, Minn., and Mrs. George Phasas of Los Angeles. From Salem were the George Vick, Charles Vick, Hans Christensen, James Cogswell and Oscar Melgaard families, and Mr. George and Mr. Burch.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
By far the perfect frock for warm weather events—is this delightful Anne Adams style, Pattern 4047. No occasion can ruffle this casual model, for its cool charm, simple lines and fetching accents make it indispensable to your summer wardrobe. You'll surely want several versions, either in pique, muslin, percale, or soft shantung, for you can run up two or three in a surprisingly brief time. Unusual buttons are a nice touch on the shirtwaist type bodice, and tiny tucks assure plenty of fullness for free arm movement. There's nothing cooler than caplets and these are all in one with the simple yoke, while the trim, smart skirt boasts a wide inverted pleat.

Pattern 4047 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 3 1/2 inch fabric. Illust. step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number.

Miss Parker Becomes Bride in Seattle

Details of the marriage of Miss Carolyn Parker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Parker of Great Falls, Mont., formerly of Salem, and Frederick Weleber of Oregon City, have reached Salem friends.

The vows were said at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the 2nd wife home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Donald C. Evans. Dr. Parker read the impressive service.

The bride wore a white crepe suit, with a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Edward Burns Marr of Salem, who attended her sister, wore blue crepe. Her corsage was yellow roses and sweet peas.

Jack Weleber of Everett, Wash., was best man.

A reception was held at the Evans home following the service. The couple left immediately for a motor trip to Lake Louise. On their return they will live in Oregon City at the Riverview apartments.

Mrs. Weleber is well known in Salem having been connected with the Marion county relief office. She attended Willamette university, where she was affiliated with the Beta Chi sorority, and was graduated from DePauw university at Greencastle, Indiana.

Mr. Weleber is technical director of the chemistry department of the Hawley Pulp and Paper mills at Oregon City.

Gates.—Mrs. Ferd Jones was hostess to members of the Birthday club on Wednesday afternoon. Progressive eucher was in play at four tables with Mrs. Len Young winner of high score; Mrs. Gerald Heath second and Roy Taylor low. Mrs. Ruby Winters won visitors' honors. The hostess was assisted in serving at the tea hour by Myrtice and Phyllis Jones. Mrs. A. D. Scott announced that she would entertain the club on July 15th at her home on King's Prairie.

Mrs. L. G. Altman who has made Salem her home for the past 32 years has gone to southern California with her daughter, Mrs. Alta A. Martin of Los Angeles, to reside.

Friends of Mrs. Ray Betzer will be glad to hear that she is recovering nicely from a recent illness and will be able to go home from the Deaconess hospital the last of this week.

F. L. club members will honor their courtesy friends Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Mildred Davidson, 448 N. 24th. Those attending are requested to bring a gift.

Miss Wolfe Weds Eldon Scott at 8 O'Clock

BEFORE an improvised altar of palms and baskets of gladioli, Miss Mabel Wolfe and Eldon Scott exchanged marriage vows last night at 8 o'clock in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. James Wolfe. Tall candelabra lighted the altar.

Rev. Grover C. Birchett officiated. Only a select circle of friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony.

The bride was attired in powder blue jewel crepe embellished with hand-tinted ruching and made along princess lines with short puffed sleeves. She wore a French corsage of lilies-of-the-valley, sweet peas and rosebuds. Miss Florence Wolfe was maid of honor for her sister. Her frock was of tea rose linen lace and she wore a corsage of sweet peas.

Reception Follows
Oscar Nelson was best man for Mr. Scott.

A reception followed the ceremony. Mrs. Irene Scott cut the cake and Mrs. James Wolfe poured. Assisting with the serving were Miss Charlotte McClary, Miss Pearl Scott, Mrs. Warren

Brasher, Miss Esperance Poage, Miss Maurine Carmical, Miss Frances Wolfe and Miss Florence Wolfe.

For traveling, the bride wore a smart navy blue sheer wool ensemble and matching accessories. After a wedding trip in southern Oregon and to Crater Lake, the couple will reside at 1431 N. Cottage.

Mrs. Scott attended Salem schools. Mr. Scott is the son of Mrs. Irene Scott and was a student at Willamette university and at Oregon State college. He owns and operates a Union Oil service station in the city.

Marion—One of the pleasant affairs of the season was the Fourth of July party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gray last Saturday.

The group included Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Gray and children, Warren and Donna, Mr. and Mrs. William Kutz and daughter, Lorraine of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Al Fennell and son, Delbert, Miss Violet Thomas from Lebanon, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gray and son, Donald, of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Overholser and children, Ruth and Lowell, of Marion, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wessner of Silverton, Miss Dorothy Gray and Miss Ruth Talmadge of Seattle, and the host and hostess.

Silverton—Mrs. D. Lester Field was complimented by a handkerchief shower Saturday night when a group of friends gathered at the Dr. A. J. McCannell home to assist in celebrating Mrs. Field's birthday anniversary.

Laura Wheeler Pattern

Crocheted Dress Pattern 1201
There's charm a-plenty in this kimono-sleeved frock, beautifully simple to crochet of string or yarn. Its lacy stripes are stunning. Pattern 1201 contains detailed directions for making the dress in sizes 16-18 and 20-22; illustrations of it and of stitches used; material requirements.

Send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) for this pattern to The Oregon Statesman, 215 S. Commercial. Write plainly pattern number, your name and address.

Mrs. C. W. Fox left Monday night for her home in Oakland, Calif., after an extended visit with relatives in Salem, Albany and Eugene.

Miss Helen Davis Weds Chester Irelan

Hazel Green.—Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Davis have announced the marriage of their daughter, Helen, to Chester Irelan of Portland. The ceremony took place July 3 in a chapel of St. Mark's church in Portland.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Louise Dunnigan. The brother of the groom, Louis Irelan, was best man. The couple are honeymooning in Seattle and the northern beaches. They will make their home in Portland.

Both are graduates of the University of Oregon. Mr. Irelan is also a member of the Oregon bar, and is employed by the Portland Trust and Savings bank.

Monmouth—Miss Birdie Derby, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Derby, was married the morning of July 4 to Arthur William Lacey, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lacey of the Parker community, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lacey, in West Salem. Elmer Cook read the service before immediate members of the two families.

The young couple left at once for a short trip to coast points and will be at home for the summer at the Derby house on Broad street.

Miss Elizabeth Clement has arrived in the capital to spend the summer with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. O. Clement. She has been studying voice in New York for the past two years and taking a course at Juilliard school.
