

Aerie Wins Eerie Ball Game, 19 to 18 Over Wait's Outfit

Eagles Smack 21 Safe Blows

Eight Runs in Seventh Not Enough For Butchers; Hogg Squad Wins

When screech ball games are made call in Wait's and the Eagles to bid on the contracts. The game they played on Sweetland field last night was wild enough to be fair game for Frank Buck.

Among other things the Eagles won 19 to 18. Their slugging crew plastered Marvin Ritchie for 21 hits, the second game in which they have hit safely more than 20 times. The Wait's club, tumbled out of its tie for second place with the Paper Mill, did its best hitting of the season with 15, but 15 hits weren't enough to make up for their nine errors in the field.

The Eagles made good their boast of making the first two innings when they piled up a nine run lead.

They were still leading 14 to 7 at the game went into the seventh inning and if they could have held Wait's in that frame the ball game would have been over then and there.

They didn't hold Wait's, however, for those gentlemen went out in the seventh to get six hits, including two triples, and scored eight runs. It was enough to put Wait's in the lead by one run.

Five in Eighth Wait's added another in the eighth but their two run margin didn't last long as the lambasting Eagles slugged out six blows in their half for five more runs.

Wait's scored two in the ninth but Marvin Ritchie lost a chance to win his own ball game when he fled out with the tying and winning runs on base.

Hogg Bros. defeated the Artisans 12 to 5 in a game called at seven innings.

R. H. E. Wait's 18 15 9 Eagles 19 21 6 M. Ritchie and Elliott; Hemann, Stockwell and Wilkerson, Hoyt.

H. E. Hogg Bros. 12 8 4 Artisans 5 8 4 M. Serdotz and P. McCaffery; N. Serdotz and Miller.

Sellout Talk Scared Fans Away From All-Star Game, Is Claim at Boston; Loyal Home Boosters Extremelyirate

Scratched out of the baseball dictionary today when Ford Frick, happy young National league president, cleaned up the last of the all-star game details and hustled off to Cincinnati.

Frick, still bubbling over about his team's first "dream game" victory, had little to say about the woe of 25,524, which left about 18,000 vacant seats in the local National league park, but other baseball figures predicted that the fans would not be misled, in any manner before next year's game in Washington.

"We'll never yell sellout again," promised one baseball spokesman. "And we'll have more reserved seats for future all-star games. It is no wonder the Boston crowd was a flop. For weeks the newspapers and radio have been shouting sellout and predicting that in no event a bleacher ticket would be available at the park on the day of the game."

"And what was the result? Just 18,000 fans, many of whom would have paid any price to get any where in the park, were frightened away."

Meanwhile the Boston baseball public was in an ugly mood. Those who attended the all-star game were indignant over the size of the crowd and were criticizing those who remained away for "blotting" the community's reputation as a top-grade sports center. The absentees refused to accept responsibility and passed it along to the sellout shouters, who are now slinking about with very red faces.

Girl Town Team's Star and Slugger

CONNELL, Wash., July 8.—(AP)—Fae Lindner, 17, the only girl on the Connell town team, batted .433 in four games.

Fae, five feet six and a half inches tall, weight 138 pounds, got her chance with Connell May 21 when the team was short a player in a game with Highland grange at Kennewick. She volunteered to hold down the position and made good.

She asks no quarter from any pitcher and the few that tried to lob the ball to her saw it walloped off the lot.

She fields well, runs bases and slides like a man.

Fae started to play ball when she was seven. The girls were not good enough players, so she competed with the boys.

Achlu Winner, Grapple Meet

Beats Costillo, Claybourn and Cry Baby London to Take Tourney

Walter "Tinkit" Achlu, the popular young Chinese wrestler from Dayton, Ohio, outlasted seven of Herb Owen's best wrestlers to win the round robin match at the armory last night.

The first match between Achlu and Claybourn, a smooth working negro, was the best on the card. Achlu was awarded the decision after 15 minutes of fast clean wrestling.

Achlu's second round opponent was Pascual Costillo who gave "Tinkit" a good beating before getting in the way of a son-of-a-bitch.

To reach the finals "Cry Baby" London took popular George Bennett and Danny McShain. The second round match between "Cry Baby" and McShain was a thriller with a flip of a coin finally deciding in London's favor.

The final event had the crowd in an uproar, and especially so when Achlu dropped on London for the deciding fall in 15 minutes.

Steele and Risko Ready For Battle

SEATTLE, July 8.—(AP)—Middleweight champion Eddie "Babe" Risko, Syracuse, N. Y., and Freddie Steele, Tacoma, will break camp tomorrow and head toward Seattle for their 16-round championship bout Friday night.

Risko, who has been training at Edmonds for two months, said he didn't think he would "travel 15 rounds with Steele because I'll knock him out."

Steele, who beat the champion in a non-title bout here last season, said he was in good shape and expected to repeat his victory.

