 The fifth brought another when Moye singled to score Selgum after he had walked and gone to second on a wild pitch.
 The Paper Mill, after scoring one in the first when Harriman raced in on an outfield error, didn't do anything until the sixth.

French popped out to Serdotz to end the rally, and from then on it was dog eat dog.

 ed attempt to show the physicians conspired with the girl's mother, Mrs. Maryon Cooper Hewitt, against the heiress to the large fortune of Peter Cooper Hewitt, inventor.
 Counsel for the physicians in turn charged the criminal proceedings were a part of alleged plot to "extort" large sums of money from Mrs. Hewitt.
 Tillman and Boyd wept as they heard Judge Tuttle's decision. There was no comment from Miss Hewitt.
 Judge Tuttle's ruling took the case out of the hands of a jury who had heard the petite Miss Hewitt testify she was duped into submitting to the operation before she became of age.
 Defense attorney J. M. Golden, who attacked the charges as a part of an extortion plot, said the dismissal was "a complete vindication."

Refund to Lumber Shippers Refused

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—(AP)—The interstate commerce commission today ordered cancellation of proposed transit arrangements on carload shipments of lumber from far west points to transit points in western trunkline territory east of the Illinois-Indiana state line.
 The railroad proposed to make refunds to transit operators in amounts based on the average annual loss or wastage in weight resulting from the manufacture of lumber at transit points into sash, doors, frames and other building materials.
 The commission held the proposed arrangement was not justified. The refund arrangement would have applied to shipments from California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Utah, Montana, Alberta and British Columbia.

European War Fear on Wane

Madrid Assault Looming; Aerial Attacks Upon 2 Cities Continue properly, well-informed sources in Berlin said, adding to the European ramifications of the Spanish strife.

 Madrid braced its defenses last night against an assault for which rebel headquarters at Burgos speeded plans.
 The government organized a "rear guard" as fascists prowled the Guadarrama mountains along the lofty passes where the loyalists have flung out their defenders. It appealed to the women to prepare bandages, munitions and other war necessities against a "serious, long war."
 The government claimed a victory over the fascists at the walled city of Avila, about 60 miles west of the capital. It said 500 rebels were killed or captured and six big guns were seized.
 Loyalist sources claimed capture of a gunpowder factory near Granada, in the south.
 Planes Renew Attack Against Two Cities
 Rebel planes renewed the onslaught against San Sebastian and Irun, Bay of Biscay cities in the north.
 Three persons were killed and seven wounded over bombing of San Sebastian by three fascist planes while the rebel battleship Espana fired six shells into the war-weary city without apparent casualties.
 Loyalist leaders of the beleaguered city conceded its morale was near the breaking point after four weeks during which the inhabitants have ventured from cellars only for food and water.
 Terrified loyalists feared Irun's streets would be turned into a battle field at any moment. Rebel forces battered their way in bloody hand-to-hand fighting within rifle shot of its gates.
 They were stopped by machine gun fire from a heavy barrage from a government torpedo boat.

 Longshoremen, teamsters, marine workers and members of other unions joined the picket line and the printers, pressmen and mailers contended they could not get past the lines.
 Post-Intelligencer executives have asserted the members of these three unions were prevented by "intimidation" from going to work as required by their contracts which contained a clause prohibiting sympathetic strikes.
 Officials of the Seattle branches of the union said their men would work any time they could safely pass the picket lines.

Tariff on Brazil Products Sought

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—(AP)—A plea to Secretary Hull to act "at the earliest possible time" to restrict duty-free imports of balsa wood and oil from Brazil and other countries was made public today by A. M. Loomis, secretary of the National Dairy union.
 The oil-bearing nuts come from a common tropical palm tree which grows in Brazil and elsewhere.
 Imports were put on the free list in the reciprocal trade treaty negotiated last year with Brazil, and Loomis said the provision was "more potentially dangerous to the dairy industry" than any item in any of the new treaties.

Olson's Condition Reported Serious

ROCHESTER, Minn., Aug. 19.—(AP)—The first official announcement of the seriousness of Gov. Floyd B. Olson's condition was made tonight in a statement signed by three Mayo clinic physicians.
 "The governor's condition is very serious, indeed. What the outcome will be, we cannot know," said the physicians.
 The statement came three hours after a bulletin asserting that the physicians encountered difficulty in giving him adequate nourishment.
 Olson had signs of dehydration which has been resorted to since he was flown in a chartered airplane from his Gull lake home Monday night.

 Griffith expressed hope that the rescuers could reach the entombed men "some time tomorrow morning."
 He said there was no fire in the upper part of the main shaft—but there might be down below.
 Around the head of the main shaft 2,500 to 3,000 persons milled. Broadcasting apparatus and sound trucks gave it the air of a political spectacle, but waiting ambulances furnished a grim touch.

HOENEFOS, Norway, Aug. 19.—(AP)—Leon Trotsky, whose alleged followers are on trial in Moscow charged with a plot to overthrow the Soviet government, derided the proceedings tonight as "humbug."
 "For political vengeance," he cried, Trotsky exclaimed, "the trial puts the Dreyfus scandal and the reichstag fire in the shadow."
 "The process is all humbug. The confessions were forced by the 'OGPU' which gives the accused a choice between confessing according to the OGPU's desires and taking lesser penalties or death."
 "If I were in Russia I could easily disprove the accusations. But I have copies of every letter I have sent in the past seven years, and granted time, I shall prove provocateurs have been active in the Moscow trial for political revenge."
 "I will make the accusers the accused."

 "Flying squadrons" kept the jump to prevent flames from spreading behind the fire lines and encircling the fighters.
 Forest service officials expressed the hope of controlling the roaring 2800-acre blaze early tomorrow unless new winds spring up. The four-day-old fire had spread today to a 23-mile perimeter, near Stryker, Mont.
 Maj. Evan W. Kelley, regional forester, with headquarters at Missoula, Mont., said the flames had eaten into an area with an abundance of fallen timber for fuel, "resembling gigantic jackstraws."
