Mickey Mouse Club Notes

HI HO everybody; another Saturday and another great big Mickey Mouse club matinee with lots of fun and a great big time for everybody.

I guess I'll rave about my vacation for awhile before I tell you anything more about the show.

San Francisco was too big a place for me so went to Seattle so I wouldn't get lost. Great town, Seattle; lots of lakes to swim in, plenty of sunshine and lots of big boats to look at. But after all, I like Salem, I like it very much. I like the way it's laid out. I don't know how long it's been dead, but I still like the way it's laid out.

I hope all the rest of you kids have as good a time on your vacations as I had on mine.

M. M. C.

ON last week's show we had a Joe E. Brown yell contest which turned out to be a bigger success than we expected. In fact it was such a big success that we are planning several more contests on the same order.

M. M. C.

WE had several clever entertainers, too. Among them were the McClintock Twins, Darlene Gardner and Donald Farnum, Flora Jane Johnson, Jay Toed, Raymond Ramseyer and Herman Domogolla with his accordion.

As you know, the McClintock twins and Flora Jane Johnson are from Barbara Barnes' School of Dancing. Darlene Gardner, Donald Farnum and Raymond Ramseyer are students of Ed Cheney. Herman Domogolla is a teacher of the accordion, and he is starting an accordion club here at the Elsinore, so if any of you kids would like to learn to play the accordion just come down and see Herman and he'll give you all the information you want.

M. M. C.

ON this week's show we have another bunch of swell entertainers. We have Arline Hinkle, a pupil of Barbara Barnes, doing a song and dance. Donald Lewis, another pupil of Barbara Barnes, will do a swell tap dance. Patsy Cannon, a student of Ed Cheney, will offer a very clever song and dance act. We expected to have Jeanette Armstrong sing for us, but she has a very bad cold and will not be able to sing. Betty and I have been working hard on a new routine and today we will see whether you like it or not.

Oh, yes, I almost forgot, Betty Ford, one of our old favorites has just come down from Portland and she said that she would come and sing a song for us.

M. M. C.

ON the screen we will have chapter two of "The Phantom Rider" and the special feature will be Dick Foran and Alma Lloyd in "Song of the Saddle."

M. M. C.

Knock, knock. Who's there? Minnie. Minnie who? Minnie happy returns of the day and I'll see you all later.

M. M. C.

Your old pal HAL
