

Independence School District to Elect New Director on Monday

Two Men Seek Board Position

George C. Knott and Bert Keller Are Candidates For Vacated Post

INDEPENDENCE, July 18 — Monday night, the third school meeting of District No. 23, will be held at the grade school building to elect a director to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of W. T. Hoffman. The special meeting is being called by A. W. Foster, chairman.

Two candidates are reported to be in the field for nomination. Dr. George C. Knott, is receiving wide endorsement on his former experience as a director on the local board and on the boards at Glendale and Yoncalla. Dr. Knott states his view of our local high school problem is the school needs a thorough investigation and substantial repairs.

Pioneer Hall Clan In Reunion Today

INDEPENDENCE, July 18 — The Hall clan will hold their fifth annual reunion Sunday, July 19 at Champeo park. The clan are descendants of Reason B. and Martha Wright Hall, who emigrated to Oregon in 1846. They are now domiciled at Buena Vista. Last year 62 descendants attended the meeting. B. Z. Hall of Woodburn, the only living son, is president of the clan; E. M. Croliana of Portland is vice president; and Mrs. Claude G. Skinner is secretary and treasurer.

Grand Island Sweetcorn and Tomatoes Ripe

GRAND ISLAND, July 18 — Packing was started this week in the field of G.H.'s early golden market sweet corn grown on the E. A. Lefler farm.

Market gardeners in the district are beginning to pick the first ripened tomatoes of the season. Should the good weather continue the tomatoes will soon be ripening in sufficient quantities for home use.

Livestock Club Boys Plan Tour

ALBANY, July 18 — Approximately 100 4-H livestock club boys have declared their intention of going on the annual club tour of Linn and Lane counties, which starts Monday from Takekna park in Albany and will end at Blachly Wednesday afternoon. Club leaders will accompany the boys, and plans call for the boys doing their own cooking and sleeping in the open. The first night, Monday, they will all night at Benton-Lane county park four miles north of Junction City. Tuesday night's camp will be at Triangle Lake, not far from Blachly.

Kloetsch Clan Holds Family Reunion With Many in Attendance

MEHAMA, July 18 — The Kloetsch clan gathered in the grove at Mehama last Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Alois Titzel of Mehama. The day was spent in visiting and a picnic dinner was served at noon.

Ray Andrews Helps His Relatives to Establish Themselves in Oregon

HUBBARD, July 18 — The spirit of boosting for Oregon is evidenced by Ray Andrews of Hubbard. Mr. Andrews came to Oregon several years ago. Recently he purchased a home in Hubbard. About a month ago several of his North Dakota relatives came to make him a visit. He so managed for them that they all have found employment.

Independence Growers Think Their Hops Are Best of Any District

INDEPENDENCE, July 18 — Independence hop men are of the opinion that the independence area will have the best prospects for crops this season of any district. Several growers have investigated many other yards finding mildew and spider doing a great deal of damage.

Townsend Club Names Officers; Delegate Is At Cleveland Convention

INDEPENDENCE, July 18 — Mrs. Alice B. Hays, president of the local Townsend club, was in Cleveland, Ohio, this week to attend the national convention.

Japanese Hold School At Hazel Green For 35

HAZEL GREEN, July 18 — The Japanese school is in session at the Ogura hall five days a week with the Rev. Hideo Hashimoto, principal, K. Hara, assistant. Thirty-five pupils are enrolled.

Parties Plan Picnics At Silvertown Park

SILVERTON, July 18 — Silvertown is all abuzz politically with two large party picnics planned here for the summer. The first of these will be the democratic picnic to be held at the Silvertown park July 26. Among the speakers will be Gov. Charles H. Martin, W. L. Gosselin and county and state candidates.

Insurance and Real Estate

Becke & Wadsworth
189 N. High Phone 4947

Piles Cured

Without operation or loss of time
DR. MARSHALL
829 Oregon Bldg. Phone 5309

Visit in Kingwood

KINGWOOD, July 18 — Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell and three children of Salt Lake City, where Mitchell is in the jewelry business were Thursday visitors at the Ed Finley home. They lived here a number of years ago.

Summer School Ends Session

PIENIC MARKS END OF SIX WEEKS' WORK; CLOSING PROGRAM IS GIVEN

INDEPENDENCE, July 18 — Independence training school ended six weeks' summer session on Thursday with its annual picnic in the Dallas City park. Transportation was provided by friends and parents. The morning was spent in swimming with a large picnic lunch at noon.

Jefferson Couple Lease Turk Plant

TURNER, July 18 — Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Skelton of Jefferson have leased the Walter Meyers turkey brooder in the edge of Turner. They have at present 2900 young turks to care for.

