

Look For 2500 At Convention

Delegates to Hold First Session in Armory at 9:30 This Morning

ALBANY, July 8—The state convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and auxiliary will open here this morning at the Hotel Albany, convention headquarters. Local plans have been completed under the direction of E. C. Dailley, chairman of the general committee. A 2500 attendance is expected.

Reveille gun sounds this morning at 7:20 a.m., with breakfast for delegates and their families a half hour later. At 8 a.m. registration will begin at the Albany hotel, followed by a joint memorial service at 9:30 in the armory. An address of welcome will be given by Mayor W. L. Jackson and by the commander of the Albany post, followed by appointment of committee.

Auxiliary Convenes Later Not convening in formal meeting until 1:30 p.m. today, the auxiliary will be under the guidance of Mrs. Hazel Walton of Portland, Oregon state department president.

A banquet will top off the first day's session, held in the banquet room of the First Presbyterian church at 6 p.m. Tomorrow will be devoted to general sessions, culminating at 7 p.m. in the military parade down the main streets of the city. A mile-long column is anticipated. Other evening features include dancing, which will begin at 8:15, boxing preliminaries at 8:30, and the Cootie parade and Scratch at 9 p.m.

On Saturday morning nomination of officers will be held, election later taking place at 1:30 p.m. Installation of new officers will follow, as well as a presentation of awards, the selection of the 1937 convention city and the retiring of the colors. In the evening a street dance will start at 8 p.m.

Hockensmith Tells Plans For Meeting

ALBANY, July 8—G. T. Hockensmith, Albany postmaster, announced today that plans for the annual convention of the Oregon Chapter No. 11 of the national association of postmasters, which starts in Eugene next Monday, are rapidly being completed. Hockensmith is president of the chapter. The convention will have headquarters in the Osburn hotel, and will open with a banquet Monday evening, with United States Attorney for Oregon, Carl Donaghy, as master of ceremonies.

Postmaster General Farley who was expected to be present at the convention will be unable to attend and coming in his place is C. D. Ellenburger, third assistant postmaster general.

The convention will be formally opened Tuesday morning by President Hockensmith. Among prominent speakers, whose names appear on the program, are K. P. Aldrich, chief postal inspector, and J. A. Brennan, director of parcel post service, both of Washington, D. C.; W. H. McCarthy of San Francisco, president of the national postmasters' association; Henry R. Riggs, editor of the Postmaster's Gazette; Governor Martin, Will Simpson, president of the Washington state chapter N.P.A., and Mayor Elisha Large of Eugene.

McMahan Appoints Smith Receiver For Sawmill in Plea of Frank Gallagher

ALBANY, July 8.—Edgar F. Smith has been appointed receiver of the Bert Smith sawmill at Sweet Home by Judge L. H. McMahan, upon a request of Frank Gallagher, one of the creditors of the sawmill. Gallagher presented a claim for back wages, amounting to $4,306.50, but at the same time presented to the court that inasmuch as Smith's indebtedness is $20,000, and his assets are $15,000, it would be to the interest of the creditors including himself, to have the mill continue to operate under a receiver. Conditions are such that it is possible for the mill to pay off, Gallagher told the court.

Council to Meet

MARQUAM, July 8—Carl E. Blackler, president of the Silverton district Sunday school council of Christian education, has announced that the council will meet Sunday afternoon at the Marquam Methodist Episcopal church. Each Sunday school in the district will contribute a number.

News of West Salem

WEST SALEM, July 8—The West Salem Council met Monday night with all members present but George LaMire and C. A. Gunderlan.

The proposition of Lynn Sloper's barn was up for discussion. It was decided that it is not a fire hazard but a motion prevailed that the owner be asked to move it back from the street.

A letter from Nelson's regarding floor covering for the new building was read and put on the table. Lynn Sloper's resignation was also read. It was moved and seconded that the resignation be placed on the table until the next regular meeting.

A petition with 173 signers for reconstruction of the sewers was read. This was referred to the street and sewer committee to hire an engineer to see what can be done.

Mayor Guy Newgent asked Fred Gibson to take the chair.

Albany Residents Make Long Trips

Mrs. Eva Nichols Sails For Voyage to China and Philippines

ALBANY, July 8—Many Albany people are making extended trips this month, while others from far distant places are coming to Albany to visit relatives and friends. L. Nichols of Albany, sailed from Seattle July 4 on the S. S. McKinley for China and the Philippines. She is a member of a party being conducted by Dr. and Mrs. Norman F. Coleman of Reed college. She expects to arrive back in Seattle August 19.

Monday morning Miss Lenore Powell, Miss Lottie Morgan and Miss Zella Burkhardt left for New York City where they will sail for Europe on an extensive tour. They expect to return to Albany in September.

