

Cake, Ice Cream Always Popular

As Party Refreshment at Any Season; Sundae Recipe Offered

Frits may come and go, but it is still hard to beat ice cream and cake as a party refreshment. The cake may be fairly simple especially if the ice cream is disguised as a sundae. Buy plain angel foods and frost them to suit yourself if you don't like to bake.

Sundae Sauce
2 squares chocolate
1 cup cold water
1 1/2 cups sugar
2 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoonful vanilla
1/2 cup white karo
1 teaspoon mint essence
Cut chocolate into 5 or 6 pieces and stir over direct heat with water until smooth and thick. Add sugar, karo and pinch of salt and stir until dissolved. Boil 3 minutes, add butter, vanilla and mint flavoring and serve on ice cream.

Date Ice Cream
1 cup milk, scalded
1/2 cup sugar
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons lemon juice
2 eggs
1 pkg. pasteurized dates
1 cup orange juice
1 qt. thin cream
Mix flour, sugar and salt; add scalded milk, gradually, stirring until smooth paste is formed. Cook over hot water until mixture thickens, stirring constantly. Pour mixture over slightly beaten eggs; cook over hot water for one minute. Strain; add finely cut dates, and cream and cook. Add strained fruit juice and freeze. Serves 12.

Sombrero Salad Is Popular Now

The largest of the 150 state-wide celebrations being held in Texas to commemorate the 100th anniversary of Texas freedom is the central exposition, on in Dallas. In honor of this big show sombrero salad has been created.

Sombrero
2 1/2 cups cooked rice
6 slices pineapple
1/2 cup fruit juice
1/2 cup fresh mint, chopped
Whipped cream
Mayonnaise
Lettuce
Green pepper strips
Marinate rice with fruit juice to which has been added the chopped mint. Mold rice into cones about 2 inches in diameter. Place a cone on each slice of pineapple and arrange a strip of green pepper around base to represent a hat band. Serve on crisp lettuce with whipped cream mayonnaise.

Onion Crop Is Damaged About Two-Thirds Says Official at Walla Walla

WALLA WALLA, July 29.—(AP)—District Horticulturist Ray Kelso today said Walla Walla valley growers will be lucky if they harvest one-third their normal onion crop this year, with 65 per cent of the crop being damaged beyond salvage.

The late freeze and increased wireworm activity were blamed for the decreased yield. The harvest will not exceed 250 carloads, compared with the normal 750, Kelso said.

Daughter Born

Styles of Yesteryear Mark New Formals

Josephine Hutchinson

Glenda Farrell

Mideason evening frocks for dining and dancing are going in for lighter colored materials this summer, but the styling is still reminiscent of our grandmother's day. Josephine Hutchinson is modeling a gorgeous number, a formal redingote of flower splashed organza worn over a black taffeta foundation. Its bouffant lines are accentuated by fringe edged ruffles. Use of a rich looking and lovely fabric for an evening gown of simplicity is illustrated by the model worn by Glenda Farrell. It is of heavy white French crepe splashed with a smart and beautiful flower motif. June Travis is quite aware of the importance of looking crisp and cool in hot weather. Her bouffant white marganna has diminutive sleeves, a pointed collar and artificial flowers at the waist.

One Hot Meal Daily Is Advised Even For Hot Weather; Corn Is Abundant, Methods of Serving Prove Numerous

By JANE STUART
It is a temptation during warm weather to forget about the stove and serve only cold food. This can be overcome, however, and hot food of some sort should be served at least once a day.

Fresh corn is abundant now and aside from the traditional corn on the cob method of eating, try some of the following ideas sent in by Salem housewives:

Corn-Tomato Toast
1 tablespoon butter
2 cups grated cheese
1/2 cups canned or grated corn from the cob
1 ripe pimiento
1/2 cup tomato puree
2 egg yolks
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1 clove of garlic
4 slices of bread
Into the melted butter stir the cheese until it, too, is melted. Then add the corn and pimiento, stir for a moment; then add egg yolks beaten and mixed with the tomato sauce, salt and paprika. Have ready the bread toasted on one side and very lightly rubbed on its toasted side with the garlic cut in two. Stir the mixture until the eggs are cooked and pour over the untoasted side of the bread. Serve at once.

Corn Fritters With Chicken
1 cup flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1 cup cooked corn, cut from cob, or
1 cup canned corn, well drained
1 egg
1/2 cup milk
Sift dry ingredients together. Mix in corn. Add beaten egg and milk to make a stiff batter. Drop by large spoonfuls onto hot greased griddle or heavy skillet and bake, browning on both sides. Arrange on hot serving platter and pour creamed-chicken over each fritter. If chicken gravy is used, make fritters slightly larger and thinner and place three for a serving. Four gravy over all. This recipe serves 4-6.

Coron-Tomato Toast
1 cup of canned corn
1 cup bread crumbs
1/2 cup chopped cooked carrots
2 eggs, beaten
Salt and pepper to taste
Mix all together in order named, saving out one tablespoon of butter. Shape into a loaf in a baking dish, brush over the top with the remaining butter and bake for 25 minutes in a slow oven. Serve with white sauce. Serves six.

Birth Day Dinner Held At Grandmother's Home
RIVERVIEW, July 30.—A birthday dinner in honor of Loretta Bartnik was given Sunday at the home of her grandmother, Lora Platt. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Daise Boshart, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elmore, Independence; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ambrosek, Everett, George, Kathleen and Gordon and the hostess, Mrs. Platt.

Mrs. Maurice Hooff of Portland is spending the week visiting with her sister Mrs. Joe Prokop. Mrs. Hooff has just returned from a trip to Kansas.

Arthur Schroeder Funeral Is Sunday

Salt Creek Boy Dies After Striking Head on Rock While Diving

SALT CREEK, July 30.—Arthur Schroeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Schroeder of here, died at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland Tuesday night as a result of a head injury which he received while swimming at a picnic at Rickreall Saturday afternoon.

He was taking the last dive before going home when he struck a rock with his head, paralyzing his whole body. He was rushed to the Dallas hospital. From there he was taken to Portland, and a specialist operated. He found he had broken his neck.

He was born here at the home place January 26, 1914, and has lived here all his life. He is survived by his father and mother, four brothers, Harold, Alfred, Bernard and Robert Schroeder, and three sisters, Mrs. Joe Dodge, Thelma and Esther Schroeder, all who live near here.

Funeral services will be held at the Salt Creek Baptist church

Sunday afternoon at 3:30 with Rev. G. Neumann in charge.

Free Boxing Bout Will Be Features of Picnic

GERVAIS, July 30.—Father William S. Walsh announces that in connection with the fifth annual picnic and chicken dinner to be held by Sacred Heart parish at the Keppler grove next Sunday there will be two free boxing bouts during the afternoon.

Kenneth Lutz, 165, of the Multnomah club will meet Homer LaBarre, 165, of the Kenton Athletic club and Joe Bonn, 162, of Gervais, will box with Bob Tracy, 160, of the C.Y.O. of Portland. Dinner will be served from 12 noon, to 2:30 and there will be music by the 24-piece Mt. Angel band. Amusements and refreshments will be provided for those who attend, during the entire afternoon.

Represents Church

RICKEY, July 30.—Miss Hazel Magee has returned from Hillockburn where she went as a delegate to the Oregon Congregational young people's conference from the Knight Memorial Congregational church. Miss Mary Elizabeth Ross of Salem was also a delegate.