First Half, Summer Quarter Finished

MONMOUTH, July 18 — The first half of the summer quarter at Oregon normal school ended this week, and most of the students and many faculty members have departed from Monmouth for the three-day vacation which began Friday. The training school also closed for the summer.

Day's Routine Is Full For Y Camp

By BOB BUSHNELL
CAMP OCEANSIDE, July 18 — The Y. M. C. A. campers arose Thursday morning at 6:30 and hiked to the creek for their early morning bath. Shortly after they went to chapel for songs and prayers.

Elkins Residents Vote To Install Electricity

MONMOUTH, July 18 — Increased prosperity is evidenced in Elkins, a large farming community southwest of Monmouth, by the vote of its residents this week to construct an electric light line through this section which is bounded by the Luckiamute river. Older residents have been anxious for this improvement for many years. Work on the line will proceed at once.

Club Has Luncheon

DAYTON, July 18 — The Women's club held a benefit dessert 1 o'clock luncheon Thursday on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Londerhausen. The tables were centered with vases of roses and sweetpeas. Games were enjoyed.

Elkins Residents Vote To Install Electricity

MONMOUTH, July 18 — Increased prosperity is evidenced in Elkins, a large farming community southwest of Monmouth, by the vote of its residents this week to construct an electric light line through this section which is bounded by the Luckiamute river. Older residents have been anxious for this improvement for many years. Work on the line will proceed at once.

Club Has Luncheon

DAYTON, July 18 — The Women's club held a benefit dessert 1 o'clock luncheon Thursday on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Londerhausen. The tables were centered with vases of roses and sweetpeas. Games were enjoyed.

Parties Plan Picnics At Silvertown Park

SILVERTON, July 18 — Silvertown is all abuzz politically with two large party picnics planned here for the summer. The first of these will be the democratic picnic to be held at the Silvertown park July 26. Among the speakers will be Gov. Charles H. Martin, W. L. Gosselin and county and state candidates.

Insurance and Real Estate

Becke & Wadsworth
189 N. High Phone 4947

Piles Cured

Without operation or loss of time
DR. MARSHALL
829 Oregon Bldg. Phone 5309

Visit in Kingwood

KINGWOOD, July 18 — Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell and three children of Salt Lake City, where Mitchell is in the jewelry business were Thursday visitors at the Ed Finley home. They lived here a number of years ago.

Grangers' News

CHEMAWA, July 18 — The regular business meeting of Chemawa grange will be held Thursday night, July 23, at 8:00 p. m. in the M. W. A. hall. Mrs. Fannie McCall will preside at the social hour and refreshments will follow.

Tacheron Funeral Held at Monmouth

MONMOUTH, July 18 — Funeral services were held Saturday at the Christian church for Paul Tacheron, 70, city recorder here for the last 12 years. He had been in impaired health for several months. His death occurred suddenly Wednesday, while he was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clay Taylor at the Patton apartments, Salem. He had lunched with the Taylors, long-time friends, and had been in good spirits during the lunch hour. Later he went into the living room to rest, and soon afterward Mrs. Taylor entered the room and found him dead.

City Recorder For 12 Years Dies Suddenly While Visiting Friends

MONMOUTH, July 18 — Funeral services were held Saturday at the Christian church for Paul Tacheron, 70, city recorder here for the last 12 years. He had been in impaired health for several months. His death occurred suddenly Wednesday, while he was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clay Taylor at the Patton apartments, Salem. He had lunched with the Taylors, long-time friends, and had been in good spirits during the lunch hour. Later he went into the living room to rest, and soon afterward Mrs. Taylor entered the room and found him dead.

Jefferson Couple Lease Turk Plant

TURNER, July 18 — Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Skelton of Jefferson have leased the Walter Meyers turkey brooder in the edge of Turner. They have at present 2900 young turks to care for.

First Half, Summer Quarter Finished

MONMOUTH, July 18 — The first half of the summer quarter at Oregon normal school ended this week, and most of the students and many faculty members have departed from Monmouth for the three-day vacation which began Friday. The training school also closed for the summer.

Day's Routine Is Full For Y Camp

By BOB BUSHNELL
CAMP OCEANSIDE, July 18 — The Y. M. C. A. campers arose Thursday morning at 6:30 and hiked to the creek for their early morning bath. Shortly after they went to chapel for songs and prayers.