Early Saturday morning Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Way and their son Alan left by automobile for a three weeks' trip which will take them to their former home in Iowa, where they will visit a sister of Mr. Way. This is their first visit to their former home in 18 years. Another Albany party taking an extended vacation is that of Mr. and Mrs. U. B. Taylor, who have gone to Lake Louise where they will be joined by a former schoolmate of Mr. Taylor's from Wyoming, and for the next two or three weeks will travel through Canada.

Hewitts Reunite On Donation Land

UNIONVALE, July 8 — Sixty-three members and ten guests of the descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hewitt, pioneers of 1843, attended the eighteenth annual reunion held Sunday at the L. L. Thornton grove, seven miles south of Dayton, which is a portion of the original donation land claim. Three of the four surviving sons attended, including Dr. Jasper L. Hewitt and Dr. L. L. Hewitt, both of Estacada, and H. W. Hewitt of Albany. Matthew Hewitt of Roseville, Calif., was unable to attend.

A banquet dinner was served at noon. All officers were reelected. Earl Abbett of Portland and Roy R. Hewitt of Salem were appointed to draft memorials.

Dayton Minister Goes to Gardner

DAYTON, July 8—Rev. Claude T. Cook, pastor of the Dayton Methodist church during the past four years and who was assigned to the Gardner congregation at the recent conference, will move Wednesday with Mrs. Cook to their new home. Rev. Cook preached his farewell sermon Sunday night at a Dayton Union service at the Evangelical church. Rev. C. C. Barick of Newberg, the newly appointed pastor, preached his first sermon at the Dayton church at 11 a.m. last Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Smith and family of Miles City, Mont., are guests of friends at Dayton. They are former residents. When Rev. Smith was a student of Linfield he was pastor of the Dayton Baptist church.

Leavy Fined $100 For Drunk Driving

Woodburn Imposes Fines For Intoxication in Public on Seven

WOODBURN, July 8 — Seven cases of drunkenness appeared in Justice Overton's court following the two days of celebrating in this vicinity.

Joseph P. Leavy was arrested for driving while intoxicated, entered a plea of guilty, and was given 90 days in the county jail and a fine of $100, plus costs of $4.70. The jail sentence was suspended on condition that the fine be paid by July 8 and he refrain from being intoxicated in a public place or on the highway for a period of one year. His driver's license was also revoked for one year.

Lloyd Tom McVey and Frank M. Lambert each paid a fine of $10 and costs after pleading guilty to the charges of being drunk in a public park at St. Paul. Matthew J. Leavy, E. E. Dixon, Charley Fowler and Greer H. Moffett were all arrested for being intoxicated in a public highway. Moffett, who was injured, was unable to appear and deposited $15 bail and will appear for examination Thursday at 10 a.m. Leavy, Dixon and Fowler each paid a fine of $10 and costs. No Muffler Arrest Cause.

Erman A. Rogers was fined $5 and costs for driving without a muffler and, being unable to pay, was committed to the county jail. Leroy Estenson and Edward A. Reiling were each charged with driving with four persons in the driver's seat, and each paid a fine of $5 and costs.

George J. Meyers, arrested for driving his car with a trailer attached and transporting property without P.U.C. license plates, paid a fine of $10 and costs. Robert Watson paid a fine of $10 for driving his truck at a rate of 45 to 52 miles per hour. Milton E. Kennison, paid a fine of $5 and costs for a like offense. William E. LaTosh, arrested for speeding, paid a fine of $10 and costs. Ralph P. Boehm paid a fine of $5 and costs for failing to stop at a stop sign.

St. Peter's Gets Resident Rector

ALBANY, July 8—Rev. John Scheer arrived in Albany Monday from Pueblo, Colo., to become rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church here. In addition to his duties here he will also be rector of St. Hilda's church at Monmouth. This is the first time in more than 25 years that the Albany church has had a resident pastor.

Rev. Scheer was graduated from Seabury Western seminary, Chicago, last June, and has just been ordained. This is his first charge. Rev. Scheer will preach his first sermon here Sunday morning at which time Rev. D. V. Gray of Corvallis will be in Albany to conduct the services.

Thursday evening a reception will be held in the Guild rooms of St. Peter's for the new rector. Mrs. Alex Ross is in charge of the reception, which will be public. Bishop Benjamin D. Dagwell of the Oregon diocese is expected to be an honored visitor on that evening.

Murrays Return to Home In British Columbia on Completion of Sojourn

PARKERSVILLE, July 7—Mr. and Mrs. Alex Murray and baby returned to their home at Victoria, B. C. recently, after a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. William Davidson. The Davidsons were former neighbors of the Murray family while living at Victoria, B. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley LaFontaine have announced the birth of a son, Ralph, June 27, at the maternity hospital in Salem. This is the LaFontaine's third child.

Arton Stull of Los Angeles is here inspecting farms that are for sale. He hopes to buy a place and move his family here before school starts this fall. Stull is a native of Illinois.
