United Brethren Elect Officials

Conference Votes to Ask Return of Pastor, Rev. R. C. Mann

The Englewood United Brethren church held its fourth quarterly conference Wednesday August 12, at the home of Rev. F. G. Roscoe, of Portland, the conference superintendent, presided. The reports of the various societies revealed a year of growth and achievement. Outstanding in church activity, was the completion of the new junior department with assembly room and class rooms for all grades. This was almost a necessity because of the growth in the Children's division of the Sunday school. A special dedication service will be held, August 23.

The quarterly conference voted unanimously to request the Annual Conference to return the pastor, Rev. R. C. Mann, for the coming year. The annual conference will be held in the Englewood church August 25 to 30th.

The following officers have been elected to serve the local church during the coming year: Secretary of the official board, Mrs. Anna Wolcott; secretary of the quarterly conference, Mrs. Blanche Welch; class leader, William Dunnigan; Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. Anna Wolcott; financial secretary, William Fester; church treasurer, Ed. Olson; Stewards, J. C. Hill, William McKinney, William O. Hamel, J. S. Casteel, G. G. Looney.

Ushers, William O. Hamel, William McKinney, William Petro, Fred Domagala, Ed Olson, Musical committee, Mrs. N. V. Lowery, Mrs. E. A. Bradford, R. S. Casteel, Mrs. R. C. Mann.

Director of the adult division of Christian education, Mrs. Ed Olson.

Director of the young peoples division of Christian education, Mrs. Helen Johnstead.

Director of the children's division of Christian education, Mrs. N. V. Lowery.

Delegates to the annual conference, William O. Hamel and Mrs. Anna Wolcott.

Baptist Pastor Plans Vacation

Sunday will be the last opportunity of hearing Rev. Arno G. Weniger, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, before he leaves on his vacation which will take him into a number of the Middle West where he expects to visit with relatives and fill several conference engagements.

During his month's absence, the pulpit of the Calvary church will be supplied by Rev. Walter Keith Peggs, pastor of the First Baptist church of Huntington Park, California, and Rev. Frank Standard, a retired Baptist minister resident in Salem and a member of the Calvary church.

Mr. Weniger has been invited by Dr. J. B. Kelly, pastor of the First Baptist church in the Northern Baptist convention to speak at a Bible conference held at Medicine Lake in Minnesota.