Elkins Residents Vote To Install Electricity

MONMOUTH, July 18 — Increased prosperity is evidenced in Elkins, a large farming community southwest of Monmouth, by the vote of its residents this week to construct an electric light line through this section which is bounded by the Luckiamute river. Older residents have been anxious for this improvement for many years. Work on the line will proceed at once.

Club Has Luncheon

DAYTON, July 18 — The Women's club held a benefit dessert 1 o'clock luncheon Thursday on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Londerhausen. The tables were centered with vases of roses and sweetpeas. Games were enjoyed.

Parties Plan Picnics At Silvertown Park

SILVERTON, July 18 — Silvertown is all abuzz politically with two large party picnics planned here for the summer. The first of these will be the democratic picnic to be held at the Silvertown park July 26. Among the speakers will be Gov. Charles H. Martin, W. L. Gosselin and county and state candidates.

Insurance and Real Estate

Becke & Wadsworth
189 N. High Phone 4947

Piles Cured

Without operation or loss of time
DR. MARSHALL
829 Oregon Bldg. Phone 5309

Visit in Kingwood

KINGWOOD, July 18 — Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell and three children of Salt Lake City, where Mitchell is in the jewelry business were Thursday visitors at the Ed Finley home. They lived here a number of years ago.

Farmers Save Hay In Spite of Rain

News of Death of Doctor Brewer Shock to Aumsville Residents

AUMSVILLE, July 18 — Haymaking is going ahead in this community after a series of interruptions with rains. An excellent crop has been put up notwithstanding the difficulty experienced in getting it cured.

Tacheron Funeral Held at Monmouth

MONMOUTH, July 18 — Funeral services were held Saturday at the Christian church for Paul Tacheron, 70, city recorder here for the last 12 years. He had been in impaired health for several months. His death occurred suddenly Wednesday, while he was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clay Taylor at the Patton apartments, Salem. He had lunched with the Taylors, long-time friends, and had been in good spirits during the lunch hour. Later he went into the living room to rest, and soon afterward Mrs. Taylor entered the room and found him dead.

City Recorder For 12 Years Dies Suddenly While Visiting Friends

MONMOUTH, July 18 — Funeral services were held Saturday at the Christian church for Paul Tacheron, 70, city recorder here for the last 12 years. He had been in impaired health for several months. His death occurred suddenly Wednesday, while he was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clay Taylor at the Patton apartments, Salem. He had lunched with the Taylors, long-time friends, and had been in good spirits during the lunch hour. Later he went into the living room to rest, and soon afterward Mrs. Taylor entered the room and found him dead.

Jefferson Couple Lease Turk Plant

TURNER, July 18 — Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Skelton of Jefferson have leased the Walter Meyers turkey brooder in the edge of Turner. They have at present 2900 young turks to care for.

First Half, Summer Quarter Finished

MONMOUTH, July 18 — The first half of the summer quarter at Oregon normal school ended this week, and most of the students and many faculty members have departed from Monmouth for the three-day vacation which began Friday. The training school also closed for the summer.

Day's Routine Is Full For Y Camp

By BOB BUSHNELL
CAMP OCEANSIDE, July 18 — The Y. M. C. A. campers arose Thursday morning at 6:30 and hiked to the creek for their early morning bath. Shortly after they went to chapel for songs and prayers.

Elkins Residents Vote To Install Electricity

MONMOUTH, July 18 — Increased prosperity is evidenced in Elkins, a large farming community southwest of Monmouth, by the vote of its residents this week to construct an electric light line through this section which is bounded by the Luckiamute river. Older residents have been anxious for this improvement for many years. Work on the line will proceed at once.

Club Has Luncheon

DAYTON, July 18 — The Women's club held a benefit dessert 1 o'clock luncheon Thursday on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Londerhausen. The tables were centered with vases of roses and sweetpeas. Games were enjoyed.

Parties Plan Picnics At Silvertown Park

SILVERTON, July 18 — Silvertown is all abuzz politically with two large party picnics planned here for the summer. The first of these will be the democratic picnic to be held at the Silvertown park July 26. Among the speakers will be Gov. Charles H. Martin, W. L. Gosselin and county and state candidates.

Insurance and Real Estate

Becke & Wadsworth
189 N. High Phone 4947

Piles Cured

Without operation or loss of time
DR. MARSHALL
829 Oregon Bldg. Phone 5309

Visit in Kingwood

KINGWOOD, July 18 — Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell and three children of Salt Lake City, where Mitchell is in the jewelry business were Thursday visitors at the Ed Finley home. They lived here a number of years ago.

