

Smashes Record for Futures as New Heat Wave Awaited

Reports Make Loss Official

Hundred Million Bushels Crop Reduction in Iowa Recorded

CHICAGO, July 22.—(AP)—In a buying stampede late today, corn smashed the season's high price record for July and September contracts, the market skyrocketing 3 1/2 cents a bushel.

Special government forecasts that a new wave of heat would spread in the corn belt tomorrow, with temperatures up to 103 degrees, led to rushes to purchase corn futures on a big scale. Adding to the market effect of the forecasts of a return to abnormal heat and of no important relief from drought, official reports at hand, too, of a big irreparable damage already done to the corn crop, with Iowa alone showing 100,000,000 to 140,000,000 bushels loss, mostly in the current week.

Late soaring of corn values followed a period of transient weakness caused by heavy speculative selling of wheat that temporarily tumbled wheat and corn both down more than two cents.

Corn closed strong at nearly the day's top point, 1 cent to 3 1/2 cents above yesterday's finish, July 92 1/2, September 90 1/2 to 91 1/2, December 82 5/8 to 7/8, wheat 1/4 to 1/2 up, July 104 1/2, September 104 to 104 1/2, December 104 1/2 to 1/4.

In provisions, the results varied from 7 cents setback to an equal gain. Provisions fluctuated greatly in line with corn.
