Shirley Temple's Life Threatened

Nebraska Farm Boy Taken Into Custody; Letter Demands $25,000

LOS ANGELES, July 31.—(AP)—Department of justice agents announced here today the arrest in Grant, Nebr., of Sterling Walrod Powell, 16, farm boy, on a charge of attempting to extort $25,000 from the father of Shirley Temple, child film actress. Powell sent a letter threatening Shirley's life, agents said.

Federal officials said the youth admitted writing the letter which read:

"Unless $25,000 is dropped from an airplane near Brant, Nebr., on May 15, the life of Shirley Temple will be endangered."

Agents quoted George Temple, Shirley's father, as saying the letter apparently was lost in her fan mail and was not opened until May 18, three days after the specified deadline.

EUREKA, Calif., July 31.—(AP)—Shirley Temple played checkers with a new girl friend in a hotel lobby here tonight, unaware that a Nebraska farm boy had threatened her life in an attempt to extort $25,000 from her father.

Shirley is on a vacation trip with her mother and father, George F. Temple, to whom 16-year-old Sterling Walrod Powell, of Grant, Nebr., addressed an extortion letter.

W. M. Bishop, secretary to Mr. Temple, said the child actress had not been told of the threat and that her parents did not take the letter seriously.

"I wouldn't even call it a crank note," Bishop said, speaking for Shirley's father. "It was just a silly action by some youngster who had read about some of these extortions and kidnapings and wrote the note on an impulse to act out a part."

Martin to Greet Visiting Sailors

Governor Charles H. Martin left Friday on a two-day trip to the coast. At Tillamook he will participate in a beach celebration. Traveling on down the coast he will spend Saturday in Marshfield where he will speak at the dedication of the new postoffice.

After returning to Salem the governor will go to Portland for Tuesday morning where he will officially welcome the ranking officers of the United States fleet on their visit to Portland.

The governor will receive Vice Admiral Talrant at the Portland hotel in the morning and in the afternoon he will return the visit, calling on the vice admiral at his flagship, the U. S. S. Houston which was the vessel on which President Roosevelt was a passenger when he came to Portland two years ago.

Men Released as Case Is Unsolved

PORTLAND, July 30.—(AP)—Captain of Detectives John J. Keegan ordered the release of William Rea and Fay B. Wise today and commented that "all in all we haven't anything to work on" in connection with solving the strangulation death of Mrs. Ada Haskins, 49.

The woman's body, a wire around the neck, was found in a park here Sunday. Rea and Wise were questioned when a photograph was found showing them with Mrs. Haskins. They established alibis.

Police have not determined whether the woman took her own life or was killed.