Cut Water Rates To Summer Users

INDEPENDENCE, July 18 — Independence home owners will have the benefit of a new summer water rate which went into effect June 15. William Darling, manager of the Mountain States Power company received word this week from the state utility commissioner, Frank McCulloch, that the summer rate had been approved.

Farmers Save Hay In Spite of Rain

News of Death of Doctor Brewer Shock to Aumsville Residents

AUMSVILLE, July 18 — Haymaking is going ahead in this community after a series of interruptions with rains. An excellent crop has been put up notwithstanding the difficulty experienced in getting it cured.

Tacheron Funeral Held at Monmouth

MONMOUTH, July 18 — Funeral services were held Saturday at the Christian church for Paul Tacheron, 70, city recorder here for the last 12 years. He had been in impaired health for several months. His death occurred suddenly Wednesday, while he was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clay Taylor at the Patton apartments, Salem. He had lunched with the Taylors, long-time friends, and had been in good spirits during the lunch hour. Later he went into the living room to rest, and soon afterward Mrs. Taylor entered the room and found him dead.

City Recorder For 12 Years Dies Suddenly While Visiting Friends

MONMOUTH, July 18 — Funeral services were held Saturday at the Christian church for Paul Tacheron, 70, city recorder here for the last 12 years. He had been in impaired health for several months. His death occurred suddenly Wednesday, while he was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clay Taylor at the Patton apartments, Salem. He had lunched with the Taylors, long-time friends, and had been in good spirits during the lunch hour. Later he went into the living room to rest, and soon afterward Mrs. Taylor entered the room and found him dead.

Jefferson Couple Lease Turk Plant

TURNER, July 18 — Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Skelton of Jefferson have leased the Walter Meyers turkey brooder in the edge of Turner. They have at present 2900 young turks to care for.

First Half, Summer Quarter Finished

MONMOUTH, July 18 — The first half of the summer quarter at Oregon normal school ended this week, and most of the students and many faculty members have departed from Monmouth for the three-day vacation which began Friday. The training school also closed for the summer.

Day's Routine Is Full For Y Camp

By BOB BUSHNELL
CAMP OCEANSIDE, July 18 — The Y. M. C. A. campers arose Thursday morning at 6:30 and hiked to the creek for their early morning bath. Shortly after they went to chapel for songs and prayers.

Elkins Residents Vote To Install Electricity

MONMOUTH, July 18 — Increased prosperity is evidenced in Elkins, a large farming community southwest of Monmouth, by the vote of its residents this week to construct an electric light line through this section which is bounded by the Luckiamute river. Older residents have been anxious for this improvement for many years. Work on the line will proceed at once.

Club Has Luncheon

DAYTON, July 18 — The Women's club held a benefit dessert 1 o'clock luncheon Thursday on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Londerhausen. The tables were centered with vases of roses and sweetpeas. Games were enjoyed.

Parties Plan Picnics At Silvertown Park

SILVERTON, July 18 — Silvertown is all abuzz politically with two large party picnics planned here for the summer. The first of these will be the democratic picnic to be held at the Silvertown park July 26. Among the speakers will be Gov. Charles H. Martin, W. L. Gosselin and county and state candidates.

Insurance and Real Estate

Becke & Wadsworth
189 N. High Phone 4947

Piles Cured

Without operation or loss of time
DR. MARSHALL
829 Oregon Bldg. Phone 5309

Visit in Kingwood

KINGWOOD, July 18 — Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell and three children of Salt Lake City, where Mitchell is in the jewelry business were Thursday visitors at the Ed Finley home. They lived here a number of years ago.

Funeral Today For Dr. Brewer

Stayton Physician Studied Medicine at Willamette, New York, Vienna

STAYTON, July 18 — Funeral services for Dr. C. H. Brewer, who died Thursday, will be held at the Weddie chapel here Sunday at 1:30 p. m. Ex-Congressman W. C. Hawley of Salem will deliver the eulogy. Interment will be at the City View cemetery at Stayton.

Jefferson Couple Lease Turk Plant

TURNER, July 18 — Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Skelton of Jefferson have leased the Walter Meyers turkey brooder in the edge of Turner. They have at present 2900 young turks to care for.

First Half, Summer Quarter Finished

MONMOUTH, July 18 — The first half of the summer quarter at Oregon normal school ended this week, and most of the students and many faculty members have departed from Monmouth for the three-day vacation which began Friday. The training school also closed for the summer.

Day's Routine Is Full For Y Camp

By BOB BUSHNELL
CAMP OCEANSIDE, July 18 — The Y. M. C. A. campers arose Thursday morning at 6:30 and hiked to the creek for their early morning bath. Shortly after they went to chapel for songs and prayers.

