Local News Briefs

Join Army—Three Salem men were sent to Vancouver barracks Thursday after enlisting in the U. S. army for service with the 29th engineers. The three, all of whom had been working on surveying projects before enlistment, are Marvin E. Ray, 1655 South Liberty street; Charles W. Cherry, route 1, and John W. Ingham, 1655 South Liberty street. They will probably be stationed at Port Angeles, Wash. There are at present vacancies in the 29th engineers, the 6th engineers, the 9th field artillery, motorized, and the 10th field artillery, all stationed at Fort Lewis. There are also vacancies in the 14th coast artillery at Fort Worden, Wash., according to Sergeant MacDowell, temporary sub-station commander at the Salem postoffice.

Valley People Licensed—Willamette valley residents who have received marriage licenses at Vancouver, Wash., include Wayne E. Adkins, jr., and Mrs. Marion E. Elwell, both of Albany; Joe H. Schultz and Hattie Archer, both of Scio; James S. Temple and Ruth Evelyn Cordell, both of Molalla; Kenneth L. Pearson of Carlton and Beverly D. Hill, McMinnville; Roy Cox, Estacada, and Wilma Fromong of Willamina; Vernon Faulk of Yamhill and Mrs. Elda Thomas of McMinnville.

Paralysis Report Erroneous — Reports that swimmers in certain Marion county streams were in danger of contracting infantile paralysis were branded erroneous yesterday by Dr. Vernon A. Douglas, county health officer. The disease is not transmitted by water pollution as are others such as typhoid fever, he said. Any open stream, however, may be considered contaminated and not entirely safe from a health standpoint for use by swimmers, Dr. Douglas added.

Lutherans to Picnic—Members of the American Lutheran church and their friends will picnic at Paradise island picnic grounds Sunday, following the morning services. The church is providing coffee, though members will bring their own lunch baskets. The program for the afternoon will include a treasure hunt, races for all, swimming, and a baseball game between an older boys' team captained by Verdi Sederstrom and a men's team led by H. G. King.

Distribute Malt Tax—Distribution of $31,964.08, representing part of the tax imposed upon manufacturers and importers of malt and alcohol beverages for the benefit of incorporated cities and counties, was announced Friday by Secretary of State Snell. The distribution covered the tax for the three months' period ending June 30. Portland, with an allotment of $10,144.68, received the lion's share of the fund.

Case Transferred—The case of T. J. Murhammer, charged with harboring an unlicensed dog, was transferred to the Silverton justice court after an affidavit of prejudice against Miller B. Hayden, local justice of the peace, was filed. That Hayden issued a bench warrant for the arrest of Murhammer when the later failed to appear at a specified time, was grounds for the claim of prejudice.

Damage Suit Arising Out of Fatal Accident to Be Hearing Topic

Transfer of the damage suit of F. L. Earnest, administrator of the estate of Albert L. Cutler, against Louis and Marion Torre to the United States district court was asked in a petition filed in the circuit court yesterday. Earnest is seeking to collect damages for the death of Cutler arising from an automobile accident with Torre on the Pacific highway south of Salem, four months ago.

The petition states that the defendants are residents of the state of Washington and that the case should be tried in the federal court. A bond of $500 is filed with the petition. A hearing on the request will be held at 10 o'clock today.

An order signed yesterday afternoon by Judge L. H. McMahan transferred the case of Ladd and Bush Bankers, against L. O. and Epsie Herrold and J. O. Hayes to the equity court to be tried by Judge L. G. Lewelling. The case was recently returned to the circuit court from the United States district court. The action is for the collection of a note given by Herrold to the bank.
