Reception Tonight For Talented Musicians

TONIGHT three prominent young Salem musicians will be greeted with a reception at the home of Mrs. J. P. Frizzell, 245 N. Sumner, from 8 to 10 o'clock.

They are Miss Jeannette Scott, Miss Elizabeth Clement and Miss Thelma Davis. All have been studying in the east and are spending the summer with their parents. Friends are invited through the press to call.

The hostess group is the Presbyterian Ladies Aid society with Mrs. N. C. Roberts and Mrs. J. J. Nunn in general charge. Mrs. J. M. Johnson and Mrs. Clara Roales are planning the decorations and Mrs. Ronald Frizzell will pour.

Jason Lee Has Social Planned Tonight

The Jason Lee church is sponsoring a series of evening socials during the summer months at the homes of some of its members. The primary purpose of the socials is to provide an opportunity for the members and friends of the church to become better acquainted.

The first social is to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Mann on Fairview Road just beyond the Fairground, tonight beginning at 7:30 p. m. All the members and friends of the church together with the neighbors and friends near the Mann's residence are invited to be present. The Jason Lee Ladies aid will serve refreshments.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
So you're going to make a frock? Perhaps several frocks—for Anne Adams knows that when you see how simply the five pieces of this easy pattern combine to form a crisp "at home" style, you'll surely want to run it up in several colors and fabrics. Send for the pattern, beginners—and learn how much fun it is to cut and stitch this model! You'll love the way crisp ruffles trim the useful pocket and accent the jaunty cut of the simple bodice—and there's a world of comfort and chic in those slashed cape sleeves and adjustable sash. For fabric, choose dimity, percale, or bright gingham.

Pattern 4958 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 2 1/2 yards 26 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for 15c Anne Adams pattern. White plastic name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

Be sure to order your copy of our Anne Adams Pattern Book! See all the cool, lovely clothes you need for summer fun—pictured in smart, simple models that are even fun to make! Busy house dresses and play outfits. Flattering frocks for parties. The latest slouching designs for street. Practical models for children. Advice on fabrics and sewing. Book fifteen cents. Pattern fifteen cents. Ten to fifteen cents for both when ordered together.

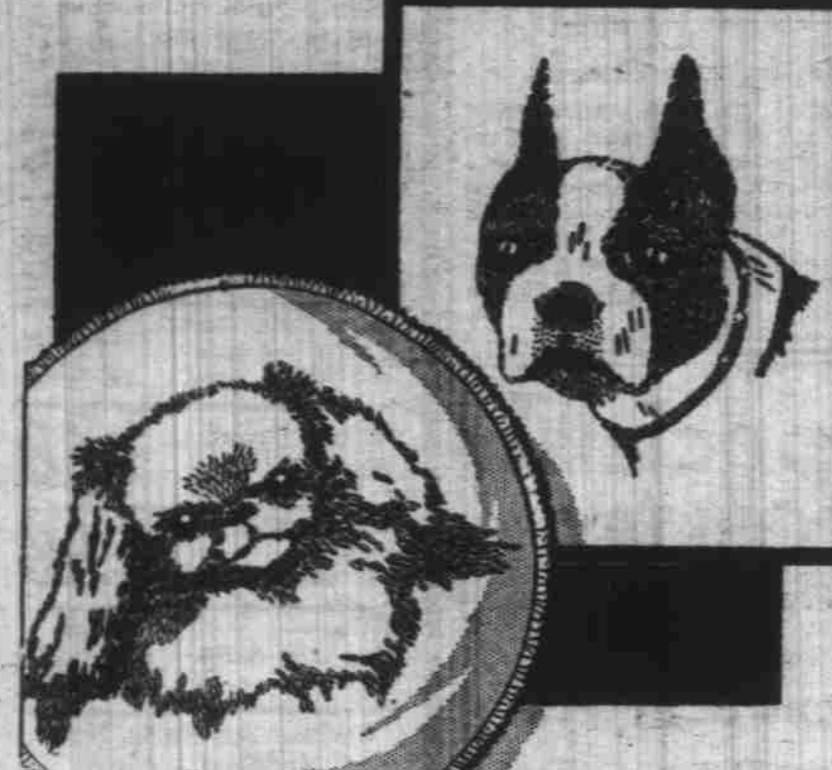

Address orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 215 South Commercial Street, Salem, Ore. Make necessary enclosure. Your order will be promptly attended to. Orders containing money are filled within four days from time received by The Statesman.

Silverton Teachers are Back from Hawaii

Silverton—The island of Oahu is an ideal place to spend a summer vacation, according to Miss Muriel Benson, Silverton teacher who just returned this week from six weeks spent in an apartment on Waikiki Beach. Accompanying Miss Benson to the Hawaiian Islands for the vacation was Miss Ruth Vance, also a Silverton teacher who is now at her home at Corvallis.