Elkins Residents Vote To Install Electricity

MONMOUTH, July 18 — Increased prosperity is evidenced in Elkins, a large farming community southwest of Monmouth, by the vote of its residents this week to construct an electric light line through this section which is bounded by the Luckiamute river. Older residents have been anxious for this improvement for many years. Work on the line will proceed at once.

Club Has Luncheon

DAYTON, July 18 — The Women's club held a benefit dessert 1 o'clock luncheon Thursday on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Londerhausen. The tables were centered with vases of roses and sweetpeas. Games were enjoyed.

Parties Plan Picnics At Silvertown Park

SILVERTON, July 18 — Silvertown is all abuzz politically with two large party picnics planned here for the summer. The first of these will be the democratic picnic to be held at the Silvertown park July 26. Among the speakers will be Gov. Charles H. Martin, W. L. Gosselin and county and state candidates.

Insurance and Real Estate

Becke & Wadsworth
189 N. High Phone 4947

Piles Cured

Without operation or loss of time
DR. MARSHALL
829 Oregon Bldg. Phone 5309

Visit in Kingwood

KINGWOOD, July 18 — Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell and three children of Salt Lake City, where Mitchell is in the jewelry business were Thursday visitors at the Ed Finley home. They lived here a number of years ago.

Put in Machines At Bean Cannery

SILVERTON, July 18 — Workmen and machinists have been busy this week installing a new bean snipper and several other pieces of new machinery at the Silvertown Canning company packing plant here in preparation for the beginning of a day and night shift in the bean harvest next week.

Funeral Today For Dr. Brewer

Stayton Physician Studied Medicine at Willamette, New York, Vienna

STAYTON, July 18 — Funeral services for Dr. C. H. Brewer, who died Thursday, will be held at the Weddie chapel here Sunday at 1:30 p. m. Ex-Congressman W. C. Hawley of Salem will deliver the eulogy. Interment will be at the City View cemetery at Stayton.

Jefferson Couple Lease Turk Plant

TURNER, July 18 — Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Skelton of Jefferson have leased the Walter Meyers turkey brooder in the edge of Turner. They have at present 2900 young turks to care for.

First Half, Summer Quarter Finished

MONMOUTH, July 18 — The first half of the summer quarter at Oregon normal school ended this week, and most of the students and many faculty members have departed from Monmouth for the three-day vacation which began Friday. The training school also closed for the summer.

Day's Routine Is Full For Y Camp

By BOB BUSHNELL
CAMP OCEANSIDE, July 18 — The Y. M. C. A. campers arose Thursday morning at 6:30 and hiked to the creek for their early morning bath. Shortly after they went to chapel for songs and prayers.

Elkins Residents Vote To Install Electricity

MONMOUTH, July 18 — Increased prosperity is evidenced in Elkins, a large farming community southwest of Monmouth, by the vote of its residents this week to construct an electric light line through this section which is bounded by the Luckiamute river. Older residents have been anxious for this improvement for many years. Work on the line will proceed at once.

Club Has Luncheon

DAYTON, July 18 — The Women's club held a benefit dessert 1 o'clock luncheon Thursday on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Londerhausen. The tables were centered with vases of roses and sweetpeas. Games were enjoyed.

Parties Plan Picnics At Silvertown Park

SILVERTON, July 18 — Silvertown is all abuzz politically with two large party picnics planned here for the summer. The first of these will be the democratic picnic to be held at the Silvertown park July 26. Among the speakers will be Gov. Charles H. Martin, W. L. Gosselin and county and state candidates.

Insurance and Real Estate

Becke & Wadsworth
189 N. High Phone 4947

Piles Cured

Without operation or loss of time
DR. MARSHALL
829 Oregon Bldg. Phone 5309

Visit in Kingwood

KINGWOOD, July 18 — Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell and three children of Salt Lake City, where Mitchell is in the jewelry business were Thursday visitors at the Ed Finley home. They lived here a number of years ago.

Churches Plan Union Services

MONMOUTH, July 18 — The Baptist, Christian and Evangelical churches of Monmouth will follow a custom of several years' acceptance, holding union evening services for the summer, starting July 19. An innovation will feature this summer's gatherings, as they will occur in the city park instead of in one of the church buildings.

Funeral Today For Dr. Brewer

Stayton Physician Studied Medicine at Willamette, New York, Vienna

STAYTON, July 18 — Funeral services for Dr. C. H. Brewer, who died Thursday, will be held at the Weddie chapel here Sunday at 1:30 p. m. Ex-Congressman W. C. Hawley