At 7:30 p. m., the historical flax pageant will be presented in the Mt. Angel auditorium by the Portland WPA group under the direction of Mrs. Bess Whitcomb of Portland. A wrestling match under the lights at Mt. Angel's splendid ball park will top off the celebration.

On September 3 and 4, the first two days of the festival, there will be no celebration during the day. The grand ceremonial coronation of Queen Flaxiana Thursday at 8:00 p. m., will open festivities. The ceremony will take place at the flax retting plant and will be followed by the coronation ball at which the queen and her princesses and their consorts will be special guests or honor.

Friday's contribution to the celebration will be two softball games at the ball park, a women's game between Meier and Frank team and the Mt. Angel all stars, and men's game between the Oregon state champions and the runner-up team at 7:30 p. m., followed by a dance at the flax plant.

To Remodel Lobby At Ladd and Bush

Plans for remodeling the lobby of the Ladd and Bush bank to give four additional windows for commercial depositors were announced by bank officials yesterday. The change is made necessary by the congestion at the wickets, especially near closing time, officials said.

Changes call for the moving of the new account desk and collection booth to the space now used for customers' booths on the north side of the bank. The rearrangement will allow for the installation of the additional windows on statement window will be moved to the space now used for new accounts in the southeastern corn-

The private room in the northeastern corner of the lobby is to be equipped with desks, chairs and other facilities for customer use.

Henry Porter Falls at State Fair Grounds

AUMSVILLE, Aug. 20 .- Henry Porter, 85, fell while at the state fair grounds Tuesday, resulting in shock and bruises and a cut on

He had been working with his son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Boone, preparing their restaurant building which they expect to conduct during the fair, and wishing to visit a friend, Mr. Porter started to leave the grounds by a short cut. On the way he decided to go over the fence, to avoid cars going on the highway. A ladder upon which he stepped, gave way, and he fell eight feet, with the ladder falling on his leg. He was removed to his home here and will be con-fined to his bed for several days.