Miss Benson reports that they spent most of their time on the beach, but that they did take time to visit pineapple, cane sugar and other interesting fields. The color and flowers of the islands impressed them the most, she said. They made a trip out to see the night blooming cereus and caught it at its best. Gardenias, Miss Benson said, were everywhere and long leis of them could be purchased for a quarter.

Among Silverton-known people, whom the two met, were Maurice Winters, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Winters of Silverton, who has a summer engagement with an orchestra playing at the Alexander Young hotel, and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Briggs. Mr. Briggs is a nephew of Mrs. J. C. Schlador of Silverton. He is now with the Retail credit association there. Mrs. Briggs is physical director of the Y. W. C. A. at Honolulu.

On their return to the two visited with Miss Faye Benson, now of Los Angeles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Benson of Silverton, and Mrs. Willard Jensen of Berkeley, sister of Miss Vance.

Miss Vance, who was injured on the way over when she fell down a stairway, is recovering nicely. Miss Benson reports, Miss Vance will not return to Silverton but will teach at Roseburg this next term.

Gervais—Mrs. William Sporalak of Gervais with her sister, Mrs. A. C. Gervais of Amity, arranged a surprise dinner and family reunion for their parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Armstrong, to honor the latter's 50th wedding anniversary. The dinner was given at the Gleay home at Amity Sunday with seven of the eight sons and daughters with their families present.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong are former residents of Gervais and where they still own the city property now occupied by the Sporalaks.

Dallas—Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding and daughter, Doris, returned Sunday night after spending a week visiting Oregon lakes and noted beauty spots of the state.

Miss Jordan Will Become Bride August 12

MISS IONE JORDAN, who departs this weekend for her home in Enterprise where she will be married to Robert Taylor August 12, was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower last night. Miss Libby Johnson and Miss Johnny Spivey were joint hostesses. The evening was spent with handwork on dish towels for the bride-elect. Gladiali were used about the rooms. Supper was served.

Bidden by the two hostesses to compliment Miss Jordan were Miss Edith Libby, Miss Aileen Phillips, Miss Lucille Selfner, Miss Thelma Snyder, Miss Dorothy Howell, Miss Marion Wood, Miss Louise Webber, Mrs. Ruth Minnigh, Mrs. Donald Poole and Mrs. Nota Henderson.

Miss Hanson Honored With Shower

Miss Pauline Routh and Miss Gwen Hunt were joint hostesses last night for a smartly arranged miscellaneous shower complimenting Miss Gladys Hanson, bride-elect of Arthur Smith. Peach gladiali provided the floral motif to the affair.

Mrs. Ostlund Hostess To Michigan Guests

Mrs. Herbert Ostlund has as her guests her brother, Prof. John M. Mellica, Mrs. Mellica and sons, Lawrence and Billy, of Detroit, Mich.

Midland College Choir To Sing August 6

On Thursday night, August 6, the Midland college A Capella choir will render a concert at the American Lutheran church. This will be their first appearance in Salem, but the choir has built up a great reputation in the middle west where the college is located, at Fremont, Nebraska.

The choir is composed of about 70 mature voices, divided into eight parts. Prof. Paul Petrie of Oregon State college, himself famed as a director of choirs, paid the choir this tribute: "The Midland choir is one of the finest singing organizations I have ever heard. It is phenomenal that you can accomplish so much."

The choir has the record of being invited to return to give concerts in every city in which it has appeared. Oscar Lyders is the director. A number of talented soloists accompany the choir.

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brachmann, are announcing the marriage of their son, Arthur G. Brachmann, to Miss Maxine F. Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Thompson of Forest Grove, the wedding having taken place July 19 at the home of the bride's parents.

Dr. O. H. Holmes of College Way officiated at the ceremony. Attendants were Miss LaVaun Gardner of Salem, maid of honor, and Miss Yolanda Greenhaw of Salem and Miss Frances Carnahan of Portland, bridesmaids.

Peter Brachmann, brother of the groom acted as best man. After a reception held in the garden of the bride's home the young couple left for a two weeks' trip through Washington and Idaho.

Mrs. Brachmann is a graduate of Forest Grove high school and attended Oregon Normal. Mr. Brachmann graduated with the class of 1928 from Woodburn high school, is a graduate of Pacific university and has been an assistant coach in athletics there for the past two years. He is a member of the Blue Key honorary society and Alpha Zeta fraternity.

Scotts Mills—Mrs. Marion Groshong entertained at her home here Saturday night with a surprise party in honor of her husband's birthday. Cards were played after which lunch was served.

Reunion Takes Place at DeGuire Residence

A reunion of interest took place this week at the home of Mrs. Henry DeGuire of route 5 where Mrs. DeGuire's sisters, Mrs. Richard Reno of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. George Brock of Dallas, visited her. It is the first time the three sisters, now all past 70, have been together in 48 years.

As Rose, Jeanie and Annie Pariah they came to Oregon 85 years ago and attended the old Philomath college during the '70's. The family resided in Fossil a number of years and have a wide acquaintance in Oregon.
