Jones Given 3 Year Sentence

Ex-Convict Reported to Have Issued $1500 in Bad Checks Here

Robert Earl Jones, ex-convict, was sentenced to a maximum of three years in the state penitentiary after entering a plea of guilty to a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses before Judge L. H. McMahan yesterday. Jones was returned to Salem yesterday afternoon by Sheriff A. C. Burk and District Attorney W. H. Trindle by airplane from Seattle where he had been arrested on a bad check charge. He is reported to have issued more than $1500 worth of bad checks in the northwest of which at least $1000 was in Marion county. Jones was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary from Clackamas county in 1925 after pleading guilty to an involuntary manslaughter charge following the death of his stepmother in a dynamite house. He stated to the court that he had written the bad paper to obtain money to pay friends who had contributed to his defense in that case. He was originally indicted for murder but after two trials, pleaded guilty to the lighter charge.

In entering his plea yesterday, Jones waived preliminary hearing and grand jury indictment. Original complaint against the man was filed in justice court here in December 1935 by Frank Schackman. Practically all of the checks were for $16.50.
