Grangers' News

LIBERTY, July 16.—The Red Hills grange met at the Sunny-side school house Tuesday for routine business. It is expected that next month's meeting will be held in the grange's own hall here. The store building recently purchased from Charles Krauger is now vacant and grangers expect to be busy shortly in its removal, adaptation and alteration for use as a grange hall.

Lecturer's program by C. D. Curtis was a play, "The Pink Tea," presented by Mrs. Ramona French's drama class of Gervais. It was very well received by the grange.

WOODBURN, July 16.—A social meeting of Woodburn Grange No. 79 will be held at the grange hall Saturday evening. All farmers of the community are invited to be present as plans regarding the community fair to be held in October are to be discussed. The fair is being sponsored by the Woodburn Businessmen's club, the grange and the Garden club. Ice cream, cake and coffee will be offered for sale at Saturday meeting. The public is invited.

DAYTON, July 16.—About 30 members attended the monthly meeting of the Webfoot grange held Saturday evening. Rex Warren, county agent, was the speaker. Refreshments were served.

'Y' Campers Take Overnight Hike; Begin Tournaments

By TOM MEDLEY

Y. M. C. A. CAMP, OCEANSIDE, July 16.—(Special)—The boys of the "Y" camp prepared for an overnight hike Tuesday afternoon. Each boy was to take two blankets and a mess kit. The different tents went various places. Tent three went to Bay-ocean, a hike of about eight miles; tents five and six went to a stream about five miles from camp, after inspecting the lighthouse. Provisions were carried by tent-leaders, while the boys carried a supper pu up by the camp cook, Mrs. Kelley. All expeditions were to be back in camp by noon Wednesday.

Thursday will be devoted to a game of "Capture the Flag," in which every boy in camp will participate.

Tournaments were drawn up for various activities, such as tetherball, deck tennis, horse-shoes. Instructors named for each of these sports are as follows: tetherball, Floyd Sanford; deck tennis, Stu Nelson; and horse-shoes, Tom Medley. The big activity of the week will be a hike to the Boy Scout camp.