Gutekunst Loses In Junior Event

PORTLAND, Ore., July 8.—(AP)—Frank Kovacs, Berkeley, Calif., remained a favorite in the men's and junior singles of the Oregon state tennis tournament today but he and Doug Imhof, also of Berkeley, were eliminated from the doubles bracket.

Vic Ramis and Bob Lloyd, Portland, won from the Californians 6-3, 6-6, 8-6.

Darrel Kelly, Portland won from George Gutekunst, Salem, 6-1, 6-1 to advance to the semifinals of the junior singles.

Pade's Is Winner Over Hill Outfit

Pade's defeated Tom Hill's 9 to 3 in a cleanly played industrial league game last night. Pade's took nine hits off two opposing pitchers and played errorless ball.

Ulrich Scores Dodo on Third; First of Year

Playing golf for the first time after a long layoff—the never has played a great deal — John Ulrich, Salem postoffice clerk, managed to do what regular habitues of the Salem Golf club course hadn't achieved all this season.

He went out late Wednesday afternoon and on the 185-yard third hole, banged out a tee shot that sank into the cup for a hole-in-one, the first of the year.

Ulrich's feat appears all the more remarkable when it is taken into consideration that the third hole, listed at 195 yards but being played from a forward tee at present, is the longest par three hole on the course and so far as Secretary John Varley could recall Wednesday, has been negotiated in one stroke only once before, by Frank McFarland.

Seals Tie Series With Narrow Win

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—(AP)—San Francisco's Seals evened the current series today with a 5 to 4 win over Portland, gained by a two-run rally in the ninth.

Manager "Lefty" O'Doul resumed play long enough to help in the victory. With the bases loaded in the ninth, he went in as a pinch hitter and drew a walk.

He forced in Barath with the tying run. Brooks Holder broke the deadlock with a single, scoring Graves.

Portland went into an eighth inning lead on singles by Frederick and Clabaugh and Bedore's third two-bagger of the day, accounting for a brace of runs.

Bedore also doubled in the fourth. Holder likewise drove in three tallies.

Big Sam Gibson outpitched "Hobo" Carson, easily checking the visitors in all but two frames.

Portland 4 8 1 San Francisco 5 10 0 Carson and Brucker; Gibson and Woodall.

General Motors Wins in Tourney

PORTLAND, July 8.—(AP)—General Motors of the Portland Valley league ousted Mantle Club from the Oregon semi-pro baseball tournament tonight with a 9 to 2 victory. It was the Mantle Club's second defeat.

Tomorrow's games: Hop Gold vs. Toledo and Journal vs. Consolidated Freight. The latter two are in the consolation bracket.

General Motors 9 15 3 Mantle Club 2 8 4 Hontchens and Bishop; Quinn, Reed and Palmer.

Olympic Fund Is Far Short

Committee Seeking Aid to Send Team; Three Big Events Will Help

NEW YORK, July 8.—(AP)—The most important event on the U. S. Olympic program today was the race of the Olympic finance committee to raise the $135,000 now necessary to send a full team to Germany next Wednesday.

Obviously worried over the present prospects, the committee temporarily stopped looking at the records of its athletes and began looking to their finances.

In desperation the committee today wired the Los Angeles athletic club to guarantee part of its water polo team's expenses by Sunday if it wanted the team to go to Germany.

Meanwhile the Los Angeles team is stranded in Chicago, not knowing whether to come east or go back home.

Only through contribution can the committee make up its present deficit. There are three events scheduled this weekend which are expected to boost the fund, the track and field finals at Randall's Island stadium Saturday and Sunday; the women's swimming finals at Astoria, L. I., at the same time; and the men's swimming finals at Warwick, R. I., Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

With capacity crowds at all three events each day, the committee estimated that the aggregate net receipts would total no more than $54,000.

Mayor Endorses Aquatic Program

'Learn to Swim' Campaign Benefits Outstanding Says City's Chief

Mayor V. E. Kuhn yesterday approved plans for the conduct of the "Learn to Swim" campaign in the city pools July 13 to 24 and issued a proclamation urging the citizenry to cooperate with the playground and Red Cross staff in the program. His proclamation reads as follows:

"Inasmuch as the recreational program outlined for our youth during the vacation season of the year is of vital importance to each and every youngster, it becomes necessary for us to give the most serious consideration to the phases of athletics that have the most value to the youth today.

"Swimming has become a national sport and recreation, and as such has had a tendency to develop a very fine spirit of sportsmanship. Also it has become one of our outstanding athletic developments for the human body, and as such should be given very serious consideration by each and every one of us.

"In consideration of the results obtained by an active interest in swimming, due to its many accomplishments along the line of character and physical building, I declare the time of July 13 to 24, American Red Cross "Learn to Swim" Weeks, and urge all the citizens of Salem to recognize the same as such."
