

Shaddock Hurls Accusations at Nelson at Townsend Meeting

Huge Audience Hears Address

2500 Attend Event Sunday in Silverton Park; Chorus Sings

SILVERTON, Aug. 3.—That Theodore Nelson is partly responsible for the starving babies in the country, was the accusation hurled by Dr. Ralph I. Shaddock in his talk here Sunday afternoon when 2500 listeners sat through four hours of talk and song service in the Silverton park at the district Townsend meeting.

"If Theodore Nelson and I fight," said Shaddock, "it means a delay in Townsend plans and babies in America will continue to starve."

Dr. Shaddock urged those who did not like the Townsend meetings to leave them alone. I. B. Alfred, president of the Silverton group, introduced Dr. Shaddock, who was master of ceremonies during the afternoon.

Sing Mahoney Song
Singing a Mahoney election song, interspersed talks, and singing of old-time songs, lead by Dr. H. C. Epley, drew many of the other picnicers in the park to the Townsend group.

Other speakers included Elbert Eastman of Portland; Arthur Moore of Monmouth and Judge J. R. Jeffrey.

Dr. Epley also spoke briefly urging all people within the Townsend ranks to stick together.

"There is a class of people," he said, "with their ranks who we have to reconvert."

Dr. Epley's chorus from Salem also gave a group of numbers, and the Silverton 4-L band, directed by Joe Hassenstab, gave a short concert preceding the opening of the meeting.

Grangers' Column

CHEMAWA, Aug. 3.—Fifty members and friends of Chemawa grange met in the Dallas community park Sunday for the annual picnic. Following dinner a gift and flowers were presented by the grange to Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Johnson, the occasion being their 45th wedding anniversary. Swimming and visiting occupied the afternoon.

On Wednesday of this week the Home Economics club will meet with Mrs. Anna Claggett for an all day meeting. Plans will be made for a bazaar to be held in connection with the pair in October.

The last regular business session of the Chemawa grange was held Thursday night with a good attendance present. C. A. Ratcliff was the speaker and discussed the pruned outlook which is an important crop in the Keizer district. He said in view of the short crop in California and the tonnage that has already been disposed of which is ordinarily carried over, there is no reason why prunes should not bring a good price this fall. The foreign market has been growing steadily stronger during the past season. In addition to Mr. Ratcliff's talk, McCall presented a program which consisted of roll call "What I Like Best on the Farm," readings by Mrs. Wm. Blake, Mrs. W. E. Savage, Mrs. Lauretta Stettler and Mrs. C. B. Johnson.

ROBERTS, Aug. 3.—The Roberts grange held a picnic at Silver Falls state park Sunday. A bountiful basket dinner was served at 1 o'clock.

Former Wisconsin Man Finds Weather Reports Are Not Exaggerated
SILVERTON, Aug. 3.—William Dudenhofer, who recently came to Silverton from Eau Claire, Wis., has found that Oregon newspapers do not exaggerate. During the recently warm spell in the Midwest, Dudenhofer, reading an Oregon newspaper declared that this was grossly exaggerated. Wisconsin never became so uncomfortably hot. He clipped the piece and sent back to friends in Wisconsin. Shortly he received in return, clippings and information from his former home that it was two degrees warmer there than the Oregon paper had shown.

"I think I am going to like Oregon," he said. Mr. Dudenhofer has now purchased the DeJardin place above Scotts Mills.

Refreshments followed in charge of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Savage and Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Stettler.

The next social meeting will be held August 13 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bowden. Ice cream and cake will be served.

LIBERTY, Aug. 1.—The Red Hills grange home economics club is called to meet Tuesday, August 4, in the new hall. All grange women are to be there at 11 a. m. with basket lunch and potluck will be prepared for the grange men who will be working on the grange building getting it in readiness for the next regular grange meeting.

The first tasks the men will undertake will be putting a new front in the building to replace the plate glass store windows, which have been removed and to fix up the kitchen.

The building was recently purchased and will be completely renovated for grange hall use.

Parole Policy Isn't Changed

Release at End Minimum Term Still Possible, Governor Asserts

The recent opinion of Attorney General VanWinkle, upheld by Circuit Judges L. H. McMahan and Arlie Walker has not barred convicts from release from the state penitentiary at the expiration of their minimum terms under the Oregon indeterminate sentence law. This was announced by Governor Martin Monday in commenting on Friday's riots at the prison.

"Since the recent interpretation of the indeterminate sentence law I have proceeded as previously in pardoning and paroling prisoners recommended by the penitentiary warden and state parole board," Governor Martin said.

Governor Martin declared that members of the parole board and other officials had devoted countless hours investigating penitentiary inmates with a view of helping them through release. In many of these cases the convicts were found worthy of consideration and either were paroled or pardoned, the executive said.

"You may inform the public," Governor Martin continued, "that I do not intend to return to society men who have failed to show any evidence of reformation. These convicts naturally would renew a life of crime."

Governor Martin estimated that it costs the taxpayers an average of $5000 to arrest and convict a person charged with a criminal offense.

"It is rather remarkable," Governor Martin said, "that as far as investigations have disclosed, not one of the convicts actively engaged in Friday's rioting was involved in the Walker decision. The leaders were professional trouble-makers and bad eggs."

The governor said the state was to be congratulated upon having James Lewis as warden of the penitentiary. He also praised the prison personnel and state police.

Officers elected were president, H. P. Grant; vice president, John Whitehead; secretary, Mrs. Hatlie Busick; treasurer, C. B. Gillis, all of Salem. Prizes were also given to Mrs. C. H. ## Police Matron Is Topic, Silverton

New Office May Be Voted By Council; Purifying of Pool Discussed

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Caused by Tired Kidneys

Many of those suffering, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved by treatment in the right way. The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking acids and wastes out of the blood. A healthy person should pass about 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 5 pounds of waste matter.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, this waste stays in the body and may become poisonous. It may start nagging backaches, leg pains, loss of sleep, and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't let it lay you up. The most dramatic for Don's Pills—used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help to keep out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get Don's Pills.

Landon Strong in East, Discovered

Much Sentiment For GOP Nominee Is Found by Kletzing on Trip

Among the 3800 Lions club members who attended the international convention of that organization at Providence, R. I., Landon sentiment was almost the only kind encountered in political discussion, reports Ralph Kletzing, who attended as district governor-elect and a delegate of the Salem den. He and Mrs. Kletzing returned last weekend.

Dr. Daniel T. Schulze, president of the Salem club, also attended as a delegate.

Aside from a few southern democrats—and even they were not unanimous in favoring President Roosevelt—Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas was the choice of everybody with whom Mr. Kletzing talked at Providence, he said. Sentiment observed elsewhere in the east during his travels was of a similar trend.

The convention, July 21 to 24, was the largest ever held by the Lions organization, the Salem club said. There were over 10,000 persons in the parade which was a highlight of the convention. Next year's meeting will be in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Kletzing who were married just before their departure on the trip east, drove 7113 miles while away, going from Salem to Chicago in four days. They encountered the heat wave at its worst in Iowa where temperatures ranged from 105 to 112, and only a little cooler when they passed through the same territory on the way back. They visited Niagara Falls and drove through Springfield, Mass., on their way to Providence. On the return trip they visited New York City and inspected the Empire State building and Radio City.

In some parts of the corn belt the crop looked good but was said to be badly in need of moisture; in western Iowa and eastern Nebraska, it had shriveled and was being cut for forage.

On the trip Mr. Kletzing's car averaged 18.2 miles per gallon of gasoline.
